INTRODUCTION

This volume is entirely devoted to the bibliography of the Philippine Islands. In its narrowest significance, the term "Philippine bibliography" is restricted to the actual imprints of the Philippine Islands. By this term, however, we understand and include a much wider field—in addition to the above, all the printed books and pamphlets of any country dealing, in whole or in part, with the Philippine Islands; as well as all Manuscripts.

Obviously, one cannot hope, much less expect, within the compass of one single volume, to cover the field as just outlined. Besides it is unnecessary to duplicate work that has been so efficiently done already. The recent bibliographies published under the auspices of the Library of Congress, namely, those of A. P. C. Griffin and Dr. T. H. Pardo de Tavera, furnish excellent working bibliographies. The bibliographical works of Medina and Retana, although published in limited editions, are sufficiently accessible. The latest work of the latter, Aparato bibliográfico, offers the most extensive array of Philippine imprints yet listed. The catalogues (especially vols. iv and v) of Pedro Vindel, the Madrid bookseller, can be used to distinct advantage, and are easily obtainable. The Adiciones of Pérez and Güemes supplement Medina's and Retana's work on the imprints of Manila and the Philippines. Finally, the bibliographical comments of James A. LeRoy, published in The Philippine Islands, 1493-1898, Vol. LII, furnish the most comprehensive practical working list of Philippina for the later period of the Spanish régime that has yet been attempted.

It is to be observed that the above bibliographies, and all Philippine bibliographies generally, while they do note or publish some few MSS., with but few exceptions (notably Llorens Asensio's Primer vuelta al mundo) are devoted to the listing of printed matter. Consequently, it has been deemed expedient, in the present work, to limit our endeavors more directly to the field of MSS. — a field that offers so rich a source for the history of the Philippines. Yet, in order that one may find within our volume complete material for a thorough bibliographical survey of the Philippines, we have devoted the first part of our work to printed titles. We make no pretense of listing the titles usually found in bibliographies. Our first object, as seen by the first three divisions of printed titles, is to point out the sources for a complete bibliographical study of the Philippines. Those three divisions are: I. Philippine bibliographies, and important bibliographical lists;—this in small compass covering the entire field of imprints, so far as bibliographies have been compiled. II. Other bibliographies; catalogues of public and private libraries; and sales catalogues;—this division showing the recognition of Philippine titles by general and special bibliographers; to some extent the ownership of Philippina; and the demand and supply as demonstrated by the sales catalogues. III. Books, pamphlets, etc., containing bibliographical lists, notes, etc.;—this division showing titles in many different lines, some of great rarity and value. It must again be noted that we do not list the actual titles, but the sources where the titles may be found. The fourth division of printed titles is the only one that can be classed under the head of pure or general bibliography. This we have entitled “Books, pamphlets, etc. (mostly published in whole or in part in The Philippine Islands, 1493-1898).” The fact that we have used them, in whole or in part, as documents for our series constitutes the first reason for their appearance. We have introduced here a very few titles that we have not used, because of their scarcity or importance for the study of the history of the Philippine Archipelago, such as, for instance, Rivadeneira’s Historia of 1601. A special feature of the last division is the location of the rarer titles. However, we have made no attempt to cite prices, for since American occupation, prices have been more or less artificially raised, and the present price is not a sure index of the value of the books. To many of the printed titles, we append critical and other notes; and frequent references to the various Philippine bibliographies admit of a study of the critical notes of others. In this portion of our work, as in the manuscript division, we aim rather at the practical, and our attempt is to furnish a good working bibliography, and not one calculated merely to meet the tastes of the bibliophile.

We have personally examined most of the titles of the printed material listed by us, a process that has involved an immense amount of work, inasmuch as the various books are not to be found in one collection. This has necessitated research in many libraries; and we are able to assert that nowhere else have bibliographical aids to the study of the bibliography of the Philippine Islands been so extensively cited. We have made no attempt to list the many books that we have used for annotation, unless such books contain bibliographical information. Many general bibliographies and many special bibliographies contain Philippine titles. Many catalogues of private libraries also contain titles. Especially is this true of libraries of Americana, which generally list some Magalhães and Pigafetta material. While we have listed some libraries of Americana we make no effort to list all of them. It should also be noted that the ecclesiastical provinces of the Philippines extended to China and other parts of the Asiatic mainland, so that it is quite natural to expect that bibliographies of China and Japan and other parts of southern Asia should often contain Philippina. The student should also note that many collections of voyages, ecclesiastical books, etc., contain Philippine matter. Some of the titles cited contain very few items of Philippina, but some are of great importance. In the arrangement of the titles to books and pamphlets, we have adopted the strict chronological order.

For a study of the early history of printing in the Philippines, and its development, the reader will find useful matter in Medina's Imprenta en Manila (Santiago de Chile, 1896); and in Retana's Imprenta (Madrid, 1899), Introduction, col. 5-50. See also the rules of printing as published by the latter in vol. i of his Archivo. These rules were promulgated in Manila, February 16, 1857. It seems reasonably clear that the printing press was established in the Philippines as early as 1593, for in that year, Gomez Perez Dasmariñas licensed the printing of the Christian Doctrine in Tagalog and Chinese (see his letter of June 20, 1593, in our VOL. IX, p. 68), although no copies of this have come down to the present day. It must be noted, however, that from the language of the letter above cited, it may be assumed that the printing press had been established before the year 1593. However, the implied reasoning of Pérez and Güemes (Adiciones, pp. xxi-xxiv) following the statement of Beristain de Sousa, that the Arte y Vocabulario de la lengua tagala of Juan de Quiñones was printed at Manila in 1581, cannot be supported. The real history of printing in the Philippines, in which it seems that the religious orders had more to do than anyone else, has not yet been written, although it is worth careful study.

MANUSCRIPTS

The bibliography of MSS. forms the main part of the present volume. Important as is our citation of authorities citing Philippine titles, we believe this to be our chief contribution to Philippine bibliography. We do not hesitate to assert that we have presented more manuscript Philippine titles than all other bibliographers together. In this we have naturally had the benefit of the work of all bibliographers and authors who have cited Philippine MSS., and to such we are naturally under obligations. However, we have ourselves personally examined the greater part of the MSS. cited by us, and thus are enabled to cite directly from the originals or our transcripts from the originals. Especially is this true of the MSS. cited from the Archivo de Indias, at Sevilla; those of the Real Academia de la Historia, at Madrid; other government archives of that city; the MSS. belonging to Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A., of Valladolid, and those of the Colegio de Agustinos of the same city; those belonging to Pablo Pastells, S. J., at Sarriá; those of the Vatican; those in the Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris; those in the British Museum; and in America, those in Lenox, the Library of Congress, and the Ayer Collection. The rest we have cited from any source where we have found them mentioned. In addition to the arduous research in the various archives and libraries, the examination of the various authorities citing MSS. has entailed severe and protracted labor. In this research we have examined the following works: Sommervogel's Bibliothèque; Blumentritt's Vocabular; Huerta's Estado; Marcellino da Civezza's Saggio di bibliografia; Retana's works (especially his Bibliografía de Mindanao, and his Archivo); Vindel's Catálogos; Pérez's Catálogo; Pérez and Güemes's Adiciones; and others. When MSS. have been cited by several authorities, we have so stated; as we have also done when MSS. personally examined by us have been cited by others or transcribed for others. The constant effort has been to cite as many MSS. as possible, and to describe them as fully as possible. In some cases we have been able to give only the most meager details. This is true of some of the MSS. cited from the various archives, and which we personally examined. In such cases this arises from the fact that our notes were taken rather for immediate use in our series than for bibliographical purposes. All such MSS., however, have a value to the historical student, having been carefully selected from the thousands in the archives as worthy of publication.

Our manuscript division falls quite naturally into two parts: I. Those MSS. which we have published, in whole or in part, in our series. II. Those manuscripts which we merely cite and describe in this bibliography, but have not published in our series. The description of the MSS. of the first division is in general more complete than those of the second, except for the MSS. from the Library of Congress and the Ayer Collection. In all the MSS. of the first division and in as many as possible of the second, we have given the opening and closing words; and in some of the most important we have indicated the line endings of the titles.

We have not considered it advisable to list merely devotional writings, sermons, translations of the Christian Doctrine, Catechism, etc., of which there are so many, both in Spanish and in the Filipino idioms and dialects. Neither have we cited all linguistic MSS., of which also there are many. We have endeavored, however, to cite specially those documents of political, civil, social and economic value, our constant desire being to furnish sources for the study of the history of the Philippines and the Filipino peoples and other inhabitants of the Archipelago in all lines that tend toward human development—in a word, of the great forces that make for intellectual and spiritual achievement and progress, either through governmental, or social and economic (including ecclesiastical) activities. MSS. are cited for almost each year of the Spanish régime; and thus the manuscript division forms in itself an epitome of Philippine history.

Of some of the MSS. we are unable to give locations, as some have disappeared or our authorities have failed to give the place of conservation. But wherever possible we have given location and pressmark. We make no pretense at completeness. That is impossible in one single volume. But we do present a representative list of titles to MSS. gathered from many sources, and of distinct value.

The most important archives and libraries where Philippine material (both printed and manuscript) is conserved are noted below, with some comments on contents and scope.

PHILIPPINE ISLANDS

Manila Archives.—During the Spanish régime great confusion prevailed in the keeping of MSS. They were not even all housed in central archives. It is known that Governor Enrile took back to Spain with him many MSS. and printed documents (Pardo de Tavera, Noticias sobre la imprenta y el grabado, p. 8); and it is to be surmised that many documents now in private hands in the islands should by rights be in the archives. Each of the religious orders had, as now, its own archives, where many valuable documents were conserved. The parish priests, as customary in all parts, kept the records of their churches, and each municipality generally made some pretense at keeping records. Yet in all instances, the system was not by any means perfected. During the Tagalog rebellion of 1896-97, during the Spanish-American war, and during the later Filipino revolution, many documents and books were destroyed or looted by Spaniards, Filipinos, and Americans. Fortunately, some of the looted MSS. are gradually finding their way into American libraries and collections, where they will be adequately conserved. Since American occupation it has been the policy to gather all public records into one central point, namely, at Manila. A new bureau was accordingly created, which was known as the Bureau of Archives, Patents, Copyrights, and Brands. This bureau lost its entity in 1906, and is now a part of the Executive Bureau. The division of archives, etc., is under the management of Manuel de Iriarte, a Filipino of scholarly tastes, considerable executive ability, and thoroughness. Shortly after the creation of the bureau, one of the younger Filipino scholars, Clemente

Zulueta, a history professor in the new Filipino academy, was commissioned to go to Spain and other countries in order to gather information regarding Philippine MSS. This work came to a close on account of the death of Sr. Zulueta, and has not been resumed since. Notwithstanding that the archives have been removed four times since American occupation, work has steadily progressed, and much order brought out of the chaos that formerly ruled. Much valuable information has been furnished to the government and to private parties, from the archives, especially on land matters and accounts. There are over 5,000 volumes of Philippine MSS. in the Manila archives, and many loose MSS., relating to the various departments of government. The collection of records as reorganized since American occupation consists of papers covering a period of over two centuries. "It embraces papers referring to all subjects connected with the Spanish administration and all institutions affected by Spanish legislation. It embraces papers relating to the general administration of the archipelago, the municipalities, civil and religious corporations, colleges, hospitals, pious foundations, banks and mercantile corporations, consulates, printing offices, colonies, penal institutions, Chinese immigration, patents and trademarks, personal records of officials, public charity and health, public instruction, post and telegraph, market-license contracts, cock pits, weights and measures, ferries, opium, construction and repair of State, provincial, and municipal buildings; bridges, wagon-roads, railroads, and tramways; industrial, urbana, cedula, and Chinese head taxes; customs duties, revenue from stamped paper, revenue from vino and tobacco when these articles were monopolies of the State; sale of State lands, security fund, and various other matters." Among the documents are many important land records and many referring to the accounts and public funds.¹

In regard to the papers of the religious orders, many have been removed from the islands by the friars, but many that are most valuable yet remain in their archives; and it is hoped that in the near future a thorough investigation may be made of the documents in the various convents. Through the aid of Sr. Iriarte, we have been able to publish one important MS. from the Dominican archives.

Dr. T. H. Pardo de Tavera, of Manila, whom we have cited so frequently in this work, possesses a fine collection of Philippina, among which are many linguistic titles. Epifanio de los Santos, of Malolos, Bulakan, Luzón, also possesses a fine collection, said to number about 2,000 pieces, and which ¹ See Phil. Commission Report for 1901, i, pp. 130-132. See also the later reports of the Philippine Commission for matter regarding the archives. Sr. Iriarte is, in the midst of his other duties, preparing an index of the more important MSS. in the archives, which will render research much more easy.

Retana ranks above that of Pardo de Tavera. Some of the collection of C. Zulueta has been sold; as has also a portion of the Rizal collection. Manuel Ponce also owns some Philippina.

SPAIN

Archivo de Indias.—These archives are housed in the Lonja or Exchange at Sevilla. As their name indicates, they are the depôt for the conservation of papers relating to the Spanish Indies, both West and East. The West Indies include all the Spanish possessions in the Americas; the East Indies, the Philippines, Moluccas, other islands, and parts of the Asiatic mainland. These archives (which are under charge of Pedro Torres Lanzas) are the most important in existence for Philippine study, both from the number and variety of the papers conserved therein. There are many thousands of documents dating from the period of Magalhães's voyage to almost the end of the Spanish régime, and all are open to the student. These documents consist not only of MSS. but as well of printed pamphlets and broadsides, many of the greatest rarity. There are many duplicates and even some triplicates, etc., for in the old days in order to ensure arrival at their destination, letters, reports, etc., were generally sent in duplicate, triplicate, and even quadruplicate, on different vessels, the report of one year often including that of the previous year, which had been sent before.

Classification of documents is inadequate. The first general classification is into Audiencias, i.e., into the districts under the jurisdiction of the various tribunals of that name. Thus, there is the Audiencia de Quito, the Audiencia de Panamá, the Audiencia de Méjico, and the Audiencia de Filipinas. The indexes roughly classify into secular and ecclesiastical, but the division is often not sharp, and many documents are strangely out of place. There is little individual listing of documents, and still less attempt at calendaring. Yet, since the documents are classified by subjects and periods, this arrangement furnishes a rough working guide. In research, however, one must examine every document of the period under investigation, in order that no important material may escape. In the Philippine documents proper, there are four main divisions: those sent from Simancas; those entitled "Secretaría de Nueva España;" those entitled merely "Audiencia de Filipinas;" and the documents sent by the Ministry of War in 1887.

The subdivision of each group is into the special heads under which the documents naturally classify. Thus, to take a concrete example: the first special head of the documents of the Audiencia de Filipinas is "Consultas originales correspondientes á dicha Audiencia" (i.e., "Original consultations relating to said Audiencia"). The period embraced for this division is for the years 1586-1700; and the pressmark proper is "estante 67, cajón

6, legajos 1-3." "Estante" corresponds to "section," "cajón," to "shelf," and "legajo" to "bundle" (there being in this case three legajos). The various bundles are wrapped in strong paper and tied—a method that is somewhat hard on the MSS.; for since many of them are written and printed on the so-called rice paper, which has become brittle with age, each handling of the bundle aids the natural process of disintegration of such documents. Hence some of our transcripts are now more valuable than the original from which they were made.

Because of the importance of the Archivo de Indias for Philippine research, we give below the contents of the various indexes of Philippine documents: I. The documents sent from Simancas early in the nineteenth century are divided first into those of secular and ecclesiastical character indiscriminately—5 legajos; second, into documents of a secular character—68 legajos; and third, into documents of an ecclesiastical character—20 legajos. To this division must be added three legajos also sent from Simancas that treat of the discovery, description, and population of the Philippines. II. Documents of the "Secretaría de Nueva España"—divided into three divisions as above, of 25, 171, and 39 legajos, respectively. III. Audiencia de Filipinas. This is divided first, into documents of a secular character—670 legajos; second, into documents of an ecclesiastical character—66 legajos. IV. Documents sent by the Ministry of War in 1887. Two divisions as above, of 146 and 34 legajos respectively. This makes a total of 1,247 legajos treating entirely of the Philippines. To this must be added those documents in other divisions that treat of the Philippines, such as the Audiencia de Méjico (orders and decrees sent to the viceroys, etc.); the legajos treating of the Moluccas; papers in the division of justice and accounts; the division "Indiferente de Nueva España;" and others. The indexes of Philippine documents follow.

V. Inventario analítico de los papeles que vinieron de la contratacion de Sevilla a este archivo general de las Indias. This was made under the direction of Juan Agustin Ceán Bermudez, and is divided into four vols., showing in all a collection of 5,876 legajos of papers from the Seville House of Trade. Many papers treat of the Philippines. The two following indexes were made from this.

VI. Índice Alfabético de Todas las personas cōtenidas en el primero tomo del Inventario de los papeles de la Contratacion de Sevilla. This is excellent for biographical and bibliographical purposes, but one needs considerable patience in investigating it.

VII. Índices Alfabéticos de las Materias y Pueblos de Indias contenidos en los cuatro tomos de los inventarios de la Contratacion de Sevilla. The second part of this index contains considerable on the Philippines—accounts, registers, and commercial matters.

Biblioteca Nacional.—This is located at Madrid, and is under charge of the eminent Spanish scholar, Marcelino Menéndez y Pelayo. This library is not especially rich in either Philippine MSS. or books, although it possesses a few of the rarer books. The MSS. are carefully indexed by title and pressmark. See Gallardo's Ensayo for a list of MSS. and books, among which are noted some of the MSS. of this library. The books in the library are indexed and classified by authors by a system somewhat analogous to the modern card system, although much more clumsy. We have listed at least the most important of the Philippine MSS. of the library.

Archivo-Historico Nacional.—These archives are located in the same building as the above library, and are under the directorship of Vicente Vignau y Balester. The most important collection containing Philippine material is the Cedulario indico. This consists of forty-one volumes of royal decrees sent to the Indies by the various Spanish monarchs. It is evidently a copy made for the record of the government. Many of the decrees concern the Philippines, of which the last four volumes contain the greater number, although some few are scattered through most of the remaining volumes. No special order has been kept in the copying of the decrees of the Cedulario, and investigation is a matter requiring patient plodding. Accompanying the Cedulario is a twenty-four volume calendar, which is of some aid. The calendaring is poorly done, being in some instances longer than the decree itself. Many of the decrees exist in duplicate in Sevilla, and doubtless in Manila as well. The archives also possess a number of long expedientes concerning the expulsion of the Jesuits from the Philippines.

Real Academia de la Historia.— This academy, which has had an appreciable effect on Spanish culture, is also located in Madrid. It is rich in Philippine titles, both printed and manuscript. Among the former are many of the rarest imprints. Chief among its papers are the Papeles de los Jesuitas, or Jesuit papers. These were confiscated from the Jesuit convents at the time of the expulsion, and number in all about 225 volumes of bound MSS., pamphlets, and broadsides. Many of these papers relate to the Philippines. These consist of letters from various missionaries, reports on the missions, polemical writings, etc. Some of the reports on the islands and mission work are among the most important and interesting records of the islands. As a rule they were made by comparatively well-trained men who were interested in many matters outside of their own narrow sphere of mission work. We include in our series some of these reports. The Ventura del Arco transcripts to be described in this bibliography were almost entirely, if not wholly, made from these documents. The Salazar Collection of MSS., also conserved in this library, contains a few documents treating of the Philippines. The famous collection of transcripts made by Juan Bautista Muñoz is also owned by the Academy. These MSS. were transcribed by and for Muñoz from various archives in Spain (government and private) and Portugal, in pursuance of the royal order given him by Carlos III to write a history of Spanish discovery and conquest. Special orders were issued to the Spanish public archives, then jealously guarded, to give Muñoz every facility of research. It is to be regretted that the Spanish government saw fit to prohibit the publication of any of the work after the first volume.⁵ The title to the index of this collection reads as follows: "Index to the collection of MSS. belonging to the history of the Indias written by Don Juan Bautista Muñoz and found at his death in his library. Made by royal order, with the intervention of Don José Navarro, member of his Majesty's Council, alcalde of his royal house, and Cortes, and Don Cenon Alonso, chief official of the portfolio of Grace and Justice of Indias, by Don Joaquin Traggia and Don Manuel Abella, members of the Real Academia de la Historia." This index lists the following important MSS.: Historia de las islas é indios de Bisayas, by Alcina, 2 vols. (which a later note says is not now in the collection); portions of books i, ii, and iii of Chirino's Historia; a portion of Riquel's Relacion, transcribed from the printed copy; Solorzano's relation of the Marianas missions for 1682-1683; a portion of the Historia de las Islas Molucas, transcribed from the printed book of Antonio Galvan (1561); Roman's Relacion de las Islas Filipinas (1594); Loarca's Relacion; Torre's Relacion of Loaysa's voyage; documents concerning the expeditions of Magalhães, Saavedra, and Villalobos; Capitulos de carta del piloto D. Agustin de Ibarra que llevó á los franceses desde las islas Marianas hasta Filipinas en 1772; Extracto del diario formado en el viage de la fragata "Buen-fin" desde Manila al reino de Nueva-España, Jan. 6, 1773 (the original MS. being in the library of the Conde de Tepa); a portion of Gonzalez de Mendoza's Historia, with the Itinerario (from the copy of the Conde del Aguila); and many indexes to libraries. It appears that at least a part of Muñoz's Collection was made in duplicate or else a transcript was made of part of it, for at the Lenox branch of the N. Y. Public Library exists what is known by the name of the Muñoz Collection, together with a copy of Traggia's index (see post, pp. 41, 42). The chief value of Muñoz's work lies in the fact that he located many important MSS., among them the copy of Alexander VI's bull Inter cetera, of May 3, 1493, and some of the important MSS. conserved in the Portuguese archives.

Museo-Biblioteca de Ultramar.—This museum and library was founded in Madrid, in 1887 at the close of the Philippine exposition of that year; and its institution was due primarily to the efforts of Victor Balaguer, then minister of the colonies (see his Islas Filipinas, Madrid, 1895). The museum contains the exhibits of the exposition which were left as a permanent deposit. They form an excellent display of Philippine products and curios, which give a good idea of the progress of the arts and sciences in the islands, the methods employed in industry, etc. The collections of Philippine woods and shells are especially fine. There are a few paintings by Filipino artists, which do not show any preëminent merit, one of which is a copy of a Murillo. Concerning the library, we translate as follows from Balaguer, ut supra: "The library of the Museo de Ultramar consists of series and collections of books that treat exclusively of the colonies, many of them printed in those lands, and all relating to matters, events, and histories of countries conquered across seas by our glorious ancestors. This library was formed on the base of that possessed by the ministry of the colonies, together with the works which have been gathered, book by book, by dint of the persevering zeal and benedictine toil of the board at its head; the collection of the precious and chosen volumes and documents (a true treasure of bibliographical jewels) owned by Don Pascual Gayangos; and the acquisition of the many and very rare books formerly owned by Don Justo Zaragoza; two fine colonial libraries obtained by the Council of Filipinas and generously yielded by that corporation in order to swell the library of the above institute, which on that account has been able to complete its own until it is the first and only one of its kind in Spain." The collection consists of books and MSS. on all the Spanish colonies. There is a fine collection of Philippine titles, among which are some of the rarest. The MSS. are few in number, but are choice. Among the Philippine MSS. are Riquel's Relacion, the Relacion of Artieda, a Relacion by Legazpi, and the Valdes Tamon MS., all of which we publish (the last only in extract). The librarian in charge of this institution is Francisco de P. Cousiño y Vazquez. See the Catálogo of the library, which we list, post.

Biblioteca Real.—The royal library is located in the royal palace in Madrid, and is under charge of the Conde de las Navas, an author of some repute in Spain. Its shelves contain but very few Philippine titles, but what it has is valuable. Among its MSS. it lists a copy of Chirino's unpublished Historia; a copy of Sanchez's Relacion, presented to Felipe II, about 1590; and a copy of Valdes Tamon's Relación.

Deposito hidrográfico.—The principal office of this department is located in Madrid, and there is a branch office at Cadiz. Many of the documents are transcripts or duplicates of those now at Sevilla. The collection of maps is doubtless much greater than that of the A. de I.; especially for the last century of Spanish rule, and many of the late maps are probably printed. This bureau was for many years under the charge of Martin Fernández de Navarrete, who worked enthusiastically to increase the usefulness of the department, and caused many transcripts to be made. The documents collected by him are now known as the Navarrete Collection. Permission to carry on investigations in this bureau must be obtained through the government, either directly or by means of the intervention of the minister of the country of the applicant.

Archivo de Simancas.—As indicated by their name, these archives are located in the village of Simancas. They are housed in an old castle on the borders of the old kingdom of León, which was set apart by Carlos I and Felipe II for the conservation of state papers. They are at present under the directorship of Julian Paz, a man of great energy and an enthusiastic worker, who is endeavoring to reduce the chaotic disorder of the archives to a well-ordered system. It has been estimated that these archives contain some 33,000,000 documents. During the French invasion in the Napoleonic wars, many of the MSS. were scattered, burned, and looted, many being carried off to France and deposited in the royal library. Most but not all of these latter were restored later in the century. As already stated many documents were removed thence in the early part of the nineteenth century to A. de I., and there are still many more that should be removed to the same place. Most of the Philippine documents are state consultations, etc.; but there are some duplicates of the documents in A. de

I. We have published some few MSS. from these archives. An extended research would result in the finding of much valuable matter.

Archivo de Alcalá de Henares.—Montero y Vidal cites several MSS., some of which he gives in full, from these archives. Although no personal examination of these archives has been made, it is quite probable that there is nothing of special importance in them. The project has been broached of removing all the MSS. to Madrid (as well, indeed the MSS. of all the other government archives), in order that they may be conserved in one central point, and thus research be facilitated as in the Bibliothèque Nationale, in Paris.

Colegio de Agustinos, Valladolid.—This convent and college was founded in the eighteenth century, especially for the training of missionaries for the Philippines. On this account it is often called Colegio de Filipinas. In the library of this college are found some few rare Philippine titles, mainly chronicles and histories; and Diaz's MS., Conquistas de las Islas Philipinas, dated 1720. More noteworthy is the collection in the same convent belonging to Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A., one of the foremost Augustinian scholars in Spain. Father Navarro's collection of books shows the various divisions of history, biography, description, linguistics, religion, natural science, government and politics, statistics, and bibliography. While this collection contains some few of the old chronicles and older linguistic titles, the greater part is rather modern. The chief gems among the MSS. are Agustín María de Castro's Osario venerable, and Martínez de Zuñiga's Estadismo. Father Navarro also possesses some few hundreds of transcripts that were made in A. de I., many of which we have published from our own transcripts made from the same originals. Father Navarro has been an earnest worker in the Philippine field, and has written several books and pamphlets. He has lately been transferred to the Madrid convent of his order. Rev. Tirso Lopez of the Valladolid convent edited Diaz's chronicle from the original MS.

Retana, Catálogo, p. xiii, says that the Augustinian convent and colegio de la Vid (Búrgos) does not possess as many books as the Valladolid convent, but that it is rich in chronicles and vocabularies.

Collections at Dominican convents.—At the convent of Ocaña, Toledo, the Dominicans have some important Philippine books and MSS.; but we have not seen this collection. At the Avila convent of the order, are some of the rarest chronicles, among them the Historia of Diego Collantes.

Collection of the Compañía General de Tabacos de Filipinas.—This is the largest and best collection of Philippina in existence. It is located in the offices of the Company at Barcelona, and is due to the initiative of the director, Clemente Miralles de Imperial, who began to make his collections in 1883, with the intention of amassing into one collection all available books on the Philippines, at least those written in the Spanish language. In 1894 he entered into relations with Retana and Vindel. Since 1896, he has bought many books from European booksellers outside of Spain. The librarian in charge of the collection is José Sánchez Garrigós, from whom the information regarding this collection is in part derived. According to Retana's latest bibliographical work, Aparato bibliográfico, which is the catalogue of this collection, it contains 4,623 different titles. In 1900, the Company purchased the magnificent collection of Retana, which consisted of 2,697 titles, which the latter claims that he sold at a sacrifice. The duplicates obtained with Retana's Collection, the Company has sold. Since it has not been the policy of the Company to acquire original MSS., it has disposed of most if not all of such that came into its possession. On the other hand, the Company possesses transcripts from originals in A. de I., amounting to 34,000 pliegos, or 68,000 leaves. The work of gathering transcripts was begun in accordance with the suggestion of Retana, in 1895, and the work was given in commission to Vicente Llorens Asensio, of the staff of A. de I. in 1899. These transcripts the Company has generously loaned to Pablo Pastells, to whom they were of immense use in editing his edition of Colin's Labor evangélica. Of books, there are in this incomparable collection, 1,702 titles in linguistics; and of newspapers, 127 of the 182 (either in whole or in part of the entire issue) published in the islands, besides all the old chronicles. Volumes in this collection have come from the following collections: Soweleski, Ramirez, Duque de Alba, Duque de Durcal, Fermin Caballero, Marqués de Liedena, Duque de T'Serclaes, Salva-Heredia, the Emperor Maximilian, Sancho Rayón, Medina, Cabezas de Herrera, Barrantes, General Terrero, Tiscar, Zapater, and others (many of them having come through the Retana Collection). All the books are carefully bound, and among them are seen some celebrated bindings. See Aparato bibliográfico, i, Retana's introduction; and Pastells's edition of Colin's Labor evangélica, i, pp. 236-238. The Company very generously allows research among its treasures. Since American occupation, it should be said that more attention has been paid to the collection of foreign books.

Pastells's Collection.—One of the best known workers in the field of Philippina is Pablo Pastells, S. J., of Sarriá. Pastells was for many years a missionary in the Philippines, and was at one time the teacher of Dr. Rizal. He collaborated with Retana in his edition of Combés's Historia de Mindanao y Joló. Some of the letters written by him concerning Mindanao contain valuable ethnological material. He has also contributed a few notes to our series. His chief work, however, is his edition of Colin's Labor evangélica, published at Barcelona, in 1904, in three vols. As above stated, he had the use of the transcripts gathered by the C. G. de T. de F., many of which he has reproduced in his footnotes. In his own collection Father Pastells possesses a few of the old chronicles, and of important MSS. that of Murillo Velarde's Historia. In addition he had the use of the MS. of Chirino's unpublished Historia, which was either lent or given to him by Ramón Martínez Vigil, O. P., now bishop of Oviedo in Spain, but formerly stationed in the Philippines.

Other Spanish Collections.—According to Retana (Aparato bibl., i, p. xxxv), there were few collectors in Philippina until 1898. Agustín María de Castro had an excellent collection as early as 1780, especially of the writings of Augustinians. Francisco Zapater, who was in the Philippines in the middle of the nineteenth century, possessed many books. After his death in Zaragoza, whither he had removed his residence, many of his books were bought by Retana. José de Keyser y Muñoz possessed some excellent MSS., of which Retana acquired two. Vicente Barrantes's collection obtained more prestige than it deserved. It consisted of about 600 titles, most of which were ordinary and all of which were not in the best condition.⁶ At his death the collection was sold to Vindel. Some of the MSS. and the corridos were bought for the Ayer Collection, and others of the collection were sold to the C. G. de T. de F. The collection of Juan Álvarez Guerra, numbering less even than that of Barrantes, was sold piece by piece while its owner was still living. Some were purchased by the C. G. de T. de F., and others were bought by Vindel, whence some have come to the United States. A small collection was also possessed by José Velarde y Naveda, an official of the colonial government. Antonio Graiño, of the firm of Victoriano Suárez, in Madrid, has been collecting Philippina. He has some of the rarest of titles, among which is the only copy known of Arte y reglas de la lengua tagala, by San José (Bataán, 1610). He also possesses two copies of Collantes's Historia, and some valuable MSS., among them a copy of Viana's Demostracion deplorable. His object is ultimately to sell these books, but he is waiting until the prices go up, and meanwhile is endeavoring to obtain all the copies possible of all the rare books in order that he may control the price. The collections of the Marqués de Jerez de los Caballeros, and of the Duque de T'Serclaes, both of Sevilla, contained some good Philippine titles. The universities of Sevilla and Barcelona, and the provincial library at Toledo possess a few of the older historical titles.

⁶ According to Retana; some of the MSS. of this collection, however, now owned by the Ayer Collection, have a decided value. One often suspects Retana's judgment to be warped by personal feeling, which leads him to assign less merit than is due.

Archives and libraries in Portugal

The most important archives in Portugal are the national archives called Torre do Tombo, which are located in Lisbon. These contain some Philippine MSS., and many MSS. relating to the Portuguese settlements in the Orient. Some of the Muñoz transcripts were made from documents in these archives. The public library of Lisbon or the Biblioteca Nacional, also located in Lisbon, contains a few Philippine titles among its printed books, as well as a few MSS. The Portuguese archives are a prolific source of information for the Moluccas Islands and the Asiatic mainland.

Archives and libraries in Italy

Archivio del Vaticano.—This is the most important of the archives in Italy, and investigation is open to all. They contain many important collections that have come from many sources. There is less Philippine material, however, than one might reasonably expect. The greater part of the Philippine MSS. consists of the copies of papal bulls and briefs; although there are some reports, such as the important relation of Alonso Sanchez, S. J., made about 1590. There is also some little matter in regard to the episcopal visit of regulars, which was waged so fiercely in the islands and in Spain. The indexes of the archives are poor and research is consequently arduous.

Biblioteca del Vaticano.—The library of the Vatican is quite separate from the archives. Like the latter it is extremely rich in the many important collections conserved therein. Considerable confusion is manifest, and all the collections are not yet adequately catalogued. There are some rare Philippine titles, but Philippina is not extensive. Retana, Imprenta, col. 50, citing from Agustin María de Castro's Osario, says that copies of all the printed volumes mentioned in that MS. were sent to Rome in 1766. We did not see those books, although they may be in the library. Judging from a survey of the material in both the library and the archives of the Vatican, one is forced to the conclusion that direct communication between Rome and the islands was not very frequent. An examination of the archives of the generals of the various orders might reveal more clearly the channel through which the communications flowed.

Other collections in Rome.—There must be some material in Propaganda Fide, but it is difficult to gain access to the shelves of that institution. In the Biblioteca de Vittorio Emanuele, which contains many MSS. from suppressed convents, especially on the Jesuit missions in China, there appears to be no Philippine material. The nearest approach to it is a manuscript map, by Joseph Somera, of the Palaos in 1710 (see our VOL. XLI, p. 53, where we reproduce this in photographic facsimile).

Biblioteca Ambrosiana.—This is one of the most famous libraries in the world. It was founded in Milan in 1609 by Cardinal Federigo Borromeo, who sent scholars into all the European countries to buy rare and valuable books and MSS. Of books the library contains about 175,000, and of MSS. over 8,000. It contains very few Philippine books, and those of no special rarity. It is chiefly interesting to the student of Philippina because of the Italian relation of Magalhães's voyage by Antonio Pigafetta. In regard to this MS. and the Ambrosian Library see post, p. 144, and Robertson's Magellan's voyage around the world, ii, "Bibliography." There is also a copy of Alonso Sanchez's report, as well as several minor documents, in this collection. The Breda Library of Milan contains a few rare Pigafetta titles.

France

Bibliothèque Nationale.—The Bibliothèque Nationale is the only library in France to be considered by the student of Philippina. In the printed books department are found many of the rare Philippine titles. These will be found listed in the catalogue of printed books now under process of compilation. In the manuscripts department, the two chief treasures are the two French Pigafetta MSS. (see post, p. 240, and Robertson's Magellan's voyage around the world, ii, "Bibliography"). Some of the Philippine MSS. are probably among those looted by the French armies from the Simancas archives, which were not restored to Spain with the MSS. sent back to that country. Worthy of mention is also the relation by the so-called Genoese pilot of Magalhães's voyage. Cataloguing is carefully done and research is much more easy than in the Spanish and Italian archives.

England

British Museum.—As on most subjects, the British Museum contains good collections of Philippine printed material and MSS. Among the first are many of the rare chronicles and histories (of some of them there are two or more copies), and many of the rarest pamphlets. The MSS. are mainly in the Spanish language, but there are a few in English. Among the best of the latter are Dampier's account, and Dalrymple's Plan for an attack on the southern islands. The Spanish MSS. are catalogued in part in Pascual Gayangos's Catalogue of the Spanish MSS. in the British Museum. They were acquired in large part in various sales, one of which was the sale of the Carley Castle Collection. There are also a number of manuscript maps, which have some interest.

Mention must also be made of the Phillipps Collection which is conserved at Cheltenham, England. This contains the Nancy MS. of Pigafetta's relation (see post, pp. 239, 240; and Robertson's Magellan's voyage around the world).

Other European collections

A letter from the director of the Netherlands archives at The Hague reports that there is no distinctive section of the archives devoted to Philippine MSS. Most of the papers are written in the Dutch language, and many treat of the Dutch expeditions to the Orient and the Dutch Oriental possessions. It is quite probable that many MSS. of the East Indies contain references to the Philippines.

Retana (Imprenta), and Pardo de Tavera (Bibl. fil., p. 9), say that the University of Leyden contains a good collection of Philippine books and documents, as does also the national library of Berlin.

Retana also notes that Blumentritt's collection is rather large, and has a practical value. It contains many of the works printed outside of Spain, especially the recent scientific titles.

Retana (Imprenta, cols. 50, 51), records that a Russian imperial order of November 13, 1787, requested the captain-general of the Philippines to send Filipino grammars and vocabularies to Russia, and that the request was granted.

Mexico

Biblioteca Nacional.—We have made no personal examination of this library, but from the close connection of Mexico and the Philippines until the Mexican revolt, one would naturally expect to find many Philippine documents in Mexico. Our first inquiries, however, resulted only in the report that there were no Philippine MSS. whatever in the Biblioteca Nacional. But just as our volume is going to press, Dr. H. E. Bolton, of Texas State University (now making investigations in Mexico for the Carnegie Institution), reports that the Philippine matter in this library is contained in three volumes. One of these (consisting of 755 pages) is entitled "Año de 1669. Gen.¹ Franc.^o Garcia del Fresno. Traslado de los Autos que precedieron p.^a encomendarle los nat.^s Del pu.^o de Vigan y sus sugetos en la Prov.^a de Ylocos, que gozava. En segunda Vida D.^a Ana de Sarate por mrd. de su Magestad." The two other volumes contain copies called "Fragmentos de la Historia de Filipinas del P. F. Juan de la Concepcion, y Copia de la de China del P.^o Jesuita Guzman." We are also indebted for the following information regarding Philippine material in other Mexican archives to Dr. Bolton.

Archivo General y Público.—The basis of these archives was that of the superior government of the Mexican viceroys, to which belonged almost all the documents treating of the Philippines. There is considerable material in the section entitled "Reales Cédulas." This section consists of 210 bound volumes of original cédulas and orders addressed to the viceroys by the Spanish monarchs for the years 1609-1821. Cédulas relating to the Philippines, and treating of many different matters, are found in almost every volume. Many treat of the Acapulco galleon, the general commerce of the Philippines, and funds raised in Mexico for the islands. The section entitled "Correspondencia de los Virreyes," and consisting of 244 volumes, contains for the period 1755-1821, a chronological file of the reports of the viceroys to the Spanish office. Many of these relate to the Philippines. The subjects dealt with in the ten communications touching the Philippines in the first volume are typical. These are as follows: the despatch of the Acapulco galleon; procedure in case of prizes; appointment of the archbishop of Manila; permit to go to China; regulations for the sale of goods brought in the galleon at the fair in Acapulco; mode of remitting royal despatches from Mexico to the islands; and remittance of money for the building of the Manila hospital. The section entitled "Filipinas" comprises about sixty volumes. The greater part of the documents of this section consist of correspondence of the viceroy with the following: the governor of the Philippines; the castellan of Acapulco; the port officials of San Blas; mission authorities, both of Mexico and the Philippines; the tribunal of the Real Consulado of Manila; and various officials of the royal exchequer of Mexico. In addition, there are reports of the proceedings of the Audiencias of Manila and Mexico, and expedientes relating to various miscellaneous matters. The various documents are roughly classified chronologically. The matters most frequently met in the correspondence are: current events in the Philippines; trade regulations; the Acapulco galleon; remittance of situados; mission funds and supplies; transportation of missionaries; recruiting of soldiers; and financial and military reports. None of these classes of papers seems to be complete for the period covered. The correspondence of the governors occasionally contain valuable relations of the events of the islands: e.g., an extended report (1755), of the eruption of the volcano of Taal (with a map); the report of 1755 concerning the expulsion of the infidel Chinese from the Parián, and the Moro raids; and the reports of 1757 concerning the Moro raids, the reception at Manila of the embassy from the Moro sultan, Ali-Mudin, and the fire in the Parián. Other sections of these archives containing Philippine material are: "Impresos Oficiales;" "Marina;" "Misiones;" "Californias;" and "Historia." In a general way, all the subjects mentioned above are scattered through all these sections, but yet there is some differentiation. The section of Marina particularly contains much material concerning the movements of vessels, whether of trade or war, between Mexico and the islands (this material being found for the most part in the volumes devoted to Acapulco and San Blas). The small amount of material in the section "Historia" is mainly of the class just described. In "Impresos Oficiales" are found numerous printed edicts, circulars, ordinances, and regulations, concerning Philippine trade in the eighteenth century. Vol. iv contains the Ordinanzas de la Compañía de Comercio formada en la Ciudad de Manila, 1755. Vols. i, iv, viii, and ix of the section "Misiones" contain Philippine material. In vol. viii are documents relating to the obra pía of the college of San Andres (1789); and matter regarding the supplies of the Recollect province of San Nicolás. Vols. iv and ix contain accounts by missionaries (1665-1796). Vol. xxii of the section "Californias" contains correspondence with the governor concerning the danger of an English expedition to the Philippines (1802). Vol. xxvi of the same section consists almost entirely of royal cédulas relative to Dominican and Augustinian missions in the Californias and Philippines (1634-1751). In vol. xlvii are numerous documents relative to Mourelle's voyage "by the new route of the equinoctial" (1780-1781). These include the diaries of Mourelle and other officers of the expedition.

Museo Nacional.—The most valuable papers concern the missions. The best of these are found in the Franciscan convent papers, which comprise about seventy-five large legajos and over two hundred bound volumes (the latter of little importance) treating of miscellaneous matters. About one-third of the legajos contain valuable reports and letters from the Franciscans in the Philippines, which are mainly addressed to the commissaries-general of Nueva España. Some of these letters are dated as early as 1632, but most of them are of the eighteenth century. Some of the reports treat of the religious affairs of the entire Orient as well as of the Philippines. Considerable matter relating to the ecclesiastical history of the islands is to be found in a series of five volumes entitled Manuscritos varios and belonging to the Lancaster-Jones Collection. These papers, many of which evidently came from the archives of the archbishopric of Mexico, date from 1567 to 1819. The Museo Nacional also contains a copy of Rojo's Operaciones del arzobispo de Manila (Sept. 7, 1763; see post, pp. 231, 232). In legajo 1 of a series of seven legajos is found the journal of the same archbishop (Dec. 23, 1762; see post, p. 128). Accompanying this is a brief notice of the death and funeral of Rojo.

We also list five MSS. belonging to one Angel Barber in the City of Mexico, whose titles we obtained through the courtesy of Camillus Crivelli, S. J., of Mexico.

United States

Within the United States are several notable collections of Philippina. Both Harvard and Boston Public libraries are rich in the old Philippine chronicles and histories. Neither library ever made any special attempt at such collections, and the books found their way to the library shelves in various manners. At least one of the books in the Boston Public Library was part of the Bowditch Collection, and others are in the Ticknor Collection. There are no MSS. in Harvard, and Boston Public numbers less than half a dozen. The State Library of Boston can boast only of a royal decree of Madrid, September 30, 1639, in answer to a petition of Grau y Monfalcon; and another decree of Madrid, July 10, 1786, regarding commerce—both printed. They were acquired in a recent shipment from Mexico. The Massachusetts Historical Library, also in Boston, owns a copy of Murillo Velarde's Historia.

The John Carter Brown Library, of Providence, now in possession of Brown University, contains some of the rarest of Philippine books, but no MSS. It contains some of the rarest Pigafetta and Magalhães material (see Robertson's Magellan's voyage around the world), the rare Morga, various editions of Leonardo de Argensola, several editions of Gonzalez de Mendoza's Historia, etc.

Lenox.—The Lenox branch of the New York Public Library contains a goodly list of the rarest and most valuable Philippine chronicles and histories (see Bulletin, iv, no. 1, 1900). There are also some good Philippine MSS. These latter belong to the Rich Collection, which was purchased from Mr. Obadiah Rich, the well-known book collector, about the year 1848. The MSS. of this collection (see Bulletin, v, July, 1901) relate mainly to Spanish America. Its source is given as follows: "The greater part of this collection was formed by Don Antonio de Uguina, of Madrid. It comprises almost everything of interest that was collected for his friend Muñoz for the Historia del Nuevo Mundo, of which only the first volume was published. Uguina was also the friend of Navarrete, and furnished him with many of the materials for his Coleccion de Viages. After the death of Uguina, his MSS. were purchased by M. Ternaux Compans, of Paris, who had already collected many MSS. on Spanish America. The whole collection afterwards came into the possession of O. Rich, who added these to some MSS. from the collection of Lord Kingsborough, and a few procured by himself in Spain." In all the collection forms 142 folio and quarto volumes, bound in morocco. No. 6 of this collection consists of a series of papers on the possession of the Moluccas. In regard to the documents that purport to come from the Muñoz Collection, see ante, p. 30. The presence of these documents raises the interesting question as to which are the real Muñoz documents. There are copies of the Loarca Relacion both in Lenox and in R. A. de la H. On the other hand, the first vol. of Alcina's Relacion, which the Traggia index at R. A. de la H. says is missing from the collection, is found in the Lenox library. The question can only be satisfactorily solved by a detailed examination of both the MSS. of

R. A. de la H. and Lenox. We lean rather to the theory that Muñoz's transcripts were made in duplicate.

There are a few rare Philippine titles in Astor branch of the N. Y. Public library. See the Bulletin for 1900. Both Lenox and Astor contain much matter for bibliographical study.

The Hispanic Society of New York City, lately inaugurated by Mr. Archer M. Huntington, has valuable Philippine books and MSS. However, as the collection has not yet been opened to scholars, it is impossible to state the extent of Philippine material. Among the books are some valuable linguistic works, and some of the earliest chronicles of the islands.

In Philadelphia, three libraries possess rare Philippina. The Library Company owns a copy of Murillo Velarde's Historia, and an Extracto historial. The Widener branch of the Public Library owns a set of Concepcion's Historia. The American Philosophical Society owns a copy of Salazar's Historia.

Library of Congress.—For the extent and scope of the various collections in the Library of Congress, see the bibliography issued by the Library, containing A. P. C. Griffin's List of books and P. Lee Phillips's List of maps. The collection of books contains a number of rare titles, although there are numerous titles that the library should have which are lacking. The only library in the United States that can at all compete with it, so far as general Philippina is concerned, is the Ayer Collection in Chicago. It has but few MSS. treating directly of the Philippines; but does possess all the records that were conserved in the island of Guam. These treat in general of the Marianas Islands. Unfortunately, they were conserved in a place that was liable to visitation by the sea at times, and consequently the MSS. are in a poor state of preservation, even most of the more recent. A letter to Herbert Putnam, Librarian of Congress, conserved with the Guam MSS., states that the archives of Guam contained in August, 1897-August, 1900, documents of at least three classes: I. Trials and residencias. The most interesting is that of Lieutenant-General Don Antonio Pimentel, who gave provisions to Woods Rogers in 1710 just after the latter had captured the Spanish galleon "Nuestra Señora de la Encarnacion" off the coast of Lower California. With Rogers at that time was Alexander Selkirk, who had but recently been rescued from the island of Juan Fernandez. II. Inventory of effects belonging to the Jesuits at the time of their expulsion. This shows their flourishing condition and bears testimony to their introduction of useful arts. III. Letter books of various governors stored in the government house, Sept. 26, 1831-March 4, 1892, 11 vols. These letters contain social and economic information, records the earthquakes, etc. There is one volume marked "Department of War" (April 25, 1863-September 16, 1875); and a file of Manila newspapers which are in poor condition. The library possesses a number of broadsides, circulars, etc., some of which were issued by Aguinaldo. There are also five numbers of the manuscript newspaper published by the insurgents during the revolution against the American government. The serious student of Philippina must have recourse to the treasures of the Library of Congress.

The library of the War Department in Washington possesses a number of Philippine titles. The only rare work is Combés's Historia.

Ayer Collection.—This is a private collection which is owned by Edward E. Ayer, of Chicago. As soon as the American victory in Manila Bay was cabled to the United States, Mr. Ayer, who has long been an enthusiastic collector of Americana, ordered his agents both at home and abroad to buy Philippina. As a consequence, his collection ranks among the best in the world in point of value. While it does not include as many ordinary book titles as the Library of Congress, it contains about as many of the rarer, and has some that the Library of Congress does not possess. Many of the books (as well as MSS.) were purchased from the C. G. de T. de F., and were formerly owned by W. E. Retana. In regard to MSS., this collection shows the best material outside of A. de I. The MSS. embrace almost the entire period of the Spanish régime, and while not so remarkable in point of number of individual pieces, it is remarkable in point of value. To mention only a few of the more important MSS., one finds here the Viana MSS., which contain so much useful and exact economic and government material; the Bernaldez MS., and another MS. of the early nineteenth century in which is found much that is extremely valuable; the Anda MSS.; the ecclesiastical MSS., which throw light on the troubles between the secular and regular branches of the clergy; the Ventura del Arco transcripts, copied from R. A. de la H.; and finally the two Rizal MSS., which throw not a little light on Rizal's life. Some of the MSS. were formerly in the Retana and Barrantes collections. Many were purchased from Vindel, and some through Chadenat. All the MSS. are fully listed post. Mention should be made here of the bamboo rolls in the collection, on which are scratched in Mangyan characters a number of Mangyan songs. These are translated into Tagálog by three Mangyans, Bocon, Damdam, and Cobla, and an English version has been made by Fletcher Gardner. The rolls are accompanied by papers on which are written the songs in the three languages. Only the Mangyan is written on the rolls. The songs are mainly begging and courting songs. These rolls are valuable ethnological contributions. With unexampled generosity, Mr. Ayer, of his own volition, threw open his magnificent collection to us in the preparation of our series, allowing the free use of his material in any way we deemed best.

University of California.—Prof. Bernard Moses replies to our inquiry that the only MSS. “relating to the Philippines” in the library of the University, “are copies of such as relate to affairs under American administration.” Speaking of the documents at Manila, he says: “We had a plan to publish some of the most ancient of these papers, and thus save them from the inevitable destruction that is before them in that climate, but the original commission was broken up before we were able to carry out this design.”

Leland Stanford, Jr., University.—This library possesses no rare printed Philippina. It does possess some MSS., all of which are modern, and some of them since American occupation. The collection embraces judicial, educational, revolutionary, and other papers. We present in brief in this place a note regarding the collection received from Melvin G. Dodge, associate librarian of the university, which was made by one of the instructors of the university. We have not listed the MSS. among the manuscript titles.

We have yet to touch upon a few special features, either belonging to the realm of bibliography or closely connected therewith.

Linguistics.— Books printed in the various languages and dialects of the Philippine Islands, and grammars and lexicons, form a considerable part of many collections. The C. G. de T. de F. has more linguistic titles than any other collection, numbering 1,702. These include 79 corridos or romances, 17 other works resembling corridos. Many of these titles had formerly belonged to W. E. Retana. Pardo de Tavera possesses many linguistic titles, his collection extending to all the languages of Oceanica. The Ayer Collection shows some hundreds of titles (which were mainly gathered by Dr. Doherty), among which are many that are rare. The library of Peabody Institute of Baltimore, which possesses the scarce third volume of Mas, and a Mallat with the atlas, makes a specialty of collecting linguistic titles. As yet the collection is small, but it is very choice, and numbers some of the rarest titles. It is gratifying to note that several American scholars have taken up the systematic study of the languages and dialects of the Philippines. The work done by Dr. Frank R. Blake, of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, holds chief place. A letter from Dr. Blake thus describes the work and its results: "The work in Philippine languages begun at the Johns Hopkins University in 1901 is still going on. It was designed to give instruction in the principal Philippine languages, and publish articles on various important topics of Philippine grammar. Beginning with 1901, instruction has been given in Tagálog, Bisayan, and Ilokan, as well as in the kindred idiom, Malay. A series of lectures on the native tribes of the Philippines was also given twice during the period. A scientific Tagálog grammar has been prepared, and manuals of other important dialects have been projected. A number of articles on various topics of Philippine philology have been published by myself and my students, Dr. W. G. Seiple, now professor of Hebrew in the Reformed Church college in Japan, and Dr. L. B. Wolfenson of Baltimore. The following is a list of these, viz.:

"By F. R. Blake.— Study of Philippine languages at Johns Hopkins University; in American Anthropologist, 1902, iv, p. 793. Sanskrit loan words in Tagálog; in J. H. U. Circulars, 1903, no. 163, p. 63. Analogies between Semitic and Tagálog; ibid., p. 65. Differences between Tagálog and Bisayan; in Journal of American Oriental Society, 1904, xxv, pp. 162-169. The Bisayan dialects; ibid., 1905, xxvi, pp. 120-136. Expression of case by the verb in Tagálog; ibid., 1906, xxvii, pp. 183-189. Contributions to comparative Philippine grammar: general features; phonology; pronouns; ibid., 1906, xxvii, pp. 317-396.

"By W. G. Seiple.— Tagálog poetry; J. H. U. Circulars, 1903, no. 163, p. 78. The Tagálog numerals; ibid., p. 79. Polysyllabic roots with initial P in Tagálog; in Journal of American Oriental Society, 1904, xxv, pp. 287-301.

“By L. B. Wolfenson.— The infixes la, li, lo, in Tagálog; ibid., 1906, xxvii, pp. 142-146.

“Other articles in a more or less advanced stage of completion await publication, the most important and extensive being the Tagálog grammar above mentioned. No bibliography of Philippine languages has yet been published by the university, but I have prepared such a bibliography on cards, and expect to publish it as soon as I can find the time.”

Dr. David J. Doherty, of Chicago, who is one of the warmest champions of immediate Filipino independence, and who is now in the Philippines, has been working for some time in the various Filipino languages. He is attempting to amalgamate the seven chief languages of the Christian population into one common tongue. To this end he has compiled on cards a dictionary of the Tagálog language, to which he has added the words as used by the natives in the other languages. When the work is complete, he proposes to ask the Philippine Academy to decide which words should be given the preference in the common language, and the attempt will be made to bring the words into general usage through the assistance of the literati and press. Dr. Doherty has gathered many phonograph records with specimens of the various languages on them, in order that he may have the correct intonation and accent of the words. A letter received some time ago from him states that his dictionary was ready for press, and he expected the Philippine government to publish it. The work was done throughout with the aid of native Filipinos of education.

In answer to a letter of inquiry regarding his work, Willard A. Goodell, of North Truro, Mass., and formerly a missionary in the Philippines, writes us as follows concerning his work: “Although I became somewhat proficient in the use of the Tagálog dialect – sufficiently so that I was able to preach in it for the last two years that I was in the islands – and although I did considerable work translating for our mission, upon our Hymnal, Sunday-school lessons, handbooks for native workers, etc., as well as supervising the translation of Stalker’s Life of Christ, still I cannot really cite you to one work, which is mine as a translator. The entire style of the Malay dialects is so decidedly different from western tongues and so difficult to acquire that one must needs be long among the people before his acquired knowledge of the language would be as safe a guide to idiomatic accuracy as the instinct of the native. To this instinct, we were accustomed regularly to appeal and upon it to rely in our translations. I doubt if any other mode of translation is safe. I was repeatedly assured by Tagálogs that no Spanish friars had ever become perfectly idiomatic in their use of Tagálog. I have seen certain of their translations which were clearer to my Latin-trained mind than to the Tagálog in whose language they purported to read. If I had been able to return for a second term of work, the translation of several standard religious works (with such native help as I should need), had already been assigned me as one of my chief tasks."

Maps and cartography.—Probably the best collection of manuscript maps is that of the A. de I. (with the possible exception of the following). For a list of these see Torres Lanzas's Relacion descriptiva de los mapas, planos, etc., de Filipinas (Madrid, 1897). See also post, p. 59, for the title of a map missed by the compiler. There is also a large plan of Cavite dated 1659, sent to the archives by the ministry of war, which is not included in the list. The Deposito Hidrográfico of Madrid also possesses a collection of manuscript maps, some of which are probably duplicates of those in A. de I. It is likely that this bureau also possesses copies of many printed maps. The manuscript map in Biblioteca Vittorio Emanuele of the Palaos, we have already noted. The Bibliothèque Nationale of Paris has comparatively few Philippine maps. At the British Museum is a large collection of printed maps, and a few manuscript maps. The latter are as follows:

BOWERY, T.:—Island of Mindanao or Magendanao with chart. Add. MSS. 5,222, art. 9.

CAMELLI, G. J.:—Drawings of trees in the Philippine Islands, with descriptions in Latin. Add. MSS. 5,288.

KELLY, DIONISIO:—Planos de los contornos de Manila. Manila, Jan. 1, 1775. Add. MSS. 17,641, C.

CLAVERO, GREGORIO:—Plano de la plaza y contornos de Manila. Jan. 1, 1800. Add. MSS. 17,641, D.

FOVEDA, PASCUAL, O. P.:—Mapa de la provincia del Zifun en las Yslas Philipinas. 1768. In dim colors. Add. MSS. 17,642, D.

SALAVENNA, SANTIAGO:—Plano de la Isla de Panay construydo y enmendado, en todos sus puertos, sondas, bajos, y islas adjacentes con demos^{as} de baluartes q^e. defienden las coustas y playas de la prov^a. de Yloylo. Dec. 21, 1797. In colors. Add. MSS. 17,642, E.

The collection of engraved maps in the Library of Congress is a notable one. See P. Lee Phillips's List of maps, charts, and views, which accompanies Griffin's List of books. This shows 860 maps, etc., ranging in date from Magellan's time (reproductions) to 1903. General maps of various parts of the world, containing the Philippine Islands, are not listed in Phillips's bibliography. Since then a number of maps have been acquired. Chief among them is a copy of the famous Murillo Velarde map, which was engraved by a Filipino in 1734. This map is described in our VOL. XLIX, p. 63, note 25. Without the accompanying figures, this map is reproduced in Murillo Velarde's Historia, from an engraving of 1744. It was also reproduced by Bellin in 1752, and in his Pet. atlas mar. (Paris, 1764); and in Hist. Besch. Reizen (Amsterdam, 1758), xvii, p. 28. See also the monographs by Pardo de Tavera and Gabriel Marcel regarding this map. Mr. Phillips is preparing at the present time a bibliography of atlases (both world and of special localities), which will contain a Philippine section. He is also preparing a bibliography of universal cartography with copious annotations. This will contain much useful information concerning maps and their makers. The War Department Library in Washington possesses some good Spanish maps. The Hydrographic Office of the War Department at Washington has published various maps; and the office gathers data for maps and charts from every available source, by which they correct the maps of the Coast and Geodetic Survey. Charts are furnished to all naval vessels, and sold to all vessels desiring them. The United States Coast and Geodetic Survey opened a sub-office at Manila, September 19, 1900. Since that time the work of the department has been carried on continuously, and many harbor and coast lines have been surveyed and charted, and the charts issued to the public at the cost of production. There is a complete set of these maps and charts at the office of the Coast and Geodetic Survey at Washington, and two sets are deposited in the Library of Congress. Sailing directions for the Philippine Islands have been published, as well as a catalogue of the maps and charts of the Survey (see post, p. 64). See the annual reports of the Philippine branch of the Survey in the Reports of the Philippine Commission. Under the auspices of the government was published in 1900 the atlas prepared under the care of the Jesuits at Manila, which accompanies the two-vol. Archipiélago filipina. Many maps and coast and harbor charts are reproduced in the Gazetteer of the Philippine Islands (Washington 1902). The American Geographical Society issued a map in 1905 made up from the then latest data of the War Department. See also post, in the activities of the Bureau of Insular Affairs.

Pp. 19, 20 of vol. iv of Bulletin of the N. Y. Public Library list a few Philippine maps. The Ayer Collection contains many Philippine maps. These are mainly printed, although there are a few in manuscript. There are some in the MS. on the Rio Grande de Mindanao; and one dated London, 1719, by Rob't Friend, and showing various Oriental islands, is drawn on parchment. There is also a loose printed map which shows the lower course of the Rio Grande de Mindanao, dated 1886, which was issued by the "Seccion topográfica" of the Philippine government. This was purchased by Mr. Ayer from C. G. de T. de F., who priced it at 25 francs. It had formerly belonged to Retana, who had in turn purchased it of Vindel. The latter had acquired it from the heirs of General Terrero. Mr. Ayer's librarian, Miss Clara A. Smith, is at present compiling an index of all the maps of the collection, whether loose or contained in atlases, a portion of which will be devoted to Philippine maps. This index will be arranged chronologically by localities, and also by authors when known, and when obtainable, the name of the engraver will be given. Maps are listed in Maximilian Brose's Litteraturverzeichnis (q. v., post, p. 61). See the various maps (both printed and manuscript) reproduced in this series, as well as the map prepared especially for it; and VOL. II, p. 66, note 26, also VOL. XLIX, p. 205, note 130.

Photographs and views.—The Philippine American government possesses a large collection of photographs. Hon. Dean C. Worcester, of the Philippine Commission, also possesses a fine collection, many of which are of great value ethnologically. Through the coöperation of Mr. Worcester, Mr. Ayer has obtained copies of all the photographs in the above two collections. These relate to all the tribes of the Philippines that have been studied, illustrating manners and customs, industries, etc., and to various localities. In all Mr. Ayer's collection numbers more than 5,000, all of which are 5 x 7 inches in size. His collection is accompanied by a type-written index and description. Copies of these photographs are being made for the Field Museum, Chicago, from Mr. Ayer's collection. In the National Museum at Washington, is a third collection of photographs. The first instalment of this collection was sent by Rounseville Wildman, American Consul at Singapore, before the Spanish-American war. The second instalment consisted of about 200 photographs, which were given by Colonel H. H. Hilder, many of them taken by the donor. The third instalment is an almost complete set of the Worcester collection. The fourth instalment consists of some negatives sent in by the German scientist, A. B. Meyer. Photographs are extremely valuable for ethnological study.⁷

Museums.—The two most notable museums are that of the Museo-Biblioteca de Ultramar (already described, ante, pp. 31, 32), and that of the National Museum, Washington. Owing to the crowded condition of the latter, it has been impossible to suitably display all of the Philippine collection. Besides a few models of the inhabitants of the archipelago, the collection can boast of considerable material for ethnological study, consisting of basketry, weapons, etc. The aim in making the collection is to show the serious industrial life of the inhabitants of the Philippines. From this collection, trained scientists are studying the connection of the American Indian with the Orient—in short, are endeavoring to reconstruct into tangible facts the story of the Pacific Ocean, and migrations of peoples across it. The National Museum is in touch with men who are engaged in active field work in the Philippines, and with army and navy officers, from whom results are continually being received.

Bureau of Insular Affairs.—This bureau was created after the Spanish-American war as a component part of the War Department. It has held an important place in the history of the Philippines since that time. The publication department of the bureau is doing an important work in connection with the insular territory belonging to the United States. As regards the Philippines (and the same is true of all American insular possessions), the various lines of activity are as follows:

1. The collection of all Senate and House documents, reports, hearings before committees, and all acts, treaties, and resolutions; also briefs and decisions of the Supreme Court.
2. The collection of all publications issued by all departments and bureaus of the U. S., which are not published as government documents.
3. Collection of all reports and all monographs issued by the Philippine government.
4. Collection of all orders and circulars issued by the military authorities of the Philippines, as well as all circulars and general orders emanating from the office of the adjutant-general of the U. S. army.
5. Collection of speeches regarding the islands by public men.
6. Collection of maps. These include the maps issued by the Geodetic and Coast Survey, and other departments of the government. The Philippine maps now in possession of the bureau number 2,505, and there are 450 different kinds. They include charts, blue prints, and topographical maps. There were no women in the place. The houses were built on piles rising out of the water or marshy ground, and the under part was reserved as in the Philippines for swine and fowls. All the men were fishermen, and their chief diversion was gambling. They spoke their own language or Spanish. Above all, they maintained their identity, and refused to be merged in the population about them. Some interesting views are shown with this article. There is also at the present time a colony of Malays in the British West Indies.

7. From time to time, compilations and monographs are prepared in the office and published. Also the Bureau publishes a quarterly (formerly monthly) summary of the commerce of the islands, and has under preparation at the present time (April, 1907) a second edition of the acts, treaties, etc., of the 58th Congress. A useful compilation of the land laws of the Philippines has also been published. The Bureau also publishes annually the acts of the Philippine Commission, and the report of the same. A second edition of the Gazetteer of the Philippine Islands has been prepared and is practically ready for press. It is also part of the work of this bureau to give out press notices. Bound files of Manila papers are also kept.

The various documents are bound into separate volumes, all extraneous matter being thrown away, and a typewritten contents page made for each volume, so that consultation is rendered easy. The Bureau has also prepared an analytical index of all the documents, but it has not yet been published for want of an appropriation. This is of great value, and will facilitate research in the many rich government documents that have been published on the Philippines since American occupation. See the annual reports of the chief of the Bureau of Insular Affairs for 1901-1906, where the work of the bureau is well outlined. In the publication rooms of the bureau are the galley proofs of the five volumes of insurgent papers, which are compiled by Captain John R. M. Taylor, U. S. A. These papers, notwithstanding their importance, are still awaiting a special appropriation from Congress in order that they may be published. Vols. i and ii consist mainly of compilations by the editor, and to them are appended bibliographical lists of books consulted in the compilation.

The pamphlets, monographs, etc., being published continually by the various branches of the Philippine government are very important and merit study. Many of these form the first studies ever made in the field covered by them, for during the entire Spanish régime there was but little scientific study that merited the name. There is an excellent opening for earnest scientific work that will prove of lasting value. The Bureau of Government Laboratories has already justified its creation in the work that has emanated therefrom. For the various publications of this bureau, see the inside cover pages of the various bulletins.

Sales catalogues.—One of the most prolific sources for the study of Philippine bibliography is offered by the sales catalogues of booksellers of various countries. We have listed a very few of such catalogues in section II of our bibliography of printed titles, but have made no effort to list them all. He who desires to avail himself of such study may consult the catalogues of the following: Anllo, Capdeville, Cuesta, Bernardo Rico, Gabriel Sánchez, Perdiguero, Victoriano Suárez, Viuda de Rico, Eugenio Garcia Rico, and P.

Vindel—all of Madrid; Juan Llordachs, of Barcelona; Baer & Co., of Frankfort; Otto Harrassowitz, Karl W. Hiersemann, and M. Spirgatis—all of Leipzig; Rosenthal, of München; R. Giusti, of Bologna; Salvatore Romano, Roma; Maisonneuve & Cie., and Chadenat, of Paris; Nijhoff, of The Hague; and Quaritch of London; besides many others.

In closing this introduction to our bibliography, we desire to extend our thanks to all the friends and scholars who have aided us so generously in this compilation. Our thanks are due to the directors and staffs of the various archives and libraries wherein we have carried on investigations, both in America and in foreign countries. Of the following we make special mention: Dr. T. H. Pardo de Tavera, of the Philippine Commission, Manila; Manuel de Iriarte, chief of the division of archives, etc., Manila; Cecilio Güemes, O. S. A., Manila; Epifanio de los Santos, Malolos, Bulakan; Pedro Torres Lanzas, director of A. de I.; José González Verger, of the staff of A. de I.; W. E. PHILIPPINE BIBLIOGRAPHIES AND IMPORTANT BIBLIOGRAPHICAL LISTS

VIDAL Y SOLER, SEBASTIAN:—Memoria sobre el ramo de montes en las Islas Filipinas. Madrid: Imprenta, estereotipía y galvanoplastia de Aribau y C.^a, 1874. Pp. (4), 456. Engraving. 4°.

Pp. 237-450 contain "Lista de algunas obras y artículos importantes referentes á los países del extremo oriente," of which pp. 249-296 are exclusively titles on the Philippines (titles 108-353). Some of the titles are annotated. Notwithstanding Retana's criticisms (for instance, see Estadismo, ii, p. *346), Vidal y Soler shows breadth of mind and grasp in the titles listed. Besides the purely Philippine titles (section ii), the other divisions are: general works on colonization and voyages; the Malayan archipelago - Java, Sumatra, Borneo, Timor, Molucas, and Célebes; English India - Hindostan, Ceylon, Birmania, and Malacca; China and Japan; and Cochinchina, Cambodga, Anam, and Siam. English and Dutch titles are listed. Naturally some titles of these divisions contain Philippina also. Arranged alphabetically. The edition of this book was limited to 300 copies.

BLUMENTRITT, FERDINAND:—Vocabular einzelner Ausdrücke und Redensarten, welche dem Spanischen der Philippinischen Inseln eigenthümlich sind. Mit einem Anhang: Bibliotheca Philippina. Alphabetisch geordnete Sammlung einer Anzahl von Druckschriften und Manuscripten linguistischen, geographischen, ethnographischen, historischen und naturwissenschaftlichen Inhalts, die auf die Philippinen Bezug haben. [Leitmeritz: 1882-1885.] Pp. viii, 131, (1), (6), 64. 4°.

There are two parts with the above title. On the title-page of part 1, is the imprint "Druck von Dr. Karl Pickert in Leitmeritz." The title-page to part 2 shows no imprint. The preface of part 1 (dedicated to J. C. Labhart-Lutz, consul at Manila) has a preface dated Leitmeritz, July 14, 1882. Pp. 1-79 contain the Vocabular, of which Retana says many of the words are what are called "Kitchen Spanish," or Spanish words Tagalized. The bibliography is divided into three parts: I. Linguistic titles (printed and manuscript), pp. 83-88. II. Printed titles, pp. 91-127. III. Manuscripts (other than linguistic), pp. 128-131. On the obverse of p. 131 are two other linguistic titles, and one printed title. The preface of part 2 (dedicated to T. H. Pardo de Tavera) is dated "Leitmeritz, July 15, 1885." The Vocabular occupies pp. 1-25; and the bibliography, pp. 29-35 (Linguistic titles, printed and manuscript), and pp. 39-64 (printed and manuscript), in all, citing 431 numbers (some of which contain several titles). A note on the title-page of the Ayer copy says that this work was not sold in the market. Notwithstanding their inaccuracies and errors, these vocabularies will be found extremely useful for preliminary studies of the Philippines. The titles listed are not confined to the Spanish. See Pardo de Tavera, Bibliotheca filipina, pp. 63-65; and Retana, Aparato bibliográfico, ii, pp. 929, 930. See also Griffin's List, p. 3, where it appears that the Library of Congress possesses but the first part of this work, which Griffin says is reprinted from "Communal-Ober-Realschule in Leitmeritz, Jahresbericht 14;" and which he says was printed at "[Leitmeritz; Verlag der Communal-Ober-Realschule, 1882.]" There is a French translation of the Vocabular of part 1, by A. Hugot, in Société académique indo-chinoise de France (Bulletin, 2d series, ii, pp. 233-315; Paris, 1883-1885).

MOYA Y JIMÉNEZ, FRANCISCO JAVIER DE:—Las Islas Filipinas en 1882. Estudios históricos, geográficos, estadísticos y descriptivos. Madrid: Establecimiento tipográfico de El Correo, 1883. Pp. vi, 362, (1). 8°.

On pp. 232-248 is a bibliographical list of Philippine titles arranged alphabetically by authors. This list contains many inaccuracies and errors, and is of little value. Retana says (Bibl. fil., p. 194) that this work was first published by articles in the Revista de Filipinas and that bad as it is, it is one of the "least bad of those of recent years." Pardo de Tavera, in Bibl. fil., p. 277, says that it is of no value; and notes that he speaks of Pigafetta as "the pretended companion of Magallanes." Moya y Jiménez was an artillery commander in the Philippines.

MARTÍNEZ VIGIL, RAMÓN, O. P.:—La Orden de Predicadores. Sus glorias en santidad, apostolado, ciencias, artes y gobierno de los pueblos, seguidas del Ensayo de una biblioteca de dominicos españoles. Madrid: [Imprenta de Antonio Pérez Dubrull], 1884. Pp. (8), 430, (1). 8°.

The bibliography occupies pp. 229-430. It is not at all complete, and contains some errors. Cited by Retana, Aparato bibl., ii, pp. 992, 993. The author has published numerous other works, among them Rudimentos de geografía descriptiva (Manila, 1872), that contains a number of blunders that can be excused only by the grossest kind of ignorance.

BARRANTES, VICENTE:—Colección de corridos presentada por el excmo. Sr. D. V. Barrantes. Madrid: 1887.

In Catálogo de la exposición general de las Islas Filipinas celebrada en Madrid inaugurada por S. M. la reina regente el 30 de Junio de 1887 (Madrid, 1887), appendix, pp. 713-732. The Corridos, as explained by Barrantes, constitute the popular poetry of the Filipinos, and are comparable to the old Spanish romances, relations, etc. Fifty-six titles are recorded, each accompanied by a Spanish translation, and to each one the beginning and conclusion are given, and various comments. Retana (Aparato bibl., iii, p. 1068), says that Barrantes has listed under the title of Corridos, titles not properly so. The Ayer Collection contains many titles of Corridos. Retana, Catálogo, p. viii, criticises the bibliographical work of Barrantes severely for lack of precision, but praises his comments.

El teatro tagalo. Madrid: M. G. Hernández, 1889 (on the cover page, 1890). Pp. 200. 4°.

Contains a bibliographical appendix of the Passion (pp. 143-166), and another on languages (pp. 167-199), both made partly from memory, and consequently of doubtful value. This work was first published in La Ilustración Artística of Barcelona, and later in the Revista Contemporánea, the forms of the latter being used in the book. (See Vindel, Catálogo, iv, p. 253.)

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:—Catálogo de las obras que se hallan en la biblioteca filipina de W. E. Retana. Madrid: 1892-1894.

In La Política de España en Filipinas, ii, pp. 36, 37, 50, 51, 64, 65, 78, 79, 92, 93, 105-107, 119, 120, 132, 133, 146, 147, 159, 160, 172, 173, 185, 186, 197, 198, 209, 210, 221, 222, 233, 234, 245, 246, 257, 258, 269, 270, 281, 282, 293-295, 307-309, 321-326, 339-346; iii (Índice de autores, traductores, colaboradores, prologuistas y censores y de obras anónimas que se mencionan en el Catálogo de la biblioteca filipina de W. E. Retana), pp. 11-13, 25-27, 40, 69-71 (prólogo); iv, p. 163. This includes also titles added by Retana from time to time. The arrangement of the titles is according to their location in Retana's library. Many of these titles are listed in Retana's Archivo (Madrid, 1895-1898), and all of them in his Catálogo abreviado (Madrid, 1898). The forms of La Política were utilized in printing the Catálogo of 1893 (q.v.). At its inception, the director of La Política was José Feced, and the editors for 1891-1895 were Pablo Feced and W. E. Retana. Beginning with 1896 and until the end of 1898, the latter was sole director and editor. Even before this period Retana had been the moving force in the publication.

BLUMENTRITT, FERDINAND:—[A list of works, mainly in languages other than Spanish.] Madrid: 1893.

In the newspaper La Solidaridad. Contains 328 titles, and is of distinct value.

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:—Noticias para la historia del periodismo filipino. Madrid: 1893.

In La Política de España en Filipinas, iii, pp. 91-95, 102-105, 116-122, 127-131, 146, 147, 151-155, 169-171, 179-182, 189-191, 227-229, 316, 317; iv, pp. 8-10, 45-47, 56-59, 92-94, 106-109, 122, 123, 144-146, 159-161, 169-170, 289-291, 299-301, 311-313, 320-323, 336-339.

Catálogo de la biblioteca filipina de W. E. Retana. Madrid: Viuda de M. Minuesa de los Rios, 1893. 68 leaves. F°.

Published first in La Política, for 1892 and 1893 (q.v., ante), the forms of which were utilized in the present publication. It is, at least in part, printed on only one side of the paper. The edition was limited to 30 copies, and they were not placed on sale. A note by Retana says that the 4 copies given to the government, as required by law, were printed on very poor paper with narrow margins. Describes 556 titles.

Bibliografía. Madrid: 1893.

Appendix B in Retana's edition of Joaquin Martínez de Zúñiga's Estadismo de las Islas Filipinas ó mis viajes por éste país. (Madrid: Imprenta de la viuda de M. Minuesa de los Rios, 1893. 2 vols., 8°), ii, pp. 93*-352. This bibliography is divided into two parts—introduction, in which is given some history of printing in the Philippines from its introduction to the present era; and a list of "works cited by Father Zúñiga, those consulted by us for the compilation of these appendices, and other works which have been the object of our examination through their scientific merit, or because of their rarity." Pp. 105*-123* comprise a valuable list of "the presses, printers, and places where there were or are presses." In the list of titles (384 in all, many of which were formerly in the valuable Gayangos collection), are some facsimiles of title-pages of rare imprints. In the prólogo of vol. i, there is bibliographical matter by Retana on pp. vii-xxxviii, in which various interesting and important details concerning Martínez de Zúñiga's writings are to be found. On p. xviii, it is to be noted that Retana mentions the translation of Le Gentil made by Martínez de Zúñiga (q.v., p. 374), the location of which he does not know, and asserts—following the statement of Martínez de Zúñiga, viz., "although M. Le Gentil does not believe it; see my note to these voyages, which I have translated into Spanish, and which are being printed"—that this translation was printed. It is probable, however, that none of this translation was printed, and that Martínez de Zúñiga simply made the statement in view of the fact that it was ready for the press. See Retana's Catálogo (1898), p. x, no. x.

Bibliografía de Mindanao. Madrid: Imp. de la Viuda de M. Minuesa de los Rios, 1894. Pp. 69, (2, first blank, second with colophon). 12°.

Preceded by a short preface. There are 174 titles in all, some of which are MSS. The author calls this work an epitome, and simple guide; and says (Catálogo, p. x) that it was the work of one week, being made because of the complaint of a daily newspaper that nothing had ever been written on the island of Mindanao.

El Periodismo Filipino. Noticias para su historia (1811-1894). Madrid: En la imprenta de la Viuda de M. Minuesa de los Rios, 1895. Pp. (4), 646, (2). Indices. 12°.

As indicated on the title-page, this book contains, besides the bibliographical matter, biographical notes and sketches, critical notes, and anecdotes. The colophon states that the first 576 pp. were printed in 1894, and the remainder of the book in January and February of 1895. The appendices consist of an article by J. T. Medina, "El primer periódico de Filipinas," dated Sevilla, November 30, 1894; "Adiciones y rectificaciones," by T. H. Pardo de Tavera, dated Paris, 1893; "Notas y adiciones," by Pedro Torres y

Lanzas, dated Sevilla, December, 1894; and "Periódicos manuscritos," by Desengaños (Retana's nom de plume), taken from La Oceania Española, of Manila, Oct., 1887. This work was first published in various numbers of La Política de España en Filipinas (q.v., ante, p. 57), and the forms as published there were utilized for the above publication, so that many of the right-hand pages are blank or almost so (see Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil., p. 354). Reëdited and enlarged, it is published as a monograph in Retana's Aparato bibl., iii, nos. 4461-4623.

Epítome de la bibliografía general de Filipinas. 1895-1898.

This is published in Retana's Archivo (Madrid, 1895-1898) as follows: I. No. 11, pp. 84, titles, 1-270; II. No. 13, pp. 56, titles, 271-505; III. No. 5, pp. 48, titles, 506-720; IV. No. 9, pp. 98, titles, 721-1,167. This was to have been continued in future volumes of the Archivo, but the publication of the series stopped until 1905, and the epitome was never resumed. However, since the titles published in these four volumes are those formerly contained in the collection owned by Retana, and sold to the Compañía general de Tabacos de Filipinas, Barcelona, the continuation will be found in Retana's Bibliografía filipina (Madrid, 1898), and all the titles will be found as well in Retana's Aparato bibl. The first four volumes, bearing dates 1895, 1896, 1897, and 1898, respectively, were published by La Viuda de M. Minuesa de los Rios, and the fifth volume, dated 1905, by Librería general de Victoriano Suárez. The documents published by Retana are rare imprints, original MSS. from various archives, and contemporary compilations. He also publishes in the first four volumes, a partial list of the books in his library (see above); and in volume v, some historical bibliographical notes (see below). For the titles of the documents, etc. presented by Retana in the first four vols., see Griffin's List; and Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil., p. 355, no. 2354. The contents of the fifth vol. are as follows: I. Itinerario del P. Custodio Fray Martin Ignacio, franciscano (reproduced from the first edition, Roma, 1585) — [see our vol. vi, pp. 134-153, where we have reproduced the Itinerario from the Madrigal edition of 1586]. II. Memorial del P. Fr. Francisco de Zamora, agustino [Madrid, 1708?]. A reprint of the copy existing in the library of the Compañía general de Tabacos de Filipinas, Barcelona. III. Noticias de lo sucedido en la Ciudad de Manila en Octubre de 1719 (the assassination of Gov. Bustamante). [1721?] A reprint of the edition printed about 1721. IV. Latigazo. Newspaper of Manila. Nos. 1, 2, 4, and 6. Sampaloc and Madrid, 1821. A reprint. V. El Indio agraviado. Political treatise. Sampaloc, 1821. A reprint. VI. El Duende. A Manila newspaper (published secretly and in MS. in 1840-1841). Now first printed. VII. Filipinas dentro de cien años. By José Rizal. Madrid, 1889-1890. Reprints from La Solidaridad (Sept. 1889-Jan. 1890.) VIII. Documentos [relativos á la] época de la Revolución. Collected and annotated by Felipe G. Calderon. IX. Revista histórico-bibliográfica, by Retana.

MEDINA, JOSÉ TORIBIO:—Brevísimo epítome de la imprenta en Manila (1593-1810) para servir de índice á la obra sobre la misma materia que tiene dar á la prensa José Toribio Medina. Madrid: Viuda de M. Minuesa de los Rios. 1896. Pp. 32. 16°.

One hundred copies printed at the cost of W. E. Retana. Consists of 404 titles, of which no details are given. All the titles of this work will be found in Retana's Imprenta en Filipinas, and in Pérez and Güemes's Adiciones y continuación. The Epítome was first published in La Política de España, vii, pp. 20-23, 47-49, 67-69. See the title immediately following. Medina takes high rank as a bibliographer, as his Philippine and American bibliographies show. A native of Chile, and at first interested solely in American bibliographical research, he was led to his research in Philippina by noting that it overlaps to a considerable degree with Mexicana. Much of Retana's work appears to have been suggested by Medina. See other titles by Medina, post, pp. 59, 62, 80, 92.

La imprenta en Manila desde sus orígenes hasta 1810. Santiago de Chile: Impreso y grabado en casa del autor, 1896. Pp. xcvi, 280. Index. 12 facsimiles of title-pages. 4°.

Retana (to whom this work is dedicated) Bibl. fil., pp. 428, 429, describes a copy of the de luxe edition of 12 copies, which contains 13 facsimiles of title-pages. This work contains 420 titles, many of which are exceedingly rare. The introduction, which contains much bibliographical information, is divided as follows: notes on the earliest printing in the Philippines; early printing and the press of the college of Santo Tomás; press of the Franciscans; press of the Jesuits; press of the ecclesiastical seminary; press of the Augustinians; Filipino engravers; general considerations in regard to Filipino printers and books; libraries of Filipino books. Following the introduction are several documents on printing in the Philippines. Retana says (Vindel, Catálogo, iv, p. 283, no. 1473), that this work is, strictly speaking, the first complete bibliography that has been compiled of printing in the Philippines. See the continuation of this work, post, p. 62.

Bibliografía española de las Islas Filipinas (1523-1810). Santiago de Chile: Imprenta Cervantes, 1898. Pp. 556. Index. 4°.

Although the imprint reads "1897," the colophon on p. 556 states that the printing was finished Aug. 10, 1898.

Retana (Bibl. fil., p. 449) describes a de luxe edition (10 copies only). The above edition was limited to 200 copies. This work was first published in tomo xcvi of the Anales de la universidad de Chile. Describes 667 titles. Medina defines "Spanish bibliography of the Philippine Islands" as follows: "the subject matter, the place of printing, the language in which they are written [Spanish and Latin] and the nationality of the authors are the fundamental bases of classification." No MSS. or books printed in the Philippines are included, the latter already having been listed in La Imprenta de Manila. Some documents from the Archivo de Indias are, however, presented in illustration of various titles. There are also numerous biographical notices, and many references to other bibliographers. The work is carefully done, and is one of the best sources for the study of Philippina. It is highly praised by Retana (Vindel's Catálogo, iv, p. 283, no. 1474).

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:—La imprenta en Filipinas. Adiciones y observaciones á la obra de don José Toribio Medina, cuyo epítome vió la luz en La Política. Madrid: 1897-1898.

In La Política de España en Filipinas, vii, pp. 191-201, 228-236, 260, 261, 285, 286; viii, pp. 96-100, 111-116, 132-141, 168-171. Published also in Retana's La Imprenta en Filipinas (Madrid, 1899). Dedicated to J. T. Medina.

TORRES LANZAS, PEDRO:—Relacion descriptiva de los mapas, planos, etc., de Filipinas existentes en el Archivo general de Indias. Madrid: La viuda de M. Minuesa de los Rios, 1897. Pp. 55 (1, containing colophon). 12°.

First published in Retana's Archivo (Madrid, 1897), iii, pp. 443-497. This separate published at Retana's expense. Contains a short preface or introductory letter by the author, addressed to Retana, and dated Sevilla, Aug. 1896. There are 139 maps, plans, etc., ranging in date from 1565-1847 (many of which are MSS.). A number of these have been reproduced in photographic facsimile in our series. Author (where known), size, and location of each are given. Torres Lanzas has missed a few maps, among which may be noted the following: "Plano de la nueva Alcayzeria que debe construirse en el Barrio destruido de Mabolo, 1783.— In colors; Remesa del Ministerio de Ultramar; Audiencia de Filipinas; consultas, expedientes y resoluciones del consejo, camara y ministros; años 1777-1801; leg. 2°." It is possible that maps of later date than 1847 will be found at the Hydrographical office in Madrid. This is a work of great value to the Philippine researcher.

EMERSON, M. ISABEL:—Reference lists. 58. The Philippine Islands. Providence: 1898.

In Bulletin no. 6 (June), vol. iv, of the Providence Public Library, pp. 149-152. The works listed are not confined to those in the library. Many of the titles are from periodicals. This list has been prepared with greater care than most reading and reference lists.

LLORENS ASENSIO, VICENTE:—Historia general de Filipinas y catálogo de los documentos referentes á dichas Islas que se conservan en el Archivo General de Indias. Sevilla: Rodríguez y López, 1898. 4°.

Only a few pages of this work were published, and the work died when barely commenced. Cited by Retana, Aparato bibl., iii, pp. 1403, 1404.

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:— Catálogo abreviado de la biblioteca filipina de W. E. Retana. Madrid: [Imprenta de la Viuda de M. Minuesa de los Ríos], 1898. Pp. xxxviii, 652, (3). Tables of authors and subjects. 8°.

Edition limited to 85 copies (5 de luxe), only 40 of which were put on sale. In addition one was bound up for the author's own use, in which are manuscript additions and notes. This is now the property of the Compañía general de Tabacos de Filipinas, which purchased all the Retana collection. Describes 2,697 titles which are arranged chronologically. The prólogo (pp. v-xxxviii) contains valuable information concerning his own and other bibliographies of Philippina; and in regard to valuable collections of Philippina. It is to be noted in this connection that the statement that there are no printed books in Archivo general de Indias is too sweeping. Those archives possess several of the rarer titles, among which is Alvarez de Abreu's Extracto historial. On pp. xxiii-xxvii is a list of 112 newspapers that were published in the Philippines from 1811-1898. This work is carefully done and is of great use to the bibliographer and student. It contains few works outside of Spanish and the languages of the Philippines.

SAN FRANCISCO FREE PUBLIC LIBRARY:— Bulletin. Vol. iv. San Francisco: 1898.

In no. 6 (June), pp. 68, 69, is a short list of Philippine titles, mainly recent; classified thus: Historical and descriptive; and the present insurrection and recent events.

M. R.:— [An article rectifying the error of La Unión Ibérica (Manila), that Rizal did not write Mi último adios; and stating that while in prison Rizal wrote his defense which he read at his trial.] 1899.

In La Independencia, January 4.

JOSEPHSON, AKSEL GUSTAV SOLOMON:— Bibliographies of the Philippine Islands. Boston: The Boston Book Co., 1899. Pp. 8. 8°.

No. 7 of Bulletin of Bibliography Pamphlets. Contains 43 numbers. Lacks definiteness, and is poor in arrangement, although it contains some information of value to the student. Extensive use has been made of Retana.

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:— La imprenta en Filipinas. Adiciones y observaciones á La imprenta en Manila de D. J. T. Medina. Madrid: [Viuda de M. Minuesa de los Ríos, 1899.] 276 columns + pp. (5). Index. Folder with 6 facsimile title-pages. 4°.

The title-page gives publication date as 1897, but the colophon says that the printing was finished May 12, 1899. The essential part of this work was first published in La Política for 1897-1898 (q.v., ante). Edition limited to 206 copies, 6 copies being de luxe. The contents of this book are as follows: establishment of printing in the Philippines; presses of the Dominicans, Franciscans, Jesuits, seminary, and Augustinians; Filipino engravers; many unpublished MSS.; binding; libraries containing Philippina; Jesuit inventory (q.v., post, p. 93); list of titles, corrections, and additions (16-19 centuries); list of the Manila imprints described by Medina and Retana (in all 541 titles; see Medina's Imprenta en Manila, ante, p. 58, and post, p. 80). The corrections and additions to Medina's work are given under 212 heads; of which 120 are titles not mentioned by Medina. This is a very useful book, as much for the general bibliographical information it contains as for its Manila imprints.

SALEM PUBLIC LIBRARY:— Bulletin, vol. iv. Salem, Mass.: The Salem Press Company, 1899.

In no. 13 (September, 1898), pp. 102-104 are reading lists of the Philippine, Caroline, and Ladrones Islands (mainly titles in periodicals).

MIDDLETON, THOMAS COOKE, D.D., O. S. A.:— Some notes on the bibliography of the Philippines. Bulletin No. 4, of the Free Library of Philadelphia. December, 1900. Pp. 58. Index. 8°.

This bulletin treats of the following matters: works of general information; authorities on Philippine dialects; some literary curios among Philippina; Philippine presses; and introduction of printing into the Philippines. The information is drawn almost entirely from Retana (mainly from his Catálogo).

NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY:—Works relating to the Philippine Islands in the New York Public Library. New York: 1900.

In Bulletin, vol. iv, pp. 19-29. This bibliography is classified under the heads of bibliography; maps; manuscripts; early printed accounts; description and history; local description and history; war of 1898, etc.; literature, etc.; ethnology and philology; economics, sociology, etc.; the church; and magazine articles. All the MSS., and the greater part of the valuable books are located in the Lenox branch. The MSS. (13 in number) appear to be transcripts or duplicates from the Muñoz collection of MSS. in the Real Academia de la Historia, Madrid.

BROSE, MAXIMILIAN:—Litteraturverzeichnis über die Philippinen. 1900-1901.

In Beiträge zur Kolonialpolitik und Kolonialwirtschaft (Berlin, 1900-1901), ii, pp. 63, 64, 95, 96, and 114-122. The third instalment contains a list of titles to maps (pp. 121, 122). The compiler is librarian of the Deutsche Kolonial Gesellschaft, of which this publication is the organ. Many of the titles, all of which are comparatively modern, treat of scientific matters, and some are taken from periodical publications or the publications of learned societies. Limited in its scope, it presents, however, some excellent titles.

BECKER, GEORGE F.:—Report on the Geology of the Philippine Islands. In Twenty-first annual report of the U. S. Geol. Survey (Washington, 1901), part iii, pp. 487-614.

On pp. 594-605 is a list of books and papers that treat of Philippine geology. This is a useful and valuable list to the student, furnishing a good working bibliography.

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:—Catálogo de obras filipinas que ofrece en venta W. E. Retana. Madrid: Claudio Coello, [1902]. Pp. 160. 8°.

Printed at Barcelona: Imp. "El siglo xx." In a letter to the Editors dated Feb. 21, 1907, Retana says: "The Catálogo de los libros que ofrece en venta W. E. Retana, without date, was published in 1902. As a matter of fact the books belonged to the Compañía de Tabacos de Filipinas, and the company managed the sale, making use of my name to exploit it better. At that time (1902), I was governor of Teruel, and did not consider it prudent to date the pamphlet." There are 906 titles. Such rare books as Acosta's Tratado de las drogas (Burgos, 1578), Aduarte's Historia (Manila, 1640; and Zaragoza, 1693), and Alvarez de Abreu's Extracto historial (Madrid, 1736) are found therein.

GRIFFIN, APPLETON PRENTISS CLARK; and PHILLIPS, P. LEE:—Library of Congress. A list of books (with references to periodicals) on the Philippine Islands in the Library of Congress. . . . With chronological list of maps in the Library of Congress by P. Lee Phillips. Washington: Government Printing Office, 1903. Pp. xv, (1), 397. Indices. 4°.

The first part of the volume fills pp. 1-265. It contains titles actually in the library when the bibliography was made or titles already ordered of dealers (pp. 1-177, and 228-232; many of them being government documents, but some of them the rarest of the works on history); United States Consular Reports (pp. 178-180); articles in periodicals (pp. 181-226 and 233); MSS. (p. 227); and author and subject indices. The second part shows a list of 860 maps, charts, and plans, ranging in date from 1599 to 1897. The book titles are arranged by subject, and the list is of great use to the student. It is highly praised by Retana in his Aparato bibliográfico (1906). Both the list of books and that of maps have been consulted frequently in the course of the present series. In one volume, together with Dr. Pardo de Tavera's Biblioteca filipina (q.v., post, p. 62), this was published first as Senate Document no. 74, 2d session of the 57th Congress.

LLORENS ASENSIO, VICENTE:— La primera vuelta al mundo. Relacion documentada del viaje de Hernando de Magallanes y Juan Sebastian del Cano.— 1519-1522. Sevilla: Imp. de la "Guia Comercial," 1903. Pp. 179, (1). 16°.

On pp. 17-32 are presented two original documents whose originals exist in Archivo general de Indias: the first, the memorial presented to Carlos I by Magalhães and Faleiro; the second, the agreement between the Spanish sovereigns and the above two men for the discovery of the spice islands. Several facsimiles of original signatures are given. The narrative of the author occupies pp. 33-70, and his annotations, pp. 71-85. The most important part of the book is the citation of documents in the Archivo general de Indias with indication of those already published (incomplete), and presentation of some of those never before published (in all, 208 titles, with dates 1493-1568), pp. 88-179. This list of titles includes those immediately connected with the first voyage proper, the bulls of Alexander VI, and those concerning various matters that grew out of the concession bulls and the voyage.

PARDO DE TAVERA, DR. TRINIDAD HIPÓLITO:— Biblioteca Filipina ó sea catálogo razonado de todos los impresos, tanto insulares como extranjeros, relativos á la historia, la etnografía, la lingüística, la botánica, la fauna, la flora, la geología, la hidrografía, la geografía, la legislación, etc., de las Islas Filipinas, de Jolo y Marianas. Washington: Government Printing Office, 1903. Pp. 439. 4°.

Arranged alphabetically. Describes 2850 titles. Printed from the same plates as the edition bound with the bibliography of the Library of Congress. Contains a prólogo in Spanish. Many of the titles are annotated with critical notes and biographies of the authors. For some of the titles, location of copies is given. Retana (Aparato bibliográfico, i, pp. vii, viii; iii, p. 1479) criticises this work harshly, seemingly with a great deal of personal feeling. Pardo de Tavera's prólogo contains considerable important bibliographical information. It was the aim of the compiler to furnish a good working bibliography rather than one replete with minute descriptions that would appeal more to the bibliophile. The author of this work is well known as a scholar and as a member of the Philippine Commission.

MEDINA, JOSÉ TORIBIO:— La imprenta en Manila desde sus orígenes hasta 1810. Adiciones y ampliaciones. Santiago de Chile: Impreso y grabado en casa del autor, 1904. Pp. xi, 203. Index. 4°.

In this vol., Medina adds new nos. 421-565 (pp. 5-150), and adds (pp. 153-196) to the old numbers of his vol. of 1896 various data. Many biographical notes are appended to the various authors. The author acknowledges aid from Retana's La imprenta en Filipinas (Madrid, 1899). A scholarly work.

ROBERTSON, JAMES ALEXANDER:— Ayer collection of Philippina. New York: 1904.

In the Nation for July 14, 1904; vol. 79, pp. 31-32.

VINDEL, P.:— Catálogo sistemático é ilustrado de la Biblioteca Filipina reunida y puesta en venta por P. Vindel. Madrid: Calle del Prado, núm. 9, 1904. Pp. 444. 8°.

This catalogue is vol. i of the Biblioteca filipina, and vol. iv of Vindel's Catálogo (see post, p. 63). It is divided into the classes of large publications, jurisprudence and legislation, agriculture, industry, commerce, arts and letters, various matters, and political. This catalogue was in great part compiled by W. E. Retana (1800 titles), while others were furnished by the younger Barrantes, and Vindel himself furnished some of the matter. Vindel acquired all of Medina's rare titles; many of those of the duke de T'Serclaes; the entire collection of Barrantes; and other collections (see Retana, Aparato bibl., iii, p. 1482). On pp. 31-42 of the catalogue are facsimile headings of many Philippine newspapers. Vindel's prices are in general very high, and the values given by him to most of his items are artificial. In a letter of Feb. 19, 1907, he says: "At present, I possess in my bookshop, more than 4,500 Filipino works; 2,727 are described in my catalogue no. 15 and 16, and are accompanied by numerous facsimiles. I have more than 1,800 titles uncatalogued and never offered to anyone. These comprise linguistics and original unpublished MSS." Vindel complains that the public wishes to purchase his books at too low prices. He charges 10 pesetas for these catalogues.

GRIFFIN, APPLETON PRENTISS CLARK:—Library of Congress. List of works relating to the American occupation of the Philippine Islands 1898-1903. Washington: Government Printing Office, 1905. Pp. 100. 4°.

Reprinted from pp. 145-177, 183-226 of the List of books (1903), with some additions to 1903. The additions consist of the more important government documents and of articles published after the issue of the original list. A short list of pros and cons on the subject of expansion is given on pp. 91-93.

PÉREZ, ANGEL, O. S. A.; and GÜEMES, CECILIO, O. S. A.:—Adiciones y continuación de "La imprenta en Manila" de D. J. T. Medina ó rarezas y curiosidades bibliográficas filipinas de las bibliotecas de ésta capital. Manila: Imprenta de Santos y Bernal, 1905. Pp. lxxvii, (1), 620, (1). Index. 8°.

Pérez and Güemes precede their bibliography with a reprint of the epitome of La imprenta en Manila of J. T. Medina, which appeared first in La Política de España en Filipinas, and was later published in pamphlet form at Madrid by Retana. To the 404 numbers of this epitome, they add nos. 405-1316. Medina's epitome includes the years 1593-1810; Pérez and Güemes extend that period to 1840, and in their appendix, to Augustinian authors of the Philippines to the present time. They present much valuable and interesting material to the bibliographer, and cite various MSS. existing in their convent at Manila. In their long preliminary essay or introduction, they review in great measure the work of Medina and Retana. Sifting, as far as possible, the evidence of Beristain de Sousa, that the first book was printed in the Philippines in 1581 (the Arte y vocabulario de la lengua tagala, by Juan de Quiñones, O. S. A.), instead of the now generally accepted date of 1593, they are inclined to believe that it may have a foundation on fact. In the compilation of their work, they used extensively the libraries of the convents of the Recollects, Franciscans, and Dominicans, that of the university of Santo Tomás, that of the Jesuits, and that of Dr. Pardo de Tavera. This, together with the work of Medina and Retana, offers a good survey of the Philippine press. Retana (Aparato bibl.), is severe on these authors and accuses them of not citing sources; but this assertion proceeds largely from personal feeling.

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT (Department of Commerce and Labor, Coast and Geodetic Survey):—Catalogue of charts, coast pilots, and tide tables. Washington: Government Printing Office, 1905. Pp. 201. 4°.

On pp. 149-189 are the titles to the Philippine charts, a number of which are reproduced.

VINDEL, P.:—Catálogo sistemático é ilustrado de la biblioteca filipina. Madrid: 1905. Pp. 248. 8°.

This catalogue which is no. 16, and vol. v, gives only historical titles (nos. 2104-2727). Several title-pages are reproduced in facsimile. Contains many important titles. See ante, p. 62.

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:—Bibliografía Rizalina. (Epitome.) Manila: 1906.

In the Saturday supplement of El Renacimiento, April 28, 1906. Includes 61 titles, which show a wide and varied field of interests. Both printed matter and MSS. are noted.

PONCE, MARIANO:— Bibliografía Rizalina. Manila: 1906.

In the Saturday supplements of El Renacimiento, May 26, and June 2, 1906. Includes 90 titles, in great part of unpublished matter in the library of the author. Also, Ponce corrects certain of the titles in Retana's bibliography of April 28, 1906. Ponce intends soon to publish a work on Rizal in which will appear some of the latter's unpublished material. Among his MSS. are many letters and the diary of Rizal's voyage round the world, when he passed through America. This bibliography is a valuable contribution to Philippina.

LETE, EDUARDO DE:— [Letter regarding Rizal document which he possesses; and correcting errors made by Ponce in El Renacimiento.] Zaragoza: August, 1906.

In El Renacimiento, September 22, 1906.

PONCE, MARIANO:— El idolo del pueblo. Manila: 1906.

In El Renacimiento, for Saturday, December 29, 1906. This contains bibliographical notices in regard to the writings of José Rizal.

This is the most complete single bibliography ever published on printed Philippina. In his prólogo, Retana gives much interesting and valuable information regarding the general subject of bibliography of the Philippines, including names of notable collectors and bibliographers. The prólogo also contains in epitome the work of Pérez and Güemes (Manila, 1905); and a list of all the newspapers of the Philippines (182 in all). Following the prólogo are five tables: 1st, a class table; 2d, periodical publications; 3d, list of oriental languages; 4th, geographical places; 5th, names of persons. In vol. iii (nos. 4461-4623) is published Retana's Periodismo, reëdited and enlarged. The edition of this book is limited to 262, 12 of which are large-paper copies.

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:— Tercer centenario de la imprenta filipina. 1907.

In El Renacimiento for September 10, 1907. In this article Retana advances the idea for the celebration of the third anniversary of printing from movable type in the Philippines (1610); but the usefulness of the suggestions are greatly obscured by the writer's unfortunate display of arrogant egotism and his complaints of lack of recognition by the Filipinos.

PUBLIC AND PRIVATE LIBRARIES; AND SALES CATALOGUES

LEON PINELO, ANTONIO DE:—Epitome de la biblioteca oriental i occidental, nautica i geográfica. . . . Madrid: Iuan Gonzalez, 1629. Pp. (88), 186, xij, (1). 4^o.

The author was an official of the Council of the Indies. In his work he gives titles of both printed books and MSS., and although wanting at times in exactness, and often omitting dates, his work is extremely useful. He was the first bibliographer to list Philippine titles. Titulo vii (pp. 80-82) is devoted entirely to Moluccan and Philippine titles. Retana, who says that this is the first colonial bibliography ever published, gives (Aparato bibliográfico, pp. 95, 96), Leon Pinelo's Philippine titles. Imprints of Macabebe and other rare titles before 1628 are listed. See Retana's Aparato bibliográfico, i.

Nicolas Antonio (see post), copied Leon Pinelo's book almost wholly. Job Ludolfo in his Commentaries to his Historia de Etiopia included the título entire that treats of those kingdoms. Alonso Lasor de Varea (pseudonym of Rafael Savonarola) copied considerable in his Orbe de la tierra delineado con las plumas de los escritores, especially the geographical part. Rodriguez, the Trinitarian, in his Bibliotheca Valentina, Quetif and Echarid (see post), Juan de San Antonio, O. S. F., (see post), also used the work, and it is praised by many authors. The vol. owes its origin to a private list of books concerning the Indies, asked of Leon Pinelo by the duke of Medina de las Torres. See Barcia, i, proemio. The copy of this rare book examined by us belongs to the Boston Public Library, and came originally from the convent of San Joseph de Tacubaya, as a manuscript note by the librarian of the convent states. See post, the second edition of this work, with additions and corrections by Gonzalez de Barcia (Madrid, 1737, 1738). Ochoa, Catálogo razonado, p. 82, mentions a manuscript copy as existing in the Bibliothèque Royale of Paris. It was made about the end of the seventeenth century and consists of 77 leaves, bound in parchment.

Contains many Philippine titles, and is valuable to the student, although many titles are not exact. See Medina's estimate of Antonio's work (Imprenta en Manila, p. lxxviii).

In two folio vols.: the first containing the preliminary matter and the names of the Jesuit authors from A-I; and the second the balance of the authors, with various lists, indices, etc. The second volume of the copy examined has no title-page, and the pagination is continuous, so that it was probably issued in one volume, and bound into two merely for convenience. Pp. xxxvj, 982, (2); vol. i ending with p. 536. We examined the copy in Boston Public Library.

KÖNIG, GEORG MATTHIAS:—Bibliotheca vetus et nova. Altdorf: Impensis Wolffgangi Mauriti & hæredum Johannis Andreæ endterorum, Bibliopol Norimb. Typis Henrici Meyeri, Typographi Acad., 1678. Pp. (12), 888. F^o.

Añadido, y enmendado nuevamente, en que se contienen los escritores de las Indias orientales, y occidentales. . . . Madrid*: En la oficina de Francisco Martinez Abad, 1737, 1738. 3 vols. F^o.

Leon Pinelo's Epitome of 1629 (q.v., ante) serves as the basis for this work, but it is very greatly enlarged. Título vii of vol. ii is devoted entirely to Philippine and Moluccas historical titles; and other sections of the work contain Philippine titles (among them Magalhães and Pigafetta material). A most important work, not only for the study of the Philippines, but for America, and other parts. The Lenox copy is a large paper copy and is in excellent condition. See Medina, Bibl. esp., pp. 394-396.

Some Pigafetta and Magalhães titles are noted in vol. iii, no. 4537 being MS. 24224 of the Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris, and in regard to which quite wrong conclusions are drawn. Vol. v of the 2d part, sold under charge of Jean-Luc Nyon, l'aîné, in December, 1784, also contains titles that treat of the Philippines. This 2d part (in 6 vols.) has the same title but the imprint Paris: Chez Nyon, aîné, 1784.

This is the second edition, and has additions and corrections by Antonio himself. The author was a knight of the Order of Santiago, a canon in the church, procurator general at the Roman papal court, and royal counselor. He died in April, 1684. The preface bears date May 15, 1787. The book is written in Latin, and the authors' names are latinized, though the titles of their works are left in the language in which they were written. Both imprints and MSS. are cited in the volumes. Many titles of Philippina are cited. The arrangement is alphabetical by the first names. An important bibliography. See the first ed., ante, p. 66.

He mentions the Aragonese writers who went to the Philippines (all members of the religious orders), and names their productions, both printed books and MSS., as well as all others who wrote concerning the Philippines. The Ticknor collection of the Boston Public Library contains a set of this rare work. It covers the dates 1500-1802.

MS. in Lenox; Spanish-American collection. There are 468 leaves with 6 autograph letters to Alcedo. 4°.

The author held the military title "mariscal de campo" and was governor of La Plata de la Coruña. This is his MS., as is attested by the various personal letters at the end that were sent him. On folio 468 is the following note by Obadiah Rich, the bookseller: "I found this MS. at a bookstall during the fair at Madrid in 1830. Twenty reals of vellon was the price asked for it. In 1845 I gave it in exchange for books to M. Ternaux Compans, and in this year 1848 bought it from him with all his Spanish Manuscripts. 15 John Street, Gravesend. May 17, 1848. O. R." Alejandro Valdés, 1819-1821. 3 vols. Small folio.

The continuance of the publication is due to his nephew, Rafael Enriquez Trespalacios Beristain. This book contains some rare titles treating of the Philippines, as well as biographical notices. It is an important work. See Medina's estimate of this work (Imprenta en Manila, pp. lxxviii, lxxix). The copy owned by Lenox branch of the N. Y. Public Library is annotated by hand, and is accompanied by the manuscript additions left by the author. See the 2d edition, post, p. 75.

Some few of the titles have matter pertaining to the Philippines. Retana praises Ternaux-Compans highly. Medina (Imprenta en Manila, p. lxi), says that while some titles of great rarity are cited, others that have no existence are given, and the utmost faith cannot be given to Ternaux-Compans.

The map is the first detailed chart of the Philippines published. It was engraved in 1744 by the native Filipino Nicolas de la Cruz Bagay, although the first engraving (published separately) seems to have been in 1734. It is even yet esteemed a good map. Besides using this author widely for annotation, we have made special use of his work as follows: "Description of the natives of Filipinas." VOL. XL, pp. 284-286, note 331. "Comments on San Agustin's letter." Ca., 1730. Subjoined to copies of San Agustin's famous letter,

In each are many Philippine titles, which while lacking in detail and definiteness are of value. The author was preacher, lector of sacred theology, synodal examiner of the archbishopric of Manila, and minister at the leper hospital.

STANLEY, HENRY E. J. (trans. and ed.):—The Philippine Islands, Moluccas, Siam, Cambodia, Japan, and China, at the close of the sixteenth century. By Antonio de Morga. Rev. T. C. Middleton, O. S. A., says that Rev. Casimiro Herrero, O. S. A., bishop of Nueva Cáceres, aided Barrantes greatly in this work. Appendix iv (pp. 253-256) is entitled in the index "Escritores que han producido los conventos de Filipinas." This is laudatory of the work of the friar in literary lines. Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 28, no. 91, says that the work has no value, and was written to defend the religious communities.

FERRANDO, JUAN, O. P.; and FONSECA, JOAQUIN, O. P.:—Historia de los PP. Dominicos en las Islas Filipinas y en sus Misiones del Japón, China, Tung-Kin y Formosa. Madrid: Imprenta y estereotipia de M. Rivadeneira, 1870. 6 vols. 8°.

Retana (Aparato bibl., ii, p. 766) says that this is one of the best works for the study of Philippine bibliography. It contains many references to Philippine titles, and many extracts and old documents, etc. We have used it extensively in the annotation of our series. As first written by Ferrando, it contained the Dominican history of the Philippines until 1840. His unpublished work was reëdited by Fonseca, who added an appendix bringing the work down to date.

FERNANDEZ DE CASTRO, MANUEL:—Notas para un estudio bibliográfico sobre los orígenes y estado actual del mapa geológico de España. Madrid: Imprenta y fundición de Manuel Tello, 1874. Pp. viii, 164. Indices. 8°.

There are various references to Philippine titles (see pp. 47, 78, 90, 98, 110, 129, 130, 138, 142, 143). The author was inspector-general of the corps of mining engineers, and director of the Comision del mapa geológico. This book is reprinted from the Bulletin of the Comision del mapa geológico de España.

MALLADA, LUCAS:—Sinópsis de las especies fósiles que se han encontrado en España (1ª parte). Madrid: 1875.

In Boletín de la Comisión del mapa geológico de España, ii-xviii. The introduction (ii, pp. 1-12) gives a bibliographical review of publications relating to the palæontology of Spain, 1754-1874, which contains references to the Philippines. Cited by Josephson, and index of periodical. There are many articles on the Philippines in this periodical.

DEL-PAN, FELIPE:—[Lists of Philippine titles.]

Published in Revista de Filipinas, a Manila newspaper, of which Del-Pan was the founder and director, and which was published from July 1, 1875 to June, 1877. Retana calls this the best newspaper of the Philippines because of its scientific value (Vindel's Catálogo, iv, no. 221). Del-Pan's bibliographical work, Retana (Catálogo, pp. vii, viii; and Aparato bibl., i, p. iii) criticises harshly, however, saying that not a single title is stated definitely, and that it is poor in items; although some of the comments are good. Viewed from the standpoint of use, and not merely of exact bibliography, it is to be feared that Retana's observations, as is so often the case, are too sweeping.

FERNANDEZ DE CASTRO, MANUEL:—Noticia del estado en que se hallan los trabajos del mapa geológico de España en 1º de Julio de 1874. Madrid: 1876.

In Boletín de la Comisión del mapa geológico de España, iii, pp. 1-89. Includes references to the Philippines. Cited by Josephson and Margerie. The same author also published in the same periodical, i, pp. 17-152, and 309-320, "Notas para un estudio bibliográfico sobre los orígenes y estado actual del mapa geológico de España," which may perhaps contain references to the Philippines.

GOVANTES, FELIPE MARIA DE:—Compendio de la historia de Filipinas. Manila: Imprenta del colegio de Santo Tomás, 1877. Pp. xviii, 534, clcviii, (6). 8º.

Appendix no. 27 (p. clxxvii) is a note on the new edition of Blanco's Flora then being published.

BARRANTES, VICENTE:—Guerras piráticas de Filipinas contra Mindanaos y joloanos. Madrid: Imprenta de Manuel G. Hernandez, 1878. Pp. xvi, 448. Appendices. Index. 8º.

Published in the series Biblioteca hispano-ultramarina. Appendix (pp. 351-392) is entitled "Apunte bibliográfico de algunos libros y papeles volantes relacionados con las guerras piráticas," and contains information about both printed and manuscript material. Many of the titles of this appendix treat of the Moluccas. Barrantes was a member of both the Spanish Academy and the Royal Academy of History of Madrid, and became an official in the Philippines. This book is mainly taken from a MS. entitled Demostración histórica de cuantas depredaciones llevan cometidas los Moros, etc. (see post, p. 382).

MEYER, A. B.:—A. Die Philippinischen Inseln betreffende Schriften von Dr. A. B. Meyer. B. Schriften anderer Gelehrten über Dr. A. B. Meyer's zoologische, antropologische und linguistische Sammlungen von den Philippinischen Inseln aus dem Jahre 1872. [Dresden: Baensch, April, 1878.] Pp. (8). Sm. 4º.

Both parts compiled by Meyer. Lacks full title and title-page. The first part consists of 24 titles, and the second of 26, ranging in date from 1872-1878; and all are scientific. Meyer was director of the royal zoological, ethnographical, and anthropological museum of Dresden, and except Virchow and Semper, the greatest scientist to become interested in the Philippines.

GÓMEZ PLATERO, EUSEBIO, O. S. F.:—Catálogo biográfica de los religiosos franciscanos de la provincia de San Gregorio Magno de Filipinas desde 1577 en que llegaron los primeros á Manila hasta los de nuestros días formado por el P. Fr. . . . por mandato del M. R. P. Ministro Provincial de la misma Fr. Pedro Moya. Manila: Imprenta del Real Colegio de Santo Tomás. 1880. Pp. 813, lx, (2). 4º.

OEBBEKE, KONRAD:—Beiträge zur Petrographie der Philippinen und der Palau-Inseln. Stuttgart: 1881.

In Neues Jahrbuch für Mineralogie, Geologie und Paläontologie unter Mitwirkung einer Anzahl von Fachgenossen herausgegeben von E. W. Benecke, C. Klein und H. Rosenbusch. I. Beilage-Band (Stuttgart, 1881), pp. 451-501. This article mentions some Philippine titles, and is of use to the student.

MORAL, BONIFACIO, O. S. A.:—Catálogo de escritores agustinos españoles, portugueses y americanos. Valladolid and Madrid: 1881-.

In Revista Augustiniana (today La Ciudad de Dios), and begun with the first issue of January 5, 1881, and not yet concluded (see Retana, Aparato bibl., ii, p. 919). From the forms of the periodical a few copies have been made into two vols., i, containing the letters A-J., and ii, Ll-Z, with a supplement. L is lacking. Vol. i contains only titles of works and is printed on but one side of the paper; ii contains biographies and critical notes as well as titles, and is printed on both sides. Retana says the work is very useful. There are naturally many Philippine titles. Moral is still at work on this subject, and, according to Retana, will probably soon publish his work in definitive form.

In the text and especially in the footnotes, the author presents much bibliographical material, both of MSS. and printed books. His appendices contain letters and documents mainly from manuscript sources. From this work, in addition to many notes, we have published the following: "Events in Filipinas, 1721-39;" i, pp. 438-452; in synopsis. Vol. XLVI, pp. 44-51. "The expulsion of the Jesuits;" ii, pp. 181-228. Vol. L, pp. 287-308 (in synopsis and translation). "Events in Filipinas, 1764-1800;" ii, pp. 66-70, 115-140, 229-382. Vol. L, pp. 23-74. Present date, November 6, 1889." This MS. contains valuable biographical and bibliographical matter concerning the Franciscans who produced works concerning, and in, Filipino languages. The first author cited is Plasencia, and the last, Jeronimo Arrujo.

Most of the above are signed "D," some "W. E. Retana," and some are unsigned. They are doubtless all by Retana, whose pen name was "Desengaño." Idea de un libro. Madrid: 1892.

In La Política de España en Filipinas, ii, pp. 265, 266. Retana gives notice of a book made up of various articles already published by him and of others still unpublished which he intends to publish; and gives the plan that will be pursued in the publication. The volume is to bear the title Avisos y profecías, and only 400 copies will be printed. This was published under the principal title Cuestiones filipinas (Madrid, 1892). See Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., pp. 353-355, and other bibliographies (notably Retana, Aparato bibl.) for a list of Retana's works.

Cited by Retana, Aparato bibl., iii, p. 1269, who says that this work is important for the study of Spanish scientific bibliography, and that the author treats somewhat of the Philippines.

PARDO DE TAVERA, DR. TRINIDAD HIPÓLITO:—Noticias sobre la imprenta

y el grabado en Filipinas. Madrid: tipografía de los hijos de M. G. Hernández, 1893. Pp. 48. 8°.

Comparatively few titles are given, but the pamphlet contains interesting information regarding the so-called rice paper of the Chinese, which is made from a plant called in the vernacular kotzu; the printing establishments of the Dominicans, Jesuits, Franciscans, of the seminary of the archbishopric, other establishments in and about Manila, and those of the provinces; and some few notes regarding engravers and engraving. The author is in error in regard to the earliest printing in Manila. This was published in Revista Contemporánea, beginning with Aug. 30, 1893. Retana (Aparato bibliográfico), says that it does not contain one sure statement in regard to the origin of printing in the Philippines. Medina, Imprenta en Manila, p. lxxv, says that it is "not a bibliography, but a review of Philippine printed books and engravings, . . . and so considered is quite excellent, although, in fact, far from completeness and thorough accuracy."

In La Política de España en Filipinas, iv, pp. 128, 129. This contains a list of the works of the bishop, Toribio Minguella de la Merced, Recollect, most of which are Philippine titles. Though unsigned, it was probably compiled by Retana.

SHUBERG, DR. AUGUST:—Carl Semper. Wresbaden: C. W. Kreidel, 1895.

Pp. vii-xxi. Photogravure of Semper. 4^o.

Pp. [xix]-xxi consist of a "Verzeichniss von Semper's Schriften," many of which are Philippine titles. The monograph Carl Semper, published by Shuberg at Wiesbaden in 1893 (pp. xxviii, 8^o) is probably identical with the above. Semper was one of the greatest of the few scientists who have written on the Philippines. To him is due the series known as Reisen in den Philippinen (still being published) of which he wrote the first volume (Leipzig, 1868) of II Theil (the first part was never published as a separate, and may be found in Zeitschrift für wissenschaftliche Zoologie, and in other periodicals). For notices of this series, see Griffin's List of books on the Phil. Islands (Washington, 1903), and Retana's Aparato bibliográfico (1906). Of value also to the ethnologist is Semper's Die Philippinen und ihre Bewohner (Würzburg, 1869).

Retana owned the original MS. These were the books seized by the government at the expulsion of the Jesuits. In the inventory are noted the prices of the books sold by the Jesuits and afterward by the government.

JORDAN DE URRIES, PEDRO (marqués de Ayerbe):—Sitio y conquista de Manila por los ingleses en 1762. Zaragoza: R. Miedes, 1897. Pp. 135. 8°.

This book is composed in great measure from a MS. in his library by Alfonso Rodriguez de Ovalle (q.v., post, p. 350) who went to Manila on the "Santa Rosa," with the royal despatches announcing the treaty of peace with England and instructions for the evacuation of the British troops. Retana says (Bibl. filipina, 1898, p. 436), that a reading of this book will convince one that the Jesuits acted as true patriots during this period.

FORADADA, FRANCISCO, S. J.:— Un libro notable. Madrid: 1898.

In La Política de España en Filipinas, viii, pp. 36, 37. This is the announcement of a book entitled La soberanía de España en Filipinas, by the above author.

FRANCIA Y PONCE DE LEÓN, BENITO; and GONZALEZ PARRADO, JULIÁN:— Las Islas Filipinas. Mindanao. Habana: Imp. de la Subinspección de Infantería, 1898. 2 vols. Map. 8°.

In vol. ii, pp. 181-191, is "Noticias Bibliográficas," which contains titles in Spanish and other languages, treating of Mindanao. Special reference is made to Retana's bibliographical work. In the footnotes also are many Philippine titles. The second vol. also contains various thitherto unpublished documents as appendices.

MARCEL, GABRIEL:— La carte des Philippines du père Murillo Velarde. Paris: Imprimerie nationale, 1898. Pp. 27. Plates. 8°.

This is published also in Bulletin de géographie historique et descriptive, No. 1, 1897. It gives an excellent description of the map, and the footnotes contain many Philippine titles.

WORCESTER, DEAN C.:— Notes on the distribution of Philippine birds. Washington: 1898.

Part ii of "Contributions to Philippine ornithology," in Proceedings of the United States National Museum, xx, pp. 567-625. On pp. 618-621 is a "List of papers referred to in compiling the distribution list," in all 61 titles.

—:— Los frailes filipinos por un español que ha residido en aquel país. Madrid: Imprenta de la viuda de M. Minuesa de los Rios, 1898. Pp. 138, (1). 8°.

The author of this work is probably W. E. Retana, as it bears the marks of his characteristic style; although it may have been written in conjunction with the friars at the Augustinian college at Valladolid. Appendix no. 1 (pp. 95-98) is entitled "Nota bibliográfica de obras consultadas."

ADAMS, C. C.:— Philippine Islands. 1900.

In The Universal Cyclopædia (New York: D. Appleton and Co., 1900), ix, pp. 610-615. A few titles, utterly insufficient, are given on p. 615.

PONS Y TORRES, SALVADOR (secular priest):— Defensa del clero filipino. Manila: Establecimiento tipográfico "La Democracia," 1900. Pp. (8), 218. 4°.

Pp. 29-42 contain titles of works by the secular clergy of the Philippines, and data in regard to printing, etc. In appendix this book also contains matter relating to the three secular priests executed in 1872; and in succeeding parts, statements by various secular priests arrested during the first Tagalog revolution of 1896-97; two documents regarding the episcopal visit by Sancho de Santa Justa y Rufina, etc. The author of the book (a European Spaniard and formerly a member of the Augustinian order) seeks to defend the Filipino secular clergy from their detractors, one of whom is W. E. Retana. The latter (Aparato bibl., iii, p. 1425) damns this book with faint praise, but it is of great use and well worth study.

SAWYER, FREDERIC H.:— The inhabitants of the Philippines. New York: Charles Scribner's Sons, 1900. Pp. xxviii, 422. 8°.

Pp. xiii, xiv contain a "list of works cited, referred to, or studied whilst preparing this work." It is very inadequate, the author contenting himself for the most part by simply giving author and title without date or place of publication. Sawyer's book is not authoritative for things that he did not know personally, and contains many errors.

MARÍN Y MORALES, VALENTIN, O. P.:— Ensayo de una síntesis de los trabajos realizados por las corporaciones religiosas españoles de Filipinas. Manila: Imprenta de Santo Tomás, 1901. 2 vols. 4°.

The final pages of the work consist of a bibliographical list, which Retana (Aparato bibl., iii, p. 1466) says is badly made, although it contains some good notices.

NEW YORK PUBLIC LIBRARY:— Manuscript collections in the New York Public Library (deposited in the Lenox building). New York: 1901.

In Bulletin, vol. v (June, 1901), pp. 306-336. See under "America - general," the Rich collection, and "Colección de viages;" and the documents under the division "Philippine Islands" (see also Bulletin for 1900, pp. 19-29). For the use of the library a separate of this list has been issued, in which are manuscript additions. See also Obadiah Rich's Catalogue of Spanish Manuscripts.

PÉREZ, ELVIRO J., O. S. A.:— Catálogo bio-bibliográfico de los religiosos agustinos de la provincia del Santísimo Nombre de Jesús de las Islas Filipinas desde su fundación hasta nuestros días. Manila: Establecimiento tipográfico del Colegio de Sto. Tomás, 1901. Pp. xviii, 873, (2). 4°.

The author has made use of Cano's Catálogo, but has added very materially to the information of that book. In his bibliographies, Pérez has adopted the chronological order. The bibliographical information is given in the biography. This is a valuable contribution to the bibliography of the Philippines. In the body of his work, Pérez gives his own biography under the name of "Elviro Jorde" instead of "Pérez," so that his full name is rightly "Elviro Jorde Pérez."

PHILIPPINE INFORMATION SOCIETY:— Philippine Review. New York: Nov. 1901-May, 1902.

This magazine (in six numbers), which is the second volume published by the above society (the first vol. being Facts about the Philippines, Boston, 1901), contains articles on current Philippine literature. The various articles reviewed are slightly synopsized.

Prepared under supervision of the Superintendent of Documents; Washington: Government Printing Office, 1901. Pp. 1069. 4°.

Pp. 753-755 list Philippine titles.

Same. For the fifty-sixth congress, for the period from July 1, 1899 to June 30, 1901. Washington: Government Printing Office, 1903. Pp. 1105. 4°.

Philippine documents are cited on pp. 779-785.

Same. For the fifty-seventh congress, for the period from July 1, 1901 to June 30, 1903. Washington: Government Printing Office, 1905. Pp. 1264. 4°.

Philippine titles are cited on pp. 886-897. These three lists will be found of great use to the student.

DIEZ AGUADO, MANUEL, O. S. A.:— Biografía del P. Agustín M^a. de Castro, Agustino. [Barcelona: Lib. y Tip. Católica, calle del Pino, 5, 1902.] Pp. 97, (2). 8°.

Contains considerable bibliographical material concerning MSS., both in text and footnotes.

YRIARTE, MANUEL DE; and MIRANDA, MANUEL DE:— Reports of Bureau of Archives. 1902-1905.

These are published in the Reports of the Philippine Commission, as follows: 1902, part 2, appendix D, pp. 1039-1044 (dated Manila, Oct. 25, 1902); shows the classification of documents adopted. 1903, part 3, exhibit D, pp. 956-961 (dated Manila, Sept. 14, 1903); gives note of various subjects on which information was furnished. 1904, part 3, exhibit D, pp. 954-960 (this report is by acting chief of bureau, Manuel M. Miranda, and is dated Sept. 13, 1904). 1905, part 4, exhibit D, pp. 633-637 (dated Manila, August 15, 1905); like the two preceding reports, there is also a note of the subjects on which information was furnished during the year. This bureau was made a division of the Executive Bureau, Nov. 1, 1905. See Report of Commission for 1906, i, pp. 79, 97, 134, 135. This division is of archives, patents, copyrights, trademarks, and cattle brands. The reports of the Philippine Commission contain other information concerning this department which may best be obtained from the volumes themselves.

BUREAU OF INSULAR AFFAIRS (WAR DEPARTMENT):— A pronouncing gazetteer and geographical dictionary of the Philippine Islands. Washington: 1902. 4°.

Pp. 172-175 are entitled "Philippine Bibliography. A selected list of books by best authorities." This is short and inadequate. The gazetteer was hastily compiled, and contains many errors. It has been completely revised and copy is ready for a second edition. However, to be of the greatest use, its scope should be considerably broadened, and there should be more expert compilation, and less of the office.

BARRINGER, GEORGE A.:— Catalogue de l'histoire de l'Amerique. Paris: 1903.

This is published under charge of the Département des Imprimés of the Bibliothèque Nationale. The titles are written by hand and reproduced in facsimile. Vol. i (pp. 88, 89) contains Magalhães and Pigafetta material.

CAMPBELL, REV. WILLIAM:— Formosa under the Dutch. London: Kegan Paul, Trench, Trübner and Co., Ltd., 1903. Pp. xiv, (2), 629. Index. Frontispiece. 8°.

Pp. 559-614 contain a "Bibliography of Formosa," which gives a few Philippine titles.

MOSTO, ANDREA DA:— Il primo viaggio intorno al globo di Antonio Pigafetta. Roma: Auspice il Ministero della Publica Istruzione, 1894. F°.

This is pt. v, vol. iii of Raccolta di documenti e studi . . . pel quarto centenario della scoperta dell' America, published by the Italian government. Valuable bibliographical information is contained in the matter preceding the relation, pp. 13-47, of which considerable use was made in Robertson's bibliography of Pigafetta MSS. and printed books.

—:— Philippine Islands. New York: 1903.

In New International Encyclopædia (New York: Dodd, Mead and Company, 1902-1904) xiv, pp. 19-31 (in ed. of 1904-1906, in xv, pp. 710-722). This article contains a short bibliography on pp. 30, 31 (in ed. of 1904-1906, pp. 721, 722).

—:— Philippine languages. New York: 1903.

In New International Encyclopædia (1902-1904), xiv, pp. 31-32 (in ed. of 1904-1906 on pp. 722, 723). A short bibliography is given on p. 32 (in ed. of 1904-1906, on p. 723).

PEREZ, DIONISIO:— Las cortes de Cádiz. Ensayo de una bibliografía scaditana. Madrid: Administración é imprenta, 1904. Pp. 265. 8°.

A few Philippine titles (two of them manuscript) are noted. This is a scholarly work.

RETANA Y GAMBOA, WENCESLAO EMILIO:— Vida y escritos del Dr. José Rizal (materiales para un libro). 1904-1906.

In Nuestro Tiempo, a Madrid review, beginning December, 1904, and extending through most of 1906. This is to be published also in book form. It is as yet the best account of Rizal's life and writings. Retana's changed attitude toward Rizal is to be noted, as well as toward the Filipinos in general. His statements in this work should be compared with those in the various vols. of his La Política de España en Filipinas.

AMES, JOHN G.:—Comprehensive index to the publications of the U. S. government. 1881-1893. Washington: Government Printing Office, 1905. 2 vols. 4°.

Vol. ii, pp. 1073, 1074, lists a few Philippine titles.

This is the first report of this new library. Most of the books are English, but the library possesses some files of Spanish and English newspapers. Mrs. Elmer was acting librarian at the time of the report.

Vol. i (appendix III, pp. 603-607) contains a short and very inadequate list of books on the Philippines, which is, however, designed principally as a working list. While the Census contains some errors, yet it presents a mass of material not otherwise easily obtainable. We have had considerable recourse to it for annotation in our series, and have, in addition, taken various excerpts from it, as, for instance: "Modern conditions in conciliar seminaries;" iii, pp. 611, 612. Vol. XLV, pp. 231-234 (in educational appendix). "Nautical school;" iii, p. 613. Vol. XLV, pp. 242, 243 (in educational appendix). CHAO JU-KUA (Chinese geographer):— [Description of the Philippines.]

Retranslated into English from Blumentritt's translation into Spanish from the English of Dr. Hirth (ca., 1891); the Spanish version being published in the Filipino paper Periódico Hebdomadario Escolar for November 9, 1901. This is an extract from the geographical work of the above author, who was a Chinese official stationed in the south of the Chinese empire about the middle of the thirteenth century. It is of special interest as being the earliest known record of the Philippines, and was written about one and one-half centuries before Magalhães's discovery. It shows that the Chinese had a well-established trade among the islands at this early time, and it may almost safely be assumed that they had had such intercourse for centuries. VOL. XXXIV, pp. 183-191 (see especially pp. 183-185).

ALEXANDER VI:— [Bull (Inter cætera) granting lands newly discovered, or to be discovered, to Spain.] Rome, May 3, 1493.

This is the first bull of the above date, for particulars of which, see VOL. I, pp. 339-341. We translate from the version published in Heywood's Documenta selecta et tabulario secreto Vaticano (Roma, 1893), where the facsimile of the bull is also given. This bull has been published in many collections, etc. (see ut supra, pp. 339, 340). There are two manuscripts in existence: one in the Vatican; and one (written on paper) in A. de I.; Simancas bulas y breves pontificos en favor de los Reyes Catolicos acerca de la ereccion de catedrales y nombramientos de obispos; año 1493 al 1538; est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 1 (first discovered at Simancas in 1797 by J. B. Muñoz). VOL. I, pp. 97-103.

[Bull (Eximie) granting to Spain the same rights formerly granted to Portugal in its African discoveries.] Rome, May 3, 1493.

The second bull of this date, for particulars of which see VOL. I, pp. 339-341. We translate from Heywood, ut supra, pp. 21, 22. Published also in various other works (ut supra). Manuscript copies exist as follows: one in the Vatican; and one in A. de I. (ut supra), which was copied in 1505. VOL. I, pp. 103-105.

[Bull (Inter cætera) establishing the line of demarcation.] Rome, May 4, 1493.

This bull supersedes the two preceding bulls. We translate from Heywood, ut supra. For bibliographical details, see VOL. I, pp. 339-341 (for published versions, pp. 339, 340). Manuscript copies exist as follows: one in the Vatican; one in Lisbon - Torre do Tombo, Gaveta 10, maço 11, n.º. 16; one in A. de I. - est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 1, n.º. 3 (on parchment); and one in B. M. (a Spanish translation) - papeles varios de Indias, add. 13, 977. Vicente Llorens Asensio (La primera vuelta al mundo, Sevilla, 1903, pp. 91, 92) says that this bull was always considered in the indices of the Archivo de Indias as a copy of the first bull of 1493. VOL. I, pp. 105-111.

[Bull extending the apostolic grant and donation of the Indies.] Rome, September 25, 1493.

For bibliographical details of this bull, see VOL. I, pp. 340, 341. We translate from the Spanish version given by Navarrete, Colección de viages (1825), ii, pp. 404-406; (1859), ii, pp. 449-451. This bull has been known only through the Spanish translation, made by Gracian de Aldrete, secretary of Felipe II of Spain, and Harrisse's search in the archives at Simancas, Sevilla, and Rome failed to discover any other copy. However, Llorens Asensio (ut supra, p. 92) says that there are two copies of the bull in A. de I., to which he gives the following title: "Nudum Siquidem omnes et singulas Insulam aclarando y ampliando lo concedido á los Reyes Católicos por la de 4 de Mayo del mismo año, de lo que se descubra en Indias." Both of the copies seem to be written on parchment, and are accompanied by the leaden seal. Llorens Asensio adds also that Navarrete assigned the date Sept. 25 in place of Sept. 26 to this bull. VOL. I, pp. 111-114.

See Bourne's Essays in historical criticism (New York and London, 1901), "The demarcation line," p. 205. Our note is little more than a bibliographical guide. See Navarrete, Col. de viages, ii (1825), pp. 97-110; (1858), pp. 111-117. VOL. I, p. 130.

We have translated from the copy published in Alguns documentos (Lisboa, 1892), pp. 69-80. The treaty is discussed by Bourne, Essays in historical criticism, "The demarcation line," pp. 201-204. VOL. I, pp. 115-129

ALEXANDER VI:— [Bull (Eximia) allowing the Spanish monarchs to exact tithes from the inhabitants of their newly-discovered lands.] Rome, November 16, 1501.

Navarrete obtained the bull from the Simancas archives, but it may have been removed since to Sevilla. VOL. I, pp. 243-245.

For bibliographical data regarding these documents, see VOL. I, p. 343; and Llorens Asensio, La primera vuelta al mundo (Sevilla, 1903), pp. 93-107 (who enumerates documents not given by Navarrete). See also Montero y Vidal, Hist. gen., i, pp. 549-555, who gives in full the contract made with Magalhães and Falero. VOL. I, pp. 249-270 (being a mere synopsis, with a few direct citations). In the Lenox branch of the New York Public Library (Spanish-American collection; coleccion de viages) is the transcript of a MS. purporting to be by Magalhães, which was written about 1515. It is entitled "Descripcion De los Reynos, costas, Puertos, é Yslas que hayen el Mar de la Yndia oriental desde el cabo de Buena Esperanza hasta la China: de los usos y costumbres de sus naturales, su Gobierno, Religion, comercio, y navegacion, y de los frutos y efectos que producen aquella[s] vastas Regiones, con otras noticias muy curiosas. Compuesto por . . . Piloto Portugues que lo vio y anduvo todo." Begins "Este libro compuso Fernando Magallanes Portugues Piloto lo qual el vio y anduvo. Primeramente El Cabo de San Sebastian. . ." Ends "por quanto no vinieron a Malaca desp^s que es de nuestro Rey = A Dios gracias =." Notwithstanding the beginning of this document, it is quite probable that Magalhães was not its author; and it is conjectured that Duarte Barbosa may have written it (see Stanley's translation of his Relation, East African and Malabar coasts (London, 1876; Hakluyt ed.).

Cõ vn itinerario del nueuo mûdo. Madrid: En casa de Pedro Madrigal, 1586. Leaves (12), 116, 244, (12). Engravings. 24^o.

Mainly a compilation from the narratives of Gaspar da Cruz, Martin de Rada, O. S. A., and Pedro de Alfaro, O. S. F., to which is added the itinerary of Martin Ignacio de Loyola, O. S. F. (see Griffin's List, p. 74). A very famous work, which appeared in many editions, and in many languages. The first edition was published at Rome, in 1585 (a costa de Bartholomé Grasse; en la stampa de Vicentio Accolti); but we have used the Madrigal edition as containing matter not in the first editions, from which we have translated only such portions as relate to the Philippines, both in the history proper, and in the Itinerary. There is a manuscript copy of the Itinerary in Lenox Branch of N. Y. Public Library, in a vol. entitled Colección de viajes. In his Aparato bibl. (i, p. 130), Retana gives a list of all the editions, which number 48 (one being an extract from the English Parke ed.), and comprise editions in Spanish, Italian, Latin, English, French, German, and Dutch, some of which are classed as doubtful; and of which the C. G. de T. de F. possesses 27 editions, which are described. For bibliography in regard to this interesting book, see also H. Cordier, Biblioteca Sinica (Paris, 1904-05), and his other Chinese bibliographies; Zenker, Bibliotheca orientalis (Leipzig, 1861), ii, pp. 522, 523; New York Library, Bulletin for 1906, pp. 403, 404; Griffin's List, p. 74 (7 titles); Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., pp. 189-191, nos. 1199-1222; and Vindel, Catálogo, v, pp. 5-15 (24 titles described). Riggs Library, Washington, owns 10 editions; and most collections of Americana include several editions. Vol. vi, pp. 85-153.

SALAZAR, DOMINGO DE, O. P.; and others:— Carta de peticion del obispo de Manila al presidente del consejo de las Indias, dando cuenta del estado y necesidades religiosas de las islas Filipinas. Manila, 1588.

With this letter is enclosed a relation by Salazar and others on the population of Manila and Luzon provinces, a description of the same, and an account of the tributes, etc. This relation is divided into two parts, the first part, dated Dec. 31, 1586, and made by the Manila cabildo; and the second part being added by Salazar under date of June 25, 1585 (probably a printer's error for 1588). There is also some notarial matter. We translate from the document as published in Cartas de Indias (Madrid, 1877), pp. 637-652. Vol. vii, pp. 29-51.

PLASENCIA, JUAN DE, O. S. F.:— [Customs of the Tagálogs.] Nagcarlán, October 21, 1589.

In Santa Inés's Crónica, ii, pp. 592-603 (in appendix 3). This consists of two parts: the first under the above title, and bearing date as above; the second bearing title "Relation of the worship of the Tagálogs, their Gods, and their burials and superstitions," and undated. Inserted by Antonio de Padua (or de la Llave), a Franciscan missionary in the Philippines, 1591-1645, and the first chronicler of his order in the Philippines, in his Crónica de la santa y apostólica provincia de San Gregorio (see post). It was discovered in that MS. by the editor of Santa Inés's Crónica (Manila, 1892), who announced his find in the supplement of the Oceanía española, for June 6, 1886; and published the document in the above book, ii, appendix 3, pp. 592-598. This MS. was prepared by Plasencia at the request of Governor Santiago de Vera (made through the Franciscan provincial, San Pedro Bautista) in order that the alcaldes-mayor might have some standard by which to administer justice to the natives. This code was used in the legislation for the natives until the changing conditions of Filipino society rendered it inoperative. For many years it was supposed to have been lost until discovered as above related. Its appearance in the body of the acts of the Audiencia (for 1598-1599, where we found a manuscript copy of it) indicates that it was discussed by that body in 1599. This is also published in Paterno's Barangay (Madrid, 1892), pp. 1-85. Paterno alleged that he published from a MS. in his library, but Pardo de Tavera (Bibl. fil., p. 302, no. 1941) states that Paterno simply copied the relation as published by himself in the Revista contemporánea for April, 1892. Vol. vii, pp. 173-196. See also, post, p. 163.

The first book treats entirely of the Philippines. This is an exceedingly rare volume. Copies are found in the following libraries and collections: M. B. de U. (Madrid); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F. (Barcelona); Univ. of Barcelona; Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A. (Valladolid); Sevilla Seminary; University of Sevilla.

FERNANDEZ DE CASTRO, LICENTIAE ALONSO:—Puntos principales de la materia de la contratacion de las Filipinas. [Madrid: 1602?] 4 leaves.

The copy from which we translate is found in A. de I.; est. 2, caj. 5, leg. 1|18. Very rare. Pardo de Tavera is wrong (Bibl., no. 2056) in ascribing its date of publication as the year 1600. Internal evidence shows it to have been published later than 1601. Vol. xii, pp. 46-56.

Puntos de lo que tienen fuplicado las Yslas Filipinas sobre la contratacion dellas. [Madrid: ca., 1602?]

Printed probably at the instance of the procurator from the Philippines in order to present it before the Council of the Indies. The copy we list exists in A. de I.; est. 67, caj. 6, leg. 34, where it is found with other contemporary manuscript documents relating to the subject of the trade and commerce of the Philippines. CHIRINO, PEDRO, S. J.:—Relacion de las Islas Filipinas i de lo que en ellas an trabajado los padres de la Compañia de Iesvs. Roma: Por Estevan Paulino, 1604. Pp. (4), 196, (4). 4°.

The earliest printed ecclesiastical history treating entirely of the Philippines, and the earliest to print Filipino written characters. Some have contended that this book was printed later than 1620, an error that has arisen in part from the later MS. left by Chirino (see post, p. 283), and partly from the mention of Morga's Sucesos by Chirino. But it must be remembered that Morga's book circulated in MS. before being published. This work is of great importance as it is one of the earliest accounts of the peoples of the Philippines, and is full of keen observation. Vindel, Catálogo, iii, p. 180, says that but 200 copies were printed. Chirino was the first Jesuit to go to the Philippines (1590) at the king's expense. In 1602 he went to Rome on business for the order, where he published his book, returning to the islands July 7, 1606. He afterward taught in the College of San José, and died at Manila, September 16, 1635, at the age of 60. See Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 126; and Retana, Aparato bibl., i, pp. 48-52 (where the Tagalog characters are reproduced, and some extracts made from the work). Published in English translation in our vols. xii and xiii. A reprint (containing many printers' errors, and altogether inadequate), was published at Manila, Imprenta de E. Balbás, 1890. Copies of the rare original edition exist in the following libraries and collections: P. de T. (Manila; formerly belonged to Semper); B. N. (Madrid); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); M. B. de U. (Madrid); University of Sevilla; C. G. de T. de F. (Barcelona); Pastells (Barcelona); B. N. (Paris); B. M. (London); Harvard; L. of C. (last two pp. gone, and considerably marked); Ayer. In the L. of C. copy which came from the collection of C. G. de T. de F., is written "Soy de Dⁿ. Benito Muñoz."

LEONARDO DE ARGENSOLA, LICENTIATE BARTOLOME (royal chaplain):— Conquista de las Islas Malucas. Al rey Felipe III. N^o. S^{or}. Madrid: por Alonso Martin, 1609. Pp. (10), 407. Engraved title-page. 4^o.

Written in a charming style, although the work contains many inaccuracies. The author had access to all the documents of the archives. A reprint was issued in "Zaragoza: Imprenta del Hospicio Provincial, 1891," in a 4^o of pp. clxiii, 407, (2), with a study on Leonardo de Argensola by Father Miguel Mir. The original has been translated into French (Amsterdam, 1706, 3 vols., 12^o; and Amsterdam, 1707, a different setting than that of the preceding year); English (London, 1708; by Capt. John Stevens; another edition, 1711); and German (Frankfurt and Leipzig, 1710—translated from the French ed. of 1706). The French editions contain much more matter than the original, as they are considerably annotated. See Retana's Aparato bibl.; Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil., p. 34; and Griffin's List, p. 23. The greater part of the volume treats of the Moluccas, and gives much of the early history of those islands. Considerable space is, however, devoted to the Philippines, namely, after p. 163, although there is also some Philippine matter preceding this. In our series, we have translated and synopsized the Philippine matter. Vol. xvi, pp. 217-317 (with facsimile of title-page). Copies of the original are conserved in the following libraries: P. de T. (Manila; bought from Quaritch); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F. (Barcelona); A. de I. (Sevilla); B. N. (Paris); B. M. (London; 3 copies); Harvard; B. P. (Boston); Lenox; H. S. of A. (N. MORGA, DR. ANTONIO DE:— Sucesos de las Islas Filipinas. Dirigido a Don Cristoval Gomez de Sandoual y Rojas, Duque de Cea. Mexico: En casa de Geronymo Balli, 1609. Leaves (6), 172. 4^o.

Some volumes have an engraved title-page with the following title: "Sucesos de las Islas Philipinas dirigidos a Don Christoval Gomez de Sandoval y Rojas Dvque de Cea. Mexici ad Indos: 1609." Some volumes may have borne both title-pages, though we have not seen them; or there may have been a reissue of the volume, with the changed title-page; in other respects the volumes are the same. This is the first secular history devoted to the Philippines, and is one of the best ever written. Morga had a high idea of the early civilization of the Filipinos; and writes with the assurance of one who had made a close study of his subject. The MS. of this work was dated 1607 and bore the following title: "Descubrimiento, conquista, pacificacion y poblacion de las Islas Philipinas," and was dedicated "A la Magestad Catholica del Rey Don Phelipe III, nuestro Señor," as is mentioned by Torrubia, both title and dedication being changed in the printed edition. Chirino also (Relacion, 1604), mentions the work (at least the eighth chapter), so that it must have been written at least in part before 1604. It was edited and reprinted by Rizal, with the following title-page:

Sucesos de las Islas Filipinas por el Doctor Antonio de Morga. Obra publicado en Méjico el año de 1609 nuevamente sacada á luz y anotada por José Rizal y precedida de un prólogo del Prof. Fernando Blumentritt. Paris: Librería de Garnier Hermanos, 1890. Pp. xxxvi, (2), 374. 8^o.

Unfortunately the transcript which was made for Rizal from the copy of the original conserved in the British Museum was hastily made, and in consequence is not thoroughly accurate. This work and Rizal's annotations are a protest against the frequently-expressed contempt of the Spaniards for the Filipinos; and while Rizal tried, perhaps, to prove too much, the work was timely, and brought into more general notice a book that well merited study. One Justo Zaragoza, shortly before Rizal, began to reprint Morga's book, but he died before the completion of his task. The book was reprinted, but the notes, prologue and life of Morga, which Zaragoza intended to insert, were never finished. Some time after his death, the sheets were sold as wrapping paper. So far as known, but two copies of this edition (which bears date Madrid, 1887) were found, one of which belongs to the C. G. de T. de F., and one to the Ayer Collection (see Vindel's Catálogo, iii, pp. 199, 200; and Retana's Aparato bibl.). An English translation was made by Sir Henry Edward John Stanley, with the following title:

The Philippine Islands, Moluccas, Siam, Cambodia, Japan, and China, at the close of the sixteenth century. By Antonio de Morga. Translated from the Spanish, with notes and a preface, and a letter from Luis Vaez de Torres, describing his voyage through the Torres Straits, by the Hon. Henry E. J. Stanley. London: Printed for the Hakluyt Society, 1868. Pp. xxiv, 431. Portrait. Index. 8°.

The translation is poor, and Stanley has omitted the translation of the broad passages. We have used the annotations of both Rizal and Stanley in our translation. Morga's work, which is scarce and commands a high price, is very valuable for a study of ethnology, and conditions among the Filipinos during the early Spanish regime. Morga, it must be remembered, was a high official in the colony, and had access to all the documents in the archives of the islands, and was in addition a keen observer. See Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., pp. 275-277; and Retana, Catálogo, pp. 6, 7; and vol. xv, pp. 34-36, notes 2 and 3, and pp. 31-287; and vol. xvi, pp. 27-209 (the title-pages are reproduced in facsimile). Editions of the original are found in the following libraries and collections: B. N. (Madrid); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); M. B. de U. (Madrid; a manuscript copy); B. R. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F. (Barcelona); University of Granada; B. M. (London; 2 copies); Harvard (pen and ink title-page); J. C. B. (Providence); Lenox; Ayer. The copy formerly owned by the French Abbé Favre, fetched 700 francs.

A MS. copy of this memorial is conserved in Madrid; B. N.; MS. 8990 (old pressmark "Aa-47"); fol. 273-350; see vol. xxvii, pp. 55, 56, note 4. This MS. appears to have been made about the beginning of the nineteenth century, and hurriedly and carelessly. Its source is not evident, and an earlier MS. may have been utilized, or the printed copy. Its title is as follows: "Memorial informatorio al Rey nro señor en su Real i supremo consejo De las Indias Por la insigne i siempre leal ciudad de Manila, caueça de las Islas Filipinas, sobre las pretenciones de aquella ciudad, i islas, i sus vezinos, i moradores, i comercio con la nueva España. This MS. was published in Colección de documentos inéditos . . . de las posesiones españolas en América y Oceanía (not Col. de doc. para la hist. de España, as Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 195, says wrongly), vi, pp. 364-484. The memorial is also published in Alvarez de Abreu's Extracto historial, fol. 215-265. Vol. xxvii, pp. 55-212. For other titles by the same author, who for many years represented the Philippines at court, see Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil., pp. 195, 196. The State Library at Boston possesses a printed decree of Madrid, Sept. 30, 1639, regarding commerce, which was issued in answer to representations made by Grau y Monfalcon. The British Museum owns a copy of the Memorial.

BAÑUELOS Y CARRILLO, ADMIRAL HIERONIMO DE:— Relation des Isles Philippines. 1696.

In Thevenot, Relations de divers voyages (Paris, 1696), i, [no. 29], pp. 1-7. This relation is a translation and adaptation of the pamphlet Relación de las islas Filipinas (Mexico, 1638). The relation is dedicated to Don Garcia de Haro y Abellaneda, compte de Castille, president of the Royal Council of the Indies. No copy of the Spanish original, so far as known, is in existence, although the title is listed by some of the old bibliographers. Thevenot's vols. (in their various editions) are by no means uncommon in collections. Perhaps the Thevenots of John Carter Brown library are as notable as any, and it is only to be regretted that the insertion of title-pages has spoiled the books so far as their distinct bibliographical value is concerned. Vol. xxix, pp. 66-85. Thevenot's translation is not entirely accurate, it is to be feared, and it appears that he has adapted and summarized in places.

BOBADILLA, DIEGO DE, S. J.—Relacion de las gloriosas victorias que en mar, y tierra an tenido las armas de nueftro invictififimo rey, y monarca Felipe III. el grande, en las Islas Filipinas, contra los Moros mahometanos de la gran Isla de Mindanao, y fu rey Cachil Corralat, debaxo de la condvta de Don Sebafthian Hurtado de Corcuera, Cauallero de la orden de Alcantara, y del confejo de guerra de fu mageftad, gouernador y capitán general de aquellas islas. Sacada de varias relaciones que este año de 1638. vinieron de Manila. Mexico: en la Imprenta de Pedro de Quiñones, 1638. 40 leaves. 4^o.

The relation proper is preceded by a letter by Bobadilla, dated Feb. 25, 1638. This relation contains the letter by Mastrili (q.v., p. 114), which is reproduced with a few verbal changes by Bobadilla. The transcript possessed by the Editors was made from the copy conserved in the M. B. de U.; 111, 21-2^a. Vol. xxix, pp. 86-101. See Pardo de Tavera's description, Bibl. fil., no. 366.

VEGA, LICENTIAE RUIZ DE LA.—[Statement of Sebastian Hurtado de Corcuera regarding the ecclesiastical troubles.] [Manila: ca., 1638.] 17 leaves. F^o.

The Editors possess a copy made from the original pamphlet in A. de I.; est. 67, caj. 6, leg. 8. Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., no. 1334, says that there is also a copy at the British Museum, and that it is printed on stamped paper of the year 1638. Very rare.

———:— [Value of Corcuera's seizures.] Ca., 1638.

In Pastells's edition of Colin's Labor evangelica, iii, pp. 532, 533. The original MS. is conserved in A. de I.; est. 68, caj. 1, leg. 32. Vol. xxix, pp. 135-138.

———:— Svcessos felices que por mar, y tierra ha dado N. S. à las armas Españolas en las Islas Filipinas contra el Mindanao; y en las de Terrenate, contra los Olandeses, por fin del año de 1636. y principio de 1637. Madrid: Por Diego Diaz de la Herrera, 1639. 4 unnumbered pp. F^o.

The transcript of this pamphlet possessed by the Editors was made from a copy conserved in R. A. de la H.; papeles de los Jesuitas; tomo 32, n^o. 17. This is the second edition of the relation, the first having been published at Manila, in 1637, by Tomas Pimpin. This first edition was published by Retana in Archivo, iv, no. 3, from a copy conserved in M. B. de U., Madrid (formerly owned by Pascual Gayangos). There is a transcript of the second edition in the Ventura del Arco MSS., ii, pp. 1-31 (q.v., post, p. 392). Vol. xxix, pp. 116-134. There is a copy of the Madrid edition in the British Museum.

ADUARTE, DIEGO, O. P.—Historia de la provincia del Sancto Rosario de la Orden de Predicadores en Philipinas, Iapon, y China. Manila: En el colegio de Santo Thomas, por Luis Beltran, 1640. Pp. (8), 437, 427, (34). F^o.

Part I of the Dominican history. See also post, Santa Cruz, Baltasar de; Salazar, Vicente de; and Collantes, Diego de. The MS. of Aduarte (who died in 1636) was published with additions by Domingo Gonzalez, O. P. (who died at Manila, November 5, 1647). This is one of the most important printed source works for the history of the Philippines. See our vols. xxx, xxxi, and xxxii, where the essential parts of this work are published, with synopses of those parts omitted. A second edition was published in 1693 with the following title:

Tomo primero de la historia de la provincia del Santo Rosario de Philipinas, Iapon, y China, de la sagrada orden de predicadores. Zaragoza: Por Domingo Gascon, 1693. Pp. (8), 767, (53). F^o.

Published in a uniform edition with Santa Cruz's Historia. The typographical peculiarities of the two editions differ somewhat, but the text is the same. Copies of the first edition are found in the following libraries and collections: B. N. (Madrid); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; Vatican; B. M. (London); Harvard; J. C. B. (Providence); and Ayer. Copies of the second edition are found in: B. N. (Madrid); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); M. B. de U. (Madrid); B. R. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; University of Barcelona; A. de I.; convent of Santo Tomás (Ávila); Colegio de Agustinos (Valladolid; two copies); B. M. (London); Harvard; Ayer. Copies of all four parts of the Dominican history existed in the Sobolewski Collection, no. 3173 (see Cordier's introduction to C. Imbault-Huart's L'Île Formose (Paris, 1893).

BOBADILLA, DIEGO DE, S. J.:—Relation des Isles Philippines, faite par un religieux qui y a demeuré 18. ans. Ca., 1640?

In Thevenot's Relations de divers voyages (Paris, 1696), i, no. 30, pp. 1-13. Retana says (Aparato bibl., i, p. 179) that it can be safely assumed that the author of this relation was a Spanish Jesuit, who wrote in 1640. Pablo Pastells, S. J., conjectures that the author must be Diego Bobadilla, S. J. Thevenot translated from a Spanish MS. in the collection of Don Carlo del Pezzo. This is a valuable relation, and contains ethnological material, and a reproduction of a Filipino alphabet. Retana, ut supra, pp. 179-180, reproduces a portion of the relation. See our translation, vol. xxix, pp. 277-311.

HURTADO DE CORCUERA, SEBASTIAN; CRUZAT Y GÓNGORA, FAUSTO; and RAÓN, JOSÉ:—[Ordinances of good government.] 1642; 1696; 1768.

In José Felipe Del-Pan's Documentos para la historia de la administracion de Filipinas. Las ordenanzas de buen gobierno de Corcuera, Cruzat y Raon (Manila, 1891), pp. 47-113, 115-183. See vol. I, p. 191, note 110. The first set of ordinances as given by Del-Pan are those of Raón and the second are those of Corcuera revised by Cruzat y Góngora (in our publication we have reversed the order, following a chronological arrangement). With Raón's ordinances are some of later date that were ordered printed with them. Vol. I, pp. 191-264 (in synopsis and translation).

The Editors possess a manuscript copy made from the original pamphlet in the R. A. de la H., Madrid. Described by Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., no. 2321. In no. 2320, he describes another relation with a slightly different title, and colophon, which is published by Retana, Estadismo, ii, pp. 48-54. This is the same relation as the above, and seems to be another edition.

This is called the first part of the history of the Jesuits in the Philippines and was prepared in large part from the manuscripts left by Chirino (see post, p. 283). The work is divided into the following books: I. Descripción geographica, y historica de las Islas Filipinas. II. Del primer estado desta prouincia, en que fue solamente mission, casa de residencia, y colegio. III. Del tiempo qve esta fue vice-prouincia subordinada a la de Mexico. IIII. De lo svcedido en los diez años primeros, despues que esta fue promovida en prouincia. His history does not extend beyond the year 1632. A reprint was begun in Manila in 1890, but was never completed (see Retana, Catálogo abreviado, p. 9). This book contains considerable bibliographical information, as Colin has published in condensed form various letters written by Jesuits. Colin's work was republished by Pablo Pastells, S. J., of the Jesuit college of Sarriá, Barcelona, as follows:

Labor evangélica de los obreros de la Compañia de Jesús en las Islas Filipinas por el P. Francisco Colin de la misma Compañia. Nueva edición ilustrada con copia de notas y documentos para la crítica de la historia general de la soberanía de España en Filipinas. Barcelona: Imprenta y litografía de Henrich y Compañia. 3 vols. 4^o.

These volumes are most copiously annotated with original MSS. drawn from the Archivo general de Indias, and other documents, which make them a most valuable source for the history of the Jesuits in the Philippines. In addition the editor used extensively Chirino's unpublished MS. (q.v., p. 283). A German translation of most of the first book of the original edition was published in the Neue Welt-Bott, iv, theil xxvi, by Joseph Kropff, S. J., in 1748, under the following title: "Beschreibung deren Philippinischen Inseln." This translation is accompanied by a map. Theil xxvii contains in translation the list of Jesuit houses, churches, etc. (pp. 811-820 in the original edition). In our series we have published the following extracts from the original: "Jesuit missions in 1656; List of the number of religious, colleges, houses, and residences of the province of the Society of Jesus; and of the churches, districts, and missions of Indians administered in these Filipinas Islands, this present year, M. DC. LVI;" pp. 811-820. Vol. xxviii, pp. 78-103 (in the religious appendix). "Native races and their customs;" book i, chaps. iv, xiii-xvi, pp. 15-19, 53-75. Vol. xl, pp. 37-98 (in ethnological appendix). "The college of San José;" book iii, chap. xviii (in part), pp. 414-418. Vol. xlv, pp. 101-111 (in educational appendix). Retana (Aparato bibl., i, pp. 134-138) also gives some brief extracts from the original edition. In addition to the documents which we have used from Pastells's edition, we have, among others, used the following notes as annotation for our series: Vol. xxi, p. 32, note 1, in iii, pp. 674-677; p. 33, note 4, in iii, p. 677; pp. 34-40, note 6, in iii, pp. 682, 683; pp. 42, 43, note 8, in iii, p. 679; p. 45, note 12, in iii, p. 677; pp. 52, 53, note 15, in iii, pp. 684, 685; p. 56, note 16, in iii, p. 585; pp. 62, 63, note 17, in iii, p. 678; pp. 64, 65, note 18, in iii, p. 678; vol. xxvii, p. 303, note 98, in iii, p. 796; pp. 304, 305, note 100, in iii, p. 708; vol. xxix, p. 266, note 87, in i, p. 31; vol. xxxv, p. 73, note 17, in iii, pp. 806-810; vol. xl, p. 69, note 23, in i, p. 64, note 1. Copies of the original Spanish edition are conserved in the following libraries and collections: P. de T. (Manila; bought from Maisonneuve); B. N. (Madrid); M. B. de U. (Madrid); B. R. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; Pastells (Barcelona); convent of Santo Tomás (Ávila); Colegio de Agustinos (Valladolid); B. N. (Paris); B. M. (London); East India Co.; H. S. of A. (N. Y.); and Ayer.

LETONA, BARTHOLOME DE, O. S. F.:— Prologo, y descripcion de Filipinas. Puebla de los Angeles: 1662.

Bound with Letona's Perfecta religiosa (Puebla de los Angeles, En la oficina de la viuda de Juan de Borja, y Candia, 1662). Consists of 35 unnumbered pages. On the flyleaf of the copy of Perfecta religiosa from which our transcript was made (in the possession of Antonio Graiño, of Madrid), is written: "A very rare work, especially with the description of Filipinas, because the Council of the Indias ordered it torn from the copies. It has been said that the Inquisition ordered this work collected and suppressed. I think that this is an error, and that this work has been confused with another work with a similar title; and the work prohibited by the Inquisition is that written by the Jesuit, Ramos." This copy bears the bookplate of Doctor N. Leon. Cited by Huerta, Estado, p. 511, and Marcellino da Civezza, Saggio di bibl., pp. 315, 316. VOL. XXXVI, pp. 189-217. Letona went to the Philippines in 1649; and returned to Mexico in 1654. He left some devotional writings.

SAN NICOLAS, ANDRES DE, RECOLLECT:— Historia general de los religiosos descalzos del Orden de los Ermitaños del gran Padre y Doctor de la Iglesia San Avgvstin, de la congregacion de España, y de las Indias. Madrid: Por Andres Garcia de la Iglesia, 1664. Pp. (13), 536, (16). Engraved title-page. F^o.

The first volume of the general history of the Recollect order (see also post, Jesus, Luis de; Santa Theresa, Diego de; and San Francisco de Assis, Pedro de). The portions treating of the Philippines are found on pp. 99-101, 396-402, 412-429, 432-457, 459-465, 469, 470, 475, 476, 505-507, 509-511, 529 (the bibliography of the Library of Congress being slightly at error on this point). In our VOL. XXI, pp. 111-185, we have translated the parts relating to the Philippines under the following title: "Early Recollect missions in the Philippines, 1606-1624." Copies are owned by L. of C.; and Ayer.

FELIPE IV:— [Law regarding vacancies in the government of the Philippines.] Madrid, April 2, 1664.

COMBÉS, FRANCISCO, S. J.:— Historia de las islas de Mindanao, Iolo, y sus adjacentes. Progressos de la religion, y armas catolicas. Madrid: Por los herederos de Pablo de Val, 1667. Pp. (24), 562, (6). Index. F^o.

This is even yet one of the most important books ever written about Mindanao and adjacent islands. It contains descriptions of the islands, their products, peoples, and history. It was edited with a lengthy prólogo, notes, and various tables, by W. E. Retana, with the collaboration of Pablo Pastells, S. J., under the following title: "Historia de Mindanao y Joló por el P. Francisco Combés de la Compañía de Jesús;" Madrid: [Imprenta de la viuda de M. Minuesa de los Ríos], 1897; F^o.

While the actual wording of the text has been respected, accents and punctuation have been introduced. From this we have translated the following in our series: "The natives of the southern islands;" book i, chaps. ix-xviii (Retana and Pastells's ed.). VOL. XL, pp. 99-182 (in ethnological appendix). Copies of the original edition are found in the following libraries and collections: P. de T. (Manila); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); M. B. de U. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; Pastells (Barcelona); University of Sevilla; Biblioteca provincial (Toledo); B. N. (Paris); Biblioteca de Ajuda (Portugal); B. N. (Lisbon); Harvard; J. C. B. (Providence); N. Y. Public; Astor; L. of C.; U. S. War Dept. Library. There was also a copy in the library of Antonio Cánovas del Castillo.

FERNANDEZ NAVARRETE, DOMINGO, O. P.:— Tratados historicos, politicos, ethicos, y religiosos de la monarchia de China. Descripcion breve de aqvel imperio, y exemplos raros de emperadores, y magistrados del. Con narracion difvsa de varios svcessos, y cosas singyulares de otros Reynos, y diferentes navegaciones. Madrid: En la imprenta real, 1676. Pp. (20), 518, 25. F^o.

Dedicated to Don Juan de Austria. It is written in a somewhat gossipy style, and contains matters of considerable value not elsewhere found. While treating especially of China, some space is given to the Philippines, in particular book vi, chaps. iii-vii, xxxi, and xxxii. In chap. xxxi, "Adiciones breves á estos tratados" is a criticism of the work of Francisco Colin (see Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 168, no. 1068). It was probably in answer to this and to the treatment of the Chinese missions, that the following polemical works were published, in all probability by Jesuits: "Memorial apologetico el exc^{mo} Señor Conde de Villa-Humbrosa . . . de parte de los misioneros apostolicos de el imperio de la China. Representando los reparos que se hazen en un libro que se ha publicado en Madrid este año de 1676 en grave perjuizio de aquella mission (Madrid, 1676?)." "Reparos historiales apologeticos . . . propuestos de parte de los misioneros apostolicos del imperio de la China representando los descuidos, que se cometen en un libro que se ha publicado en Madrid, en grave perjuizio de aquella mission." This latter Retana (Catálogo, p. 10, no. 18) says was published at Tarragona, but the British Museum catalogue suggests Pamplona, in 1677. This, Retana says (ut supra) probably delayed the publication of the second part of the Tratados, which finally appeared in 1679. Fernandez de Navarrete was probably in Manila from 1648-1656 (see Griffin's List, p. 119). There is an English translation which is published in the various editions of Churchill's Collection of Voyages - 1732, 1744, and 1752, in vol. i; 1745, in vol. iii. We have translated and synopsized from the original as follows: "Manila and the Philippines about 1650;" pp. 299-332, tratado vi, chaps. iii-viii. Vol. xxxvii, pd. 285-306 (chaps. iii, iv), and vol. xxxviii, pp. 17-71 (chaps. v-viii), in translation and synopsis. Copies of the original edition are conserved in the following libraries and collections: M. B. de U. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; B. M. (London; 2 copies); L. of C. There is also a MS. copy of the printed book conserved (according to Ochoa, Catálogo), in the library of the Arsenal at Paris. It is written on 135 leaves and is well preserved.

Vol. ii of the general history of the Recollects (see also ante, San Nicolas, Andres de; and post, Santa Theresa, Diego de, and San Francisco de Assis, Pedro de). Philippine material is found on pp. 6, 19-46, 53-57, 58, 59, 61, 69-82, 111, 163-173, 180, 182, 184, 192, 193, 208 (misnumbered 108), 215, 279, 282, 284-298, 353, 354, 371-373. The parts treating of the Philippines we have translated and synopsized as follows: "Early Recollect missions in the Philippines, 1606-1624;" vol. xxi, pp. 191-259. "The Recollect missions, 1625-40," pp. 69-71, 163-173, 184, 282-287, 294-298; see also vol. xxi, pp. 191-259. Vol. xxxv, pp. 59-88. "Recollect Missions, 1646-60;" pp. 371-373. Vol. xxxvi, pp. 109-113. In this work are mentioned the following MSS., all by Recollects: Pedro de Santiago, a work on the Recollects who went to the Indies, p. 42; Andres del Espiritu Santo, a relation of the Philippines, p. 42; Felipe de la Madre de Dios, Noticias historiales, p. 43; Jacinto de San Fulgencio, a relation, p. 43; Christobal de Santa Monica, a relation, p. 44; Rodrigo de San Miguel, Historia general (q.v., post), p. 81.

SANCHEZ, JUAN:— Relacion svmaria de los suceffos de la ciudad de Manila,

In Retana, Archivo, i, no. 4. Retana transcribed from the copy of the original pamphlet conserved in Madrid; M. B. de U. There is a transcript of the original pamphlet in the Ventura del Arco MSS. (q.v., iii, no. 7). This forms part of the famous Pardo controversy. VOL. XXXIX, pp. 149-175.

MORALES, LUIS DE, S. J.:— [Events of the Marianas missions, 1681-1684.] [Madrid, 1685?] Begins "Señor Lvis De Morales, Procurador de la Compañia . . ." Ends "esperan en todo recibir merced."

This pamphlet contains the "Relacion de el Estado, y Progressos de la Mission de la Yslas Marianas desde Junio passado de 81. hasta el de 82," which was written in the letter-report of Manuel de Solorzano, S. J., vice-provincial and superior of the Marianas missions; and "Relacion de la Mission de Marianas desde el Iunio passado de 82. hasta 25 de Abril presente de 84." by the same. Pardo de Tavera (Biblioteca filipina, p. 274, no. 1768) cites this second report as a separate publication, which (following Vidal y Soler), he describes as consisting of four folios, signed "Luis de Morales procurador de la Compañia de Jesus." It is likely that the mistake arose through these two reports being cited separately (see Sommervogel, v, col. 1283), who, however, describes the two relations as part of the same publication, as consisting of a folio pamphlet of four leaves. In no. 1769, Pardo de Tavera describes the entire relation with its two reports, which evidently exists in his own library. It has been translated by Le Gobien, in his Histoire des îles Mariannes (Paris, 1700), under the title "Memoire du Pere Louis de Morales touchant la situation, la distance et la grandeur des Isles Mariannes." As Morales went to Spain in 1685 as procurator for the missions, the date of the pamphlet can be fixed at approximately 1685. Our transcript is made from the copy in R. A. de la H.; papeles de Jesuitas; tomo 19, n^o. 25.

CARLOS II:— [Royal decree concerning native schools.] Madrid, June 20, 1686.

Part II of the Dominican history. See also ante, Aduarte, Diego de; and post, Salazar, Vicente de, and Collantes, Diego de. Comprises the period 1637-1669. This work contains some bibliographical references (e.g., book i, chaps. xli, xlii). Various extracts and synopses have been published in our series as follows: "The Dominican missions, 1635-39," pp. 1-23; in translation and synopsis. VOL. XXXV, pp. 25-58 (facsimile of title-page, p. 23). "The Dominicans in the Philippines, 1641-69," pp. 44 et seq. (translations and synopses). VOL. XXXVI, pp. 64-146. "Of the honorable apostolic and royal erection of the university of Santo Tomás of Manila;" book i, chap. xxxvi, pp. 168-172. VOL. XLV, pp. 141-150 (in educational appendix). Extensive use of Santa Cruz has also been made in annotation. Copies of this work are conserved in the following libraries and collections: M. B. de U. (Madrid); C. SAN AUGUSTIN, GASPARD DE, O. S. A.:—Conquistas de las islas Philipinas; la temporal, por las armas del Señor Don Phelipe Segundo el Prudente; y la espiritual, por los religiosos del Orden de nuestro Padre San Augustin: fundacion, y progressos de sv provincia del Santissimo Nombre de Jesus, parte primera. Madrid: En la Imprenta de Manvel Rviz de Mvega, 1698. Pp. (32), 544, (7). Engraving. Index. F^o.

One of the most celebrated of all early accounts. Ends with the year 1616. The Conquistas de las Islas Filipinas, prepared by Casimiro Diaz, and known as the second part of the above history, was prepared in great part from materials gathered by San Augustin. It was never published until 1890 (Valladolid) under the editorship of Tirso Lopez, O. S. A. Copies of San Augustin's work are owned by P. de T. (Manila); M. B. de U. (Madrid); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; Biblioteca provincial (Toledo); Colegio de Agustinos (Valladolid); Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A. (Valladolid); B. M. (London); B. P. (Boston); Lenox; Astor (N. Y.); L. of C.; Ayer; and Biblioteca Nacional de Santiago (Chile). San Augustin wrote a Confessionario in Spanish and Tagal, "for the direction of the confessors and the instruction of the penitents." It was published at Sampaloc, in 1787. ("Preséntanse en él cuestiones en extremo peregrinas, particularmente en las preguntas que el confesor hace á los indios sobre los mandamientos sexto y noveno." (Vindel, Catálogo, ii, no. 331.)

LE GOBIEN, CHARLES, S. J.:—Histoire des Isles Marianes, nouvellement converties à la religion chrestienne; & de la mort glorieuse des premiers missionaires qui y ont prêché la foy. Paris: Chez Nicolas Pepie, 1700. Pp. (24), 433, (12). Two folded maps. 16^o.

The author claims that he has used only materials contained in the letters and relations of missionaries sent him from Rome, Spain, and the Netherlands. Much of it is a translation of Garcia's Vida y martyrio . . . de Diego Luis de Sanvitores (Madrid, 1683). Book ii of the 2d ed. of Le Gobien's work (also Paris, 1700) was published in Spanish translation in Delgado's Historia general (Manila, 1892). Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A., of Valladolid, claims that Le Gobien is not accurate in all essentials. See Griffin's List, p. 143. Copies of this work are owned by P. de T. (Manila); C. G. de T. de F.; B. M. (London); L. of C.

[BERART, RAIMUNDO, O. P.]:—[Memorial by the religious orders.] Ca., 1700.

Ayer Collection. See post, Arco, Ventura del, v, no. 3. VOL. XLII, pp. 64-112.

This memorial purports to be by the representatives of the five orders of the Dominicans, Franciscans, Augustinians, Recollects, and Jesuits. However, Berart, in a letter of April 4, 1700, says: "I wrote the memorial which Lector Mimbela printed under his name," (see Reseña biog., ii, p. 203). Mimbela is the first person mentioned in the memorial as representing the Dominicans.

This is the fifth edition. The first edition was published for James Knapton at London in 1697. For bibliographical information concerning Dampier's work, see Sabin, Bibliotheca Americana, v, pp. 188-195. There have been over seven English editions (the seventh being considered the best, although it contains much matter that is not Dampier's - see vol. xxxviii, p. 241, note 114); and editions have also been published in French, Dutch, and German. Dampier's MS. is conserved in London; B. M. (see post, p. 311). We reprint the portions treating of the Philippines. Vol. xxxviii, pp. 240-285, and vol. xxxix, pp. 21-121.

See Retana's description of this title in his Imprenta en Filipinas (Madrid, 1899), cols. 153-157. It is rare and but seldom found. Vol. xlvii, pp. 23-85 (see also pp. 210-212, note 42); presented in translation and synopsis. We have translated from the copy in the Ayer Collection.

ORTÍZ, TOMÁS, O. S. A.:— Practica del ministerio que sigven los religiosos del orden de N. P. S. Avgvstin, en Philippinas. [Sampaloc]: En el convento de Nuestra Señora de los Angeles, 1731. Pp. (9), 83. 4°.

An exceedingly rare book. Retana (Estadismo, ii, p. *14) was able to find a copy only at the Augustinian convent at Valladolid (in the possession of Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A.). It contains important matter on the heathen practices of the natives. Retana reproduces parts of the most important matter (Estadismo, ii, pp. *14-*21), which we have translated, viz., part of chap. i, section iv, pp. 11-15, under the title "Superstitions and beliefs of the Filipinos," and which forms a part of the ethnological appendix. Leaves (14), 324. F°.

A most important book for the study of the commercial relations between the Philippines and Nueva España and Spain. Divided into ten tiempos or periods. On folios 215-264 is inserted the famous memorial of Grau y Monfalcon (see vol. xxvii, pp. 55-212); and on folios 3-15, the "Justificación de la conservación y comercio de las Islas Philipinas," of the same author (see vol. xxx, pp. 25-109). Of this book only 100 copies are declared to have been printed. For bibliographical details, see Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 164, no. 1044; Griffin's List, p. 7; and Retana's Catálogo, p. 16, and Aparato bibl. We have published this as follows in our series in translation and synopsis: "Commerce between the Philippines and Nueva España" (1593-1635), fol. 1-28; the first two periods. Vol. xxx, pp. 23-109 (facsimile of title-page on p. 21). "Commerce of the Philippines with Nueva España, 1640-1736;" translated and synopsised from periods iii-x. Vol. xlii, pp. 227-312; and vol. xlv, pp. 29-88. Alvarez de Abreu possessed an excellent library, among which were many titles on the Indies (see Vindel, Catálogo, v, p. 103). Copies of his work are conserved in the following libraries and collections: P. de T. (Manila); M. B. de U. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; A. de I. (est. 107, caj. 1, leg. 3); Colegio de Agustinos (Valladolid); Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A. (Valladolid); University of Sevilla; B. M. (London); East India Company; Harvard; B. P. (Boston); Astor (N. Y.); Ayer. This book is listed in many of the sales catalogues.

SAN ANTONIO, JUAN FRANCISCO, O. S. F.:—Chronicas de la apostolica provincia de religiosos descalzos de N. S. P. S. Francisco en las Islas Philipinas, China, Japon, &c. . . . Sampaloc: Impresa en la imprenta del vso de la propria provincia, . . . Por Fr. Juan del Sotillo, 1738-1744. 3 vols. F°.

See Retana's full description of this work in his Aparato bibliográfico, i, pp. 291-296; and that of Pardo de Tavera, in his Biblioteca filipina. The first volume is the most important and furnishes much practical information regarding the islands. The work contains also some bibliographical notes (see the lives of the various Franciscan friars). Considerable use seems to have been made of San Antonio by Juan Delgado, S. J., in his Historia (Manila, 1892). See Medina, Imprenta, no. 202, in re a surreptitious edition of vol. ii of the Chronicas. The imprint on this vol. is "Convento de Nuestra Señora de Loreto del Pueblo de Sampaloc, 1741." Vindel, however, believes it should be Madrid, 1743. The first and third vols. of such an edition have not yet been discovered. We have published in addition to many notes from San Antonio, the following extracts (mainly in direct translation): "The religious estate in the Philippines;" book i, pp. 172-175, 190-210, 214-216, 219, 220, 223-226, comprising chaps. xlvii (in part), xlviii-li, liii, lv, lvi (in part), lvii, lviii-Vol. xxviii, pp. 104-162 (in religious appendix; with facsimile of title-page of vol. i, on p. 105). "The native peoples and their customs;" i, pp. 129-172, chaps. xxxix-xlv. Vol. xl, pp. 296-373 (in ethnological appendix). Copies of this work are conserved in the following libraries and collections: P. de T. (Manila); R. A. de la H. (Madrid); B. R. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; Biblioteca provincial (Toledo; 1st part only); B. M. (London); Harvard; Ubaldo Pandolfi, O. S. F. (Boston); Astor (N. Y.); Ayer. There was formerly a copy in the library of Alphonse Pinart (see his Catalogue, Paris, 1883, no. 1298).

Rare, and of considerable value. It was written in 1739, as appears from an "Aprobación," preceding the text. See translation and synopses in our vol. xlviii, pp. 161-229.

Copies are found in the following libraries and collections: P. de T. (Manila); B. R. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; B. M. (London); H. S. of A. (N. Y.); L. of C. The copy belonging to L. of C. is in manuscript, which was made from the printed book, for the commissary-general of the Order of St. John of God in that order's convent at Mexico. It contains 566 pp., and is bound in silk. Purchased from W. W. Blake (Mexico), for $100.00, July 24, 1899. It contains an excellent reproduction of the engraved title-page.

Contains interesting ethnological observations. Ustáriz arrived at Manila in 1730, and was later provincial of his order, and bishop of Nueva Segovia (see Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 422, no. 2751). En la Imprenta de D. Agustin de Gordejuela y Sierra, 1753. 2d ed. Pp. (48), 115. 32°.

The Franciscan Torrubia wrote, in defense of the Jesuit missions in Mindanao and the maintenance of the Zamboanga fort, in 1736 (for title of which, see Retana and Griffin), a memorial, which was printed (a very few copies) for circulation in the Spanish court; it eulogized the services of F. Valdés Tamón. When the latter's son was at Madrid later, no copy of this memorial could be found; accordingly, Patricio Joseph Castellanos secured permission (1753) to reprint it; he dedicated it to the son. (See the "Dedication" at the beginning, signed by Castellanos.) Torrubia describes the location, settlements, and importance of Mindanao, and its relation to the other Moro islands of Joló, Borneo, etc. He relates the depredations of the Moro pirates, and shows how these have always been much greater when the Spaniards had no fort in Mindanao. He gives the history of Zamboanga fort and of expeditions sent against pirates. The origin and funds of Misericordia are related, its obras pías, and its function as a Monte de piedad. In addition to various notes, we have translated in our series from the 1753 edition as follows: "Events in Filipinas, 1721-39;" pp. 68-90; in synopsis and translation. VOL. XLVI, pp. 38-43 (with a facsimile of the title-page on p. 41). See also VOL. XLVII, pp. 119, 120, note 13. Copies of the 1736 edition are conserved in M. B. de U. (Madrid); R. A. de la H. Pp. (14). Rice paper. 4°.

Very rare. Pardo de Tavera (Bibl. fil., p. 346, no. 2296) says that this pamphlet was reprinted in Mexico without date. VOL. XLVIII, pp. 36-51. There is a copy of this book in the Ayer Collection.

A copy is conserved at L. of C.

DRAPER, GENERAL SIR WILLIAM:—[Journal of the operations at Manila.] [Manila?], 1762.

CORNISH, ADMIRAL SIR SAMUEL; DRAPER, GENERAL SIR WILLIAM; ROJO, MANUEL ANTONIO; and others:—[Three sets of proposals in regard to the surrender of Manila.] October 6, 1762.

The first set are those offered by the Spaniards; the second are the counter propositions of the British, to which is attached a later condition of Oct. 30; and the third are the conditions as agreed upon by Spaniards and British. The first two we take from Scots Magazine for 1763, where they follow the letter to Egremont (these are published in other contemporary magazines; see VOL. XLIX, pp. 74, 75, note 29). The third set is taken from Draper's A plain narrative, pp. 27-30. VOL. XLIX, pp. 75-80.

CORNISH, ADMIRAL SIR SAMUEL:—[Letters to Cleveland.] Manila Bay, October 31, and November 10, 1762.

In Scots Magazine, 1763, pp. 232-235 (the list of killed and wounded being taken from the London Magazine, for 1763, xxxii, p. 222). These letters were also published in several other contemporary British magazines (see VOL. XLIX, p. 54, note 19, and p. 59, note 22). VOL. XLIX, pp. 44-59.

DRAPER, GENERAL SIR WILLIAM:—Letter to the Earl of Egremont. Manila, November 2, 1762.

In Scots Magazine, 1763, pp. 225-227. This letter is also published in other contemporary magazines (see VOL. XLIX, pp. 74, 75, note 29). See the manuscript draft of this letter, post, p. 231. VOL. XLIX, pp. 70-74.

ROJO Y VIEYRA, MANUEL ANTONIO (archbishop-governor):—[Journal of operations at Manila.] December 23, 1762.

In Le Gentil's Voyage (1779-1781), ii, pp. 232-235, 236, 237-239, 241, 242, 243-247, 248-252, 255-259. This is a French translation made from the original journal, which was loaned to Le Gentil by Rojo's nephew; and which, or its duplicate, or a transcript, is conserved in A. de I.; est. 107, caj. 3, leg. 2. There is also a copy in R. A. de la H., which is cited by Montero y Vidal, Hist. gen., ii, pp. 17, 18, 35. VOL. XLIX, pp. 104-131.

MOZO, ANTONIO, O. S. A.:—Noticia historico natural de los gloriosos triumphos y felices adelantamientos conseguidos en el presente siglo por los religiosos de N. P. S. Agustin en las misiones que tienen à su cargo en las Islas Philipinas, y en el grande Imperio de la China. Madrid: Por Andrès Ortega, 1763. Pp. (16), 247. 4°.

See for bibliographical details, VOL. XLIX, p. 322, note 195, p. 328, note 201, and p. 332. VOL. XLIX, pp. 322-335. Copies exist in B. M. (London); Astor; and Ayer.

[DRAPER, GENERAL SIR WILLIAM]:—A plain narrative. [London: 1764?] Pp. 30. 8°.

Griffin's List is in error in ascribing this to be the joint work of Draper and Cornish, the mistake arising from the fact that both officers signed the various proposals which are added to the narrative (see VOL. XLIX, p. 309, note 185). See for bibliographical notes, Griffin's List, p. 124. The three sets of proposals are included in the pamphlet, two of which we publish from another source (see ante, p. 127). VOL. XLIX, pp. 309-322. Copies exist in M. B. de U. ANDA Y SALAZAR, DOCTOR SIMÓN:—Abusos ó desordenes que se han criado en las islas Filipinas bajo de la capa de religión y á costa del real erario, que se deben cortar de raiz, para que los gobernadores que se envíen á aquellas partes si fuesen buenos sean mejores y si malos no sean peores; para que la religión se establezca sobre sus principios ciertos de pureza, para que el rey sea señor de aquellos dominios (hasta ahora ha sido en el gasto) y finalmente para que los vasallos de S. M., asi Españoles como Indios, lo sean solo de su rey y salgan de la abominable esclavitud que llevan de cerca de doscientos años. April 12, 1768.

In Dr. T. H. Pardo de Tavera's Una memoria de Anda y Salazar (Manila, 1899), pp. 9-41. This is followed (pp. 43-102) by annotations by Pardo de Tavera. This was the first publication of the memorial, although there were many manuscript copies of it which had circulated somewhat widely. W. E. Retana owned such a copy. See Pardo de Tavera's preface to this memorial. A memorial of great value. Vol. L, pp. 137-190. The original MS. is conserved in A. de I.; est. 107, caj. 1, leg. 17.

In Ferrando's Historia de PP. dominicos (Madrid, 1870-1872), v, pp. 59, 60. For titles by this author, who sought to enforce vigorously the episcopal visit of regulars engaged in the office of parish priest, see Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil., pp. 383-388, nos. 2513-2536; and Ferrando, ut supra, v, pp. 51-61. FORREST, CAPTAIN THOMAS:— A voyage to New Guinea and the Moluccas, from Balambangan: including an account of Magindanao, Sooloo, and other islands. London: Printed by J. Scott, 1779. Pp. xxiii, (1), 388, 13, (2). Engravings. Map. 4°.

This work is highly praised by Retana, Aparato bibl., i, pp. 392, 393. Especially valuable for its description of Mindanao and its people, of whom (as likewise of the Papuans) Forrest gives a vocabulary. A Dublin edition was published in 1779; a French translation was published at Paris, in 1780; and a German translation at Hamburg, in 1782 (the latter without the vocabularies). We have used this for various notes in our series, among others the following: "Events in Filipinas, 1721-1739;" pp. 201-206. Vol. XLVI, pp. 45-48, note 6 (in part). See also the notes in vols. XLVIII, p. 166; L, p. 33; and LI, pp. 26, 84-87. A copy of the London ed. is owned by James A. Robertson.

GENTIL DE LA GALAISIERE, GUILLAUME JOSEPH HYACINTHE JEAN BAPTISTE LE:— Voyage dans les mers de l'Inde, fait par ordre du roi, a l'occasion du passage de Venus, sur le disque du soleil, le 6 Juin 1761, & le 3 du même mois 1769. Paris: De l'imprimerie royale, 1779-1781. 2 vols. Folded plates. Folded maps. 4°.

The Philippine matter is contained in vol. ii, pp. 1-366 (except for a few scattered references in vol. i). This work is of distinct value to the student who wishes to gather a correct idea of conditions in the latter part of the eighteenth century, although it does contain some inaccuracies in regard to the social and political life (see Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 232, no. 1510). Le Gentil was a trained scientific observer, and was sent out by the French government. His observations cover the dates Sept. 1766-Feb. 1, 1768. He makes considerable use of San Antonio as an authority for his statements. We publish the following extracts from this work: I. "Ecclesiastical survey of the Philippines," ii, pp. 170-191, and 59-63 (in part of the latter reference, translating directly from San Antonio's Chronica, i, part of chap. xl, to which Le Gentil refers only in synopsis). Vol. xxviii, pp. 192-225 (in religious appendix). II. "Rojo's Journal," (1763), ii, pp. 232-235, 236, 237-239, 241, 242, 243-247, 248-252, 255-259, which Le Gentil translates into French from the original Spanish. Vol. xlix, pp. 104-131. Copies are owned in the following libraries and collections: B. P. (Boston); Yale; American Philosophical Society (Philadelphia); L. of C.; Ayer; Wis. Hist. Society.

The fourth part of the Dominican history. See ante, Aduarte, Diego de; Santa Cruz, Baltasar de; and Salazar, Vicente de. One of the rarest of all Philippine titles. The unnumbered preliminary pages contain a chronological list of the conquistadors; a chronological list of the archbishops of Manila; and a chronological list of the provincials of the Dominican province in the Philippines. See Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 107; and Retana, Aparato bibl., i, pp. 401, 402. The latter gives a facsimile of the title-page. Collantes was a native of Villa de Herrin de Campos, professed in the convent of San Pablo at Valladolid in 1764, and arrived at Manila July 8, 1769. He filled several posts in his order, among them that of provincial. He died as bishop of Nueva Cáceres in 1808, at the age of 60. Copies of his book are found in the following libraries and collections: P. de T. (Manila); the copy formerly owned by Dr. A. R. Jurado, London; B. N. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; convent of Santo Tomás (Ávila); and Antonio Graiño (Madrid).

Pardo de Tavera (Bibl. fil., p. 44, no. 215) says of this document, that it was the work of Ciriaco González Carvajal, as is shown by documents accompanying the copy in A. de I. We translate and synopsize direct from a copy in the Ayer Collection. Vol. lxi, pp. 291-301 (in agricultural appendix).

The most extensive history of the Philippines ever written as one work. Treats largely of Chinese, Japanese, and other missions. Concepcion is one of the most impartial of the friar writers, and gives many interesting details of Philippine history. Martínez de Zúñiga condensed much of his Historia from this work. Retana (Aparato bibl., i, p. 419), says that a manuscript copy of Concepcion exists in Madrid, at the Biblioteca Nacional, with pressmark I, 312. It shows variations from the printed edition. Concepcion's style is not at all easy, and the work is wretchedly printed. Besides using this history largely for annotation throughout its period in our series, we have translated and synopsized as follows: "Early Recollect missions in the Philippines, 1606-1624;" in iv, pp. 189-265, and v, pp. 32-100. Vol. XXI, pp. 263-317. "The Recollect missions, 1625-1640," v, pp. 163-179, 360-391 (the first selection in synopsis, and several paragraphs straight translation; and the second all translation). Vol. XXXV, pp. 88-113. "Missions in the Philippines, 1661-1712;" viii, pp. 3-16, 135-144; ix, pp. 123-150. Vol. XLI, pp. 231-272. "Extract concerning the Moro pirates," vii, pp. 93-97. Vol. XLI, pp. 312-314, note 97. "Events of 1701-1715;" summarized from vol. viii, pp. 299-391. Vol. XLIV, pp. 142-147. "Government of Bustamante;" summarized from vol. ix, pp. 183-424. "Events in Filipinas, 1739-1762;" xi, pp. 89-121, 121-237. Vol. XLVIII, pp. 137-140 (mainly in synopsis). Copies of this work are common. We know of the following sets: P. de T. (Manila); M. B. de U. (Madrid); Biblioteca del Congreso de los Diputados (Madrid); Biblioteca de Marina (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; Pastells (Barcelona); A. de I.; convent of Santo Tomás (Ávila); Colegio de Agustinos (Valladolid; 1st 39 pp. of vol. I lacking); Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A. (Valladolid); B. N. MARTINEZ DE ZUÑIGA, JOAQUIN, O. S. A.:—Historia de las Islas Philipinas. Sampaloc: Por Fr. Pedro Argüelles de la Concepción Religioso Francisco, 1803. Ll. (2), iv, and pp. 687 (the pagination of the text beginning on the obverse of leaf iv). Rice paper. 8°.

Written, as the author states in his preface, so that readers might have the history of the Philippines in small compass. Previous histories, he says, have been very long, full of extraneous matter, and consequently not read. This is an excellent work and written in pleasing and readable style. See Barrows's commentary on Martínez de Zúñiga in his Hist. of the Phil., p. 19. There is an English translation with title as follows:

An historical view of the Philippine Islands: exhibiting their discovery, population, language, government, manners, customs, productions and commerce. London: Printed for J. Asperne, 1814. 2 vols. Folded map. 8°.

Besides numerous notes, we have made excerpts from this work as follows: "The people of the Philippines;" chap. ii, pp. 19-38. Vol. XLIII, pp. 113-127 (in ethnological appendix). "Events in Filipinas, 1721-39;" pp. 469, 514-517, 526-528, 535, 536. Vol. XLVI, pp. 31-34, 51-55, 57, 58. "Events in Filipinas, 1739-1762;" pp. 546-601. Vol. XLVIII, pp. 140-193. Copies of the Spanish edition are conserved in the following libraries and collections: P. de T. (Manila); M. B. de U. (Madrid); C. G. de T. de F.; Colegio de Agustinos (Valladolid); Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A. (Valladolid; MS. index); B. M. (London); B. P. (Boston); Lenox; Astor; L. of C.; Ayer.

CÁRLOS IV:—[Superior decree in regard to the three per cent discount

Manila, March 26, 1803.

COMYN, TOMÁS DE:—Estado de las Islas Filipinas en 1810. Madrid:
Imprenta de Repullés, 1820. Pp. (8), 190, 11. 10 folded sheets. Sm.

The appearance of this book raised a storm in official circles. It treats especially of the industry, agriculture, commerce, finance, and administration of the Philippines in 1810. Retana (Aparato bibl., ii, pp. 501, 502), praises it highly. The work was reissued in Manila, 1878, by Felipe Del-Pan (Las Islas Filipinas. Progressos en 70 años), the first 218 pages being Comyn, and the remainder Del-Pan's notes and economic description of the islands in 1876. It was translated into English and edited by William Walton, under the title State of the Philippine Islands, being an historical, statistical, and descriptive account of that interesting portion of the Indian archipelago (London, 1821). There is also a Dutch translation (see Vindel, Catálogo, iv, p. 289). Comyn lived in Manila for eight years as chief factor of the Compañía de Filipinas; and was an authority in financial, commercial, and economic matters. See also Griffin's List, p. 15; and Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil., pp. 110, 111.

FERNANDEZ DE NAVARETE, MARTÍN:—Colección de los viajes y descubrimientos que hicieron por mar los Españoles desde fines del siglo XV.
Madrid: En la imprenta nacional, 1825-1837. 5 vols. 4°.

The first two vols. at least were issued in a second edition, in 1858 and 1859. Only vols. iv and v concern the Philippines. Many documents are published from copies of the original MSS. which makes this a very valuable collection. It is said that the family of the editor still possess unpublished notes sufficient to fill two more vols. See synopses of documents published in this collection in our vols. i and ii. The Philippine matter treats of the Magalhães, Loaisa, Saavedra, Villalobos, and Legazpi expeditions. See also, ante, p. 71. See also Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 168, no. 1070. We have had frequent recourse to this collection for the early Philippine expeditions.

———:—Remarks on the Philippine Islands, and on their capital Manila.
1819 to 1822. By an Englishman. Calcutta: Printed at the Baptist mission Press, 1828. Pp. (6), 104. Three folded maps. 12°.

A rare and valuable book. We know of copies in the Library of Congress and the Ayer Collection. VOL. LI, pp. 73-181.

RICAFORT PALACÍN Y ARARCA, MARIANO (governor of Philippines):—
Reducción de Bohol. [Manila, 1829.] Pp. 19. 4°.

The date "Manila, Dec. 30, 1829" appears at the end. Otherwise undated. This we have condensed (from the Ayer copy) into note 18, VOL. LI, pp. 51, 52.

CHACON, ———:—[Royal order approving the new regulations for pilots in Manila.] Madrid, May 9, 1839.

In Colección de autos acordados (1861-1866), i, pp. 318, 319. VOL. XLV, p. 240 (in educational appendix).

———:—Recopilación de leyes de los reinos de las Indias. Madrid:

This is the fifth edition. In addition to the laws given under Felipes II, III, and IV (q.v., pp. 105, 106, 108, 110, 111), we have cited the following in this series: VOL. XIV, p. 149, note 27, lib. vi, tit. vi, law viii. VOL. XVI, pp. 144, 145, note 183, lib. ii, tit. xv, law xi; p. 147, note 188, lib. i, tit. vi, law xviii; pp. 155, 156, note 199, lib. vi, tit. vii, law xvi; pp. 157, 158, note 205, lib. vi, tit. viii, law xi; pp. 160, 161, note 207, lib. vi, tit. v, law lxx; pp. 161, 162, note 208, lib. i, tit. xiii, law xiv; p. 164, note 211, lib. vi,

These laws were issued by Felipe II, III, and IV, and Carlos II. Many of the laws in this code had existence only on paper; and many laws are quite at variance with others.

MAS, SINIBALDO DE:—Informe sobre el estado de las Islas Filipinas en 1842. Escrito por el autor del Aristodemo, del Sistema musical de la lengua castellana, etc. Madrid: Enero de 1843. 3 vols. 8°.

The first two volumes are common. Vol. i contains a chart of Filipino written characters, and vol. ii, a map of the archipelago. These two volumes contain in all 27 different sections, with independent pagination, treating of the ethnology, history, fauna, natural features, industries, commerce, and various governmental and social aspects of the Philippines. Vol. iii was published secretly and in a limited edition, and treats of the Spanish policy regarding the Philippines. The author advocates training the Filipinos for self-government and then giving them independence. Although this third vol. was listed by Retana in his Catálogo abreviado, p. 524, it has been rarely cited. It is very rare. Besides the copy of the Compañía de Tabacos de Filipinas, we know of three copies, one belonging to Epifanio de los Santos, Malolos, Bulakan, Luzón (from a typewritten copy of which we publish the translation in our series); one to the late Clemente Zulueta, a Filipino; and one to the Peabody Institute Library, at Baltimore. The entire work is of great value, although in the light of the latest researches its ethnological part suffers. In addition to many notes, we have made the following excerpts in our series from Mas's work: "Administration of government and the captaincy-general;" ii, no. 9. VOL. xvii, pp. 322-328 (part of appendix). "Character and influence of the friars;" ii, no. 10. VOL. xxviii, pp. 226-265 (in religious appendix). "Judicial conditions of the Philippines in 1842;" ii, no. 12. VOL. xxxvi, pp. 279-306 (appendix). "Comments on San Agustin's famous letter." VOL. xl, p. 184, note 85; pp. 194, 195, notes 116, 117; pp. 198-205, notes 127 (in part), 132, 133, 134 (in part), 136, 139 (in part), 143, 144 (in part), 145; pp. 207-215, notes 152 (in part), 153 (in part), 155 (in part), 156 (in part), 157 (in part), 159 (in part), 160 (in part); pp. 217-228, notes 165, 169, 171 (in part), 174 (in part), 177 (in part), 180 (in part), 185 (in part); pp. 230-245, notes 192, 195; p. 238, note 205; pp. 244-255, notes 223, 226 (in part), 230 (in part), 231, 237 (in part), 238, 241 (in part), 243 (in part), 247; pp. 259-261, notes 265 (in part), 271; p. 265, note 286 (in part); p. 269, note 297 (in part). In addition to these comments are given also in footnotes to San Agustin's letter the variants in Mas's reading from those of the copy which we follow. "Public instruction;" ii, no. 12. VOL. xiv, pp. 246-262 (in educational appendix). "Politica interior;" iii. We have published this in translation and synopsis, from a typewritten transcript made from the copy owned by Epifanio de los Santos, of Malolos, Bulakan, Luzón, which was loaned us by James A. LeRoy. For some of the notes we have had recourse to the copy conserved in the Peabody Institute Library (whose existence we learned of too late to use). VOL. lii, pp. 29-90. See also Retana's La Política de España, viii, pp. 219-223; and his Aparato bibl., ii, pp. 581-583, where a few paragraphs of this work are given.

WILKES, CHARLES:—Narrative of the United States exploring expedition during the years 1838, 1839, 1840, 1841, 1842. Philadelphia: Printed by C. Sherman, 1844. 5 vols. Illustrations. Plates. Portrait. Maps. F^o. Atlas. F^o.

From this we have reprinted the portion treating of "Jolo and the Sulus;" v, chap. ix, (almost entire), pp. 343-390. VOL. XLIII, pp. 131-192 (in ethnological appendix; see also ut supra, pp. 128-131, and note 31). See Griffin's List for later editions of this work (pp. 121, 122; especially p. 122, for the list of the reports of this expedition, several of which contain Philippine material, and vol. xxiii, Hydrography, which was written by Wilkes). Vol. v also contains other Philippine matter.

MALLAT, J.:— Les Philippines. Histoire, géographie, mœurs, agriculture, industrie et commerce des colonies espagnoles dans l'Océanie. Paris: Arthus Bertrand, 1846. 2 vols. 8^o.

A work of considerable merit, which consists, says Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil. (p. 245), "not in its originality, but in the system and good arrangement." Largely used by Buzeta and Bravo in compiling their Diccionario. Mallat has followed Mas to a considerable extent. The atlas accompanying the work is very rare, and we have not seen it. We have translated from this the following: "Educational institutions and conditions;" ii, chap. xxv (entitled "Public instruction; condition of the sciences of letters and arts"), pp. 239-253. VOL. XLV, pp. 263-278 (in educational appendix).

ARRAZOLA, —:— [Privileges granted to students.] Madrid, December 2, 1847.

In Colección de autos acordados, ii, pp. 128, 129. VOL. XLV, pp. 279-281 (in educational appendix).

BUZETA, MANUEL, O. S. A.; and BRAVO, FELIPE, O. S. A.:— Diccionario geográfico, estadístico, historico, de las Islas Filipinas. Madrid: Imprenta de D. José C. de la Peña, 1851. 2 vols. Folded plans. Folded sheets. Portraits. Large 8^o.

Although the engraved title-page of vol. i reads 1850, the imprint on the preceding page reads 1851. Pardo de Tavera (Bibl. fil., p. 75, no. 432), calls these authors common plagiarists, and declares that the first 254 pages of vol. i are a plagiarism of Mallat's work (see also Retana, Catálogo, p. 62, no. 188, who says that considerable use was made of Mallat's work). The authors acknowledge aid from one Juan Castells y Melcior, who had done much in such work. Aid was also obtained (although not acknowledged) from the MS. El venerable osorio of Agustin de Santa Maria (q.v., post); and Retana, Estadismo, i, pp. xxxii, xxxiii, shows their unacknowledged use of Martinez de Zuñiga, by a parallel passage. In our religious appendix, we translate various parts from this work as follows: "Ecclesiastical system in the Philippines," i, pp. 542-545; ii, pp. 271-275, 363-367. VOL. XXVIII, pp. 266-289.

CONCHA, JOSÉ DE LA:— [Decree and regulations establishing primary and normal education in the Philippines.] Madrid, December 20, 1863.

In Grifol y Aliaga's La instrucción primaria en Filipinas (Madrid, 1894). VOL. XLVI, pp. 76-118 (in educational appendix).

—:— Colección de documentos inéditos relativos al descubrimiento, conquista y colonización de las posesiones españolas en América y Oceanía, sacados, en su mayor parte, del Real Archivo de Indias. Madrid: 1864-1884. 42 vols. 8^o.

The title-pages are not uniform, and change with vol. iv, reading as follows: "Colección de documentos inéditos relativos al descubrimiento, conquista y organización de las antiguas posesiones españolas en América y Oceanía, sacados de los archivos del reino, y muy especialmente de Indias." The directors of the work were Joaquín F. Pacheco, Francisco de Cardenas, and Luis Torres de Mendoza. Unfortunately, as Sr. D. Pedro Torres Lanzas, present chief of the Archivo General de Indias, affirms, the proofreading was poorly done, and hence the accuracy of this important publication is impaired. Many documents treat of the Philippines, for list of which see Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil., pp.

103-105; and Retana's Aparato bibl., ii, pp. 701-703. See also various documents from this collection in our series.

BARRANTES, VICENTE:— La instrucción primaria en Filipinas. Madrid: Imprenta de La Iberia; Manila: Imprenta y librería de Ramirez y Giraudier. [1869] Pp. 174. 24°.

From this book, we translate and condense as follows: "Primary instruction; first governmental attempts," pp. 97, 98, 147-151, 166-168. VOL. XLVI, pp. 67-72 (in educational appendix).

Apuntes interesantes sobre las Islas Filipinas. Madrid: Imprenta de "El Pueblo," 1870 (sic on the outside cover; the title-page reads 1869).

From this we have translated as follows: "Educational suggestions: superior instruction, schools of primary letters," pp. 218-225. VOL. XLV, pp. 286-295 (in educational appendix). See ante, p. 86.

JAGOR, FEODOR:— Reisen in den Philippinen. Berlin: Weidmannsche Buchhandlung, 1873. Pp. xvi, 381. Illustrations. Map. Index. 8°.

Concerning this work see Globus, xxiii, pp. 177-181, 196-199, 245-249, 293-296, 326-328 (Braunschweig, 1873). See also Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil., p. 215. The appendix contains "Ueber die geologische Beschaffenheit der Philippinen," by J. Roth; pp. 333-354; and "Ueber alte und neue Schädel von den Philippinen," by Rudolph Virchow, pp. 355-377; and other interesting matter (see Griffin's List, p. 17). There is an English translation with the title Travels in the Philippines (London, 1874), in which the appendix is omitted. There is also a Spanish translation by S. Vidal y Soler with the title Viajes por Filipinas (Madrid, 1875). Both translations are defective, the English especially being untrustworthy. Jagor's work is of great value to the student, as its author was a keen and trained scientific observer. Considerable use has been made of it in this series. In the religious appendix, we present an extract under the following title "Character and influence of the friars," pp. 95-100. VOL. XXVIII, pp. 290-299. Also "Ueber den Bodenkredit;" pp. 303-306 (in appendix); "nach Aufsätzen im Diario de Manila, Dezember 1866." VOL. LII, pp. 302-307 (in agricultural appendix). See also notes in vols. L, pp. 64, 65, and LII, pp. 122-124, 318.

WITTERT, FRANÇOIS, BARON DE:— Journal de l'amiral Wittert, 1607-10. Liège: J. Gothier, éditeur, 1875. Pp. 108. 16°.

A second title-page reads: "Les grands voyages et la glorieuse mort du général & amiral Baron de Wittert le 12 juin 1610 a Manille MDCXI." VOL. XV, pp. 326-328 (in synopsis; in appendix).

GONZALEZ FERNANDEZ, RAMON; and MORENO Y JERÉZ, FEDERICO:— Manual del viajero en Filipinas. Manila: Establecimiento tipográfico de Santo Tomás, 1875. Pp. xii, 478 (172 advertisement pages). 8°.

For bibliography of the various editions of the Guía, see Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., pp. 197-199; and Retana, Bibl. aparato. These guidebooks contain much useful information. From this we have taken matter on the "Sociedad económica," pp. 172-178. VOL. LII, pp. 307-322 (in agricultural appendix). The Library of Congress contains almost a full set of these volumes.

MALCAMPO, —:— [Decree approving, and regulations for, the female normal school of Nueva-Cáceres.] Manila, June 19, 1875.

—:— Provincia de San Nicolás de Tolentino de Agustinos descalzos de la congregación de España é Indias. Manila: Imprenta del Colegio de Santo Tomás, 1879. Pp. 340, (6). 8°.

Pardo de Tavera (Bibl. fil., p. 317), praises this book highly. Retana (Catálogo, p. 155), judges the book fairly when he says that it contains much useful information, but also many inaccuracies. See our translation and summary of this work, under the title "The Augustinian Recollects in the Philippines." Vol. xxviii, pp. 300-348 (in religious appendix).

AGANDURU MORIZ, RODRIGO DE, RECOLLECT:—Historia general de las Islas Occidentales á la Asia adyacentes, llamadas Philipinas. Madrid: 1882. 8°.

Published in Colección de documentos inéditos para la historia de España, vol. lxxviii, and part of vol. lxxix. The MS. is conserved in the collection of Mariano de Zabalburo (see our series vol. xxi, pp. 116, 117, note 29). The author's religious name was Rodrigo de San Miguel. This work is incomplete (the author dying in 1626), and treats so far as completed of the Moluccas Islands. (See Pardo de Tavera's Bibl. fil. pp. 17, 18.)

Vols. ii and iii treat of the Philippines, and were edited by Francisco Javier Salas y Rodríguez. These volumes contain various documents relating to the expeditions of López de Villalobos and López de Legazpi (see our synopses of those expeditions in our vol. II; see also notes to vol. III). The original MSS. of these documents are conserved in A. de I. See Griffin's List, p. 25, for an enumeration of the documents contained in the two Philippine vols. Unlike the collection of 1842-64, this collection has been carefully edited and is generally trustworthy.

Comprises the period 1616-1694. See for the first part of the Augustinian history, San Augustin, Gaspar de, ante, p. 123. The MS. is conserved at Valladolid (see post, p. 330). Although Diaz died in 1746, his work was never published until 1890, when it was edited with some slight changes by Tirso Lopez, O. S. A., of Valladolid. It is an important work, and we have had frequent recourse to it both for annotation and the following excerpts: "Conflicts between civil and ecclesiastical authorities, 1635-36;" pp. 323-343. VOL. Copy of original sent to James A. LeRoy, by Epifanio de los Santos, from Malolos, Bulakan, June 23, 1906. A copy was also sent to W. E. Retana. An abbreviated form of the constitution, differing in some few respects from the MS., was printed by the London Printing Press of London (see vol. DELGADO, JUAN JOSÉ, S. J.—Historia general sacro-profana, política y natural de las islas del Poniente llamadas Filipinas. Manila: Imp. de El Eco de Filipinas de D. Juan Atayde, 1892. Pp. xvi, 1009, (3). Map. 8°.

Vol. i, of the series Biblioteca histórica filipina, published under the initiative of José Gutierrez de la Vega. Although published only in 1892, this work was undertaken by Delgado in Guiguan in 1751, continued in Palápag, and finished, June 6, 1754. The author seems to have utilized San Antonio's Chronicas to a great extent; but he has added much material of his own, so that the book is a valuable addition to Philippina. Especially interesting are the third, fourth, and fifth books on ethnology, and natural history. In the third book, Delgado inserts most of San Agustin's famous letter; and the editor inserts a portion of Loarca's Relation (see vol. v, pp. 34-187), and excerpts from Le Gobien's Histoire des isles Marianes (Paris, 1700). Cited many times in our series, and excerpts published in our series as follows: "Some things worth knowing about the governors of the Filipinas Islands;" part i, book ii, chap. xvii, pp. 212-215. Vol. xvii, pp. 314-322. "Religious condition of the islands;" part i, book ii, chaps. ii-ix, xiv, and xv; pp. 140-158, and 184-188. Vol. xxviii, pp. 163-191 (a part of the religious appendix). "Some considerations concerning the matter in Father Gaspar de San Agustin's letter;" part i, book iii, chap. vii, pp. 297-302. Vol. xl, pp. 283-295. "Comments on San Agustin's famous letter." Vol. xl, pp. 197-201, notes 124, 126 (in part), 127 (in part), 129, 134 (in part), 135, 137; p. 205, note 144 (in part), pp. 207-209, note 152 (in part), 153 (in part), 155 (in part); pp. 211-217, notes 156 (in part), 157 (in part), 160 (in part), 161 (in part), 167; p. 218, note 171 (in part); p. 222, note 173; pp. 225, 226, notes 177 (in part), 179, 182 (in part); pp. 229, 230, notes 189, 191; pp. 234-239, notes 194, 196, 198, 200, 203, 206; p. 241, note 213; pp. 244, 245, notes 225, 226; p. 247, note 230 (in part); p. 249, notes 234 (in part), 237 (in part); pp. 252-254, notes 241 (in part), 242, 243 (in part), 247 (in part); p. 259, note 265 (in part); p. 265, note 286 (in part); pp. 278, 279, note 325 (in part). There are also many variants given in the footnotes under San Agustin's letter, from the reading of the MS. which we follow in our publication of that letter. Delgado was born at Cádiz, and went to the Philippines in 1711. He worked in the missions of Sámar, where he held various offices, was many years in Cebú, and labored as well in Leyte and Bohol. A copy of the original MS. of this work is mentioned by Sommervogel (Bibliothèque, v, col. 1457, and ix, col. 188) as existing in the Jesuit archives at Manila.

SANTA INÉS, FRANCISCO DE, O. S. F.—Crónica de la provincia de San Gregorio Magno de religiosos descalzos de N. S. P. San Francisco en las Islas Filipinas, China, Japon, etc. Manila: Tipo-litografía de Chofré y Comp., 1892. 2 vols. 8°.

Vols. ii and iii of the Biblioteca histórica filipina (which was undertaken through the influence of José Guierrez de la Vega). Santa Inés's Crónica dates from 1676. Pardo de Tavera says that its author wrote it with the intention of publication. The MS. (written on rice paper) was preserved in the Franciscan convent at Manila, the first volume entire, but the second somewhat mutilated. The MS. is also cited by Huerta, Estado, p. 462; and Marcellino da Civezza, Saggio di bibl., pp. 551, 552. At the end of the second vol. the editor has added 12 appendices, among them two valuable relations of Juan de Plasencia, O. S. F. The Crónica is divided into three books, and deals with the islands themselves, and especially with the history of the Franciscans. The third book is taken up with the story of the martyrdom of Pedro Bautista and his companions in Japan in the sixteenth century. Santa Inés was born at Peñaranda de Bracamonte, and went to the Philippines in 1674. He was appointed chronicler of his province in 1676, and in accordance therewith wrote the above history, comprising the years 1576-1627. His death occurred at Lilio, August 4, 1713 (Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 395).

Vivar was born in Logroño in 1731 and went to the Philippines in 1752. There he labored in Ilocos, and hence was an eye-witness of the insurrections. He died at Batac in 1771 (see Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 432).

GUTIERREZ, MANUEL, O. S. A.; and others:— [The friar memorial of 1898.] Manila, April 21, 1898.

This memorial was never presented, as the American forces captured Manila before it could be sent to Spain. It gives the friar point of view of the troubles that led to the revolution of 1896, and was the joint work of the Augustinians, Franciscans, Dominicans, Recollects, and Jesuits, each order being represented by its provincial. Fifty copies were pulled off press, ten for each order. Our typewritten transcript was made from one of these printed copies that was made for the Recollects. An edition was published at Madrid, "Imprenta de la Viuda de M. Minuesa de los Ríos," ca., 1900. This contains some few slight verbal changes from the other copy, but not sufficient to make a difference in the sense. An untrustworthy version of the memorial was published by Ambrose Coleman, O. P., in the Rosary Magazine for 1900 (partly in direct translation and partly in synopsis). This is an exceedingly valuable document as it gives the friar viewpoint, and is, moreover, the official record of their position. VOL. LII, pp. 227-286.

ALGUÉ, JOSÉ, S. J.; and others:—El archipiélago filipino. Colección de datos geográficos, estadísticos y científicos, relativos al mismo, entresacados de anteriores obras ú obtenidos con la propia observación y estudio por algunos padres de la misión de la Compañía de Jesús en estas islas. Washington: Imprenta del gobierno, 1900. 2 vols. Colored frontispiece. Plates. Maps. Charts. Folded sheets. Large 8°. Atlas, 30 colored maps. F°.

Vol. i contains for the most part the descriptive matter, and vol. ii, the special scientific matter. See for the table of contents Griffin's List, p. 12; Pardo de Tavera praises this work for its mechanical excellence, and says of it: "It is a compilation of what has been written on the Filipinas. The part on meteorology and magnetism is excellent, but the rest is a simple compilation, in which the Jesuits have brought together what other authors have said, without the least personal criticism in the opinions copied, which are at times absurd." The atlas was issued by the Coast and Geodetic Survey, and before publishing, it was necessary to redraw the maps to a uniform scale. Most of the text of vol. i has been translated into English and published in vols. iii and iv of the Rept. of the Phil. Com. for 1900 (Washington, 1901). We publish extracts from this work under the following titles: "Present conditions of the Catholic religion in Filipinas," i, pp. 258-267. VOL. XXVIII, pp. 349-368 (in religious appendix). "Modern conditions in conciliar seminaries;" i, pp. 343, 344. VOL. XLV, pp. 230, 231 (in educational appendix). "Nautical school;" i, p. 349. VOL. XLV, pp. 240, 241 (in educational appendix). "Boys' singing school;" ii, pp. 349, 350. VOL. XLV, pp. 244, 245 (in educational appendix). "Girls' schools;" i, p. 353. VOL. XLV, pp. 313, 314 (in educational appendix).

The present contribution furnishes material, by editorial comment and a working bibliography, for a careful study of the period treated. See his Philippine life in town and country (New York and London, 1905), which presents the Filipino in a clearer light than has been done elsewhere. VOL. LII, pp. 112-207.

Torre do Tombo, Lisboa; Corpo Chron., parte 1^a, maço 24, n.º. 64. Begins "El Rey fernando de magallanes & Ruy falero . . ." Ends "a la n^{ra} merced", with date, royal signature, and countersignature of royal secretary, Francisco de los Covos. VOL. 1, pp. 294, 295 (both Spanish and English).

It is published in Alguns documentos, p. 430, with title: "Carta do rei de Castella a Fernando de Magalhães e a Ruy Faliero, commandantes da armada, que manda a descobrir, e a todas as pessoas d'ella, para que sigam as determinações do dito Fernando de Magalhães, e vão em direitura, e antes de a outra parte, as ilhas Molucas, onde, segunda a opinião de pessoas bem informadas, abundam as especiarias."

—:—Traslados de dos cartas de las yndias q̄ vynjerõ en estas dos naos. August 29, [1523?] A. de S.; secretaría de estado; leg. 367, fol. 94. Begins with above title. Ends "deste dinero se a de adereçar el armada q̄ a de levar el C^o almirante. En Tomar a xxjx agosto."

This document appears to be a communication from the Spanish ambassador in Portugal to the Spanish monarch. It is endorsed on the back in a hand different from that of the letter: "Avisos del viage de Magallanes y su muerte y noticias de la India portuguesa." The first letter appears to be copied in full, and bears date, December 23, 1522. Begins

"Despues de esto escrito a V. S. . . ."; ends "martin alonso de melo es passado a china . . . de cochín a 23 de diziembre jUdxxij años." Printed in part (both Spanish and English) in VOL. I, pp. 296-300, under title "Extracto de una carta." Synopsis of second letter begins "Ay otra carta muy larga escrita en cananor a xij de diziembre del dho año en q dize muy grandes males de dⁿ duarte de menses;" evidently ends "por las diferencias con otros moros q estan en queixome. Hecho ut supra &^a." Following the second letter (which has considerable information concerning Portuguese centers in India and the Portuguese commanders there) is an account of the cargo of spices and drugs brought to Portugal that year.

PIGAFETTA, ANTONIO (knight of Rhodes):— Primo viaggio intorno al mondo. Ca., 1525. Biblioteca Ambrosiana (Milan); L. 103 — Sup. Begins after short dedication to Philippe de Villiers l'Isle-Adam, grand master of the knights of Rhodes or Malta, with the dedicatory epistle: "Perche fono molti curiofi Jil^{mo}. et excell^{mo}. Signor che". Ends "Queste mie poche faticque a lo Inclito et Illustriffimo Signor philipo de Villers lisleadam grã maest^o de rhodi digniffimo. JL Cauallier ant^o pagaphetta." Published (Italian and English) in VOLS. XXXIII, and XXXIV, pp. 11-180; with notes, and photographic facsimiles of 23 charts by Pigafetta; and photographic facsimile of last page of MS.

A journal of the first circumnavigation of the globe. Pigafetta, an Italian of noble family, and an ardent admirer of Magalhães, kept a journal during the voyage, from which evidently this relation was compiled. This is called the Ambrosian Manuscript, from its place of conservation in the Biblioteca Ambrosiana, Milan, Italy. It is the oldest of the four manuscripts (see post, p. 239), and dates from either shortly before or shortly after 1525. Ciscato (Antonio Pigafetta viaggiatore vicentino del secolo XVI; in "Atti dell' accademia Olimpica di Vicenza," xviii, a. 1883) believes that it was procured for the founder of the Biblioteca Ambrosiana, Cardinal Federico Borromeo, by one of the learned men whom he sent out, according to Manzoni, to every part of Europe, to buy ancient books and manuscripts. It was discovered among the papers of the Biblioteca Ambrosiana by Dr. Carlo Amoretti, prefect or conservator of that library, and first made known to the world in his Primo viaggio (Milan, 1800), although in a wofully mutilated form, as Amoretti has edited the manuscript almost beyond recognition in places, with the result that Pigafetta's words are twisted into new meanings. This manuscript, written in a mixture of Italian, the dialect of Vicenza, and some few Spanish words, is probably a copy of the one presented to the grand master of Rhodes, as it bears the following inscription on the inside of first cover-page: "Ce livre est du chevalier de Forette;" for it is scarcely likely that Villiers de l'Isle-Adam would give away his copy. It is written in a volume bound simply in heavy walnut-colored paper. Pages streaked and dog-eared at edges. Height, 273 mm.; width, 204 mm.; thickness, 28 mm. Written on ordinary rag paper on fol. 1-80. Following this (fol. 81-92), is "Alcune regole sull' arte della navigazione," or "Some rules on the art of navigation," also by Pigafetta. The remainder of the book (fol. 93-142) is blank. The text is written in a beautiful minute Roman letter, of 24, 25, and 26 lines to the page. For a more complete description of this manuscript, see Robertson's Magellan's voyage around the world (Cleveland, 1906), ii, pp. 241-248; and for a discussion of the bibliography of Pigafetta manuscripts and printed books (which is somewhat apart from the present subject), see ut supra, pp. 241-313. This may be the MS. cited by Leon Pinelo, Epitome, p. 88, who mentions an Italian MS.

RIQUEL, FERNANDO; and others:— Los Autos e Requerimientos que pasaron entre Miguel Lopez de Legaspi, Governador y Capitan en las Islas del Poniente por S. M. el Rey D. Felipe nuestro señor y Gonçalo Pereira Capitan de la Armada del Serenisimo Rey de Portugal, sobre que saliese de la isla de Cebu. 1568-1569. A. de S.; secretaría de estado; leg. 7412, fol. 87. Begins "Yo Fernando Riquel escribano . . ." Ends "fize mi signo en testimonio de verdad. Sancho Lopez de Agurto."; followed by attestation of Juan Ygnacio Cascos, who copied the document in Madrid, August 26, 1776 (see VOL. II, p. 329, note 115).

There is also a MS. in A. de I.; est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 2|24, which is cited by Retana, Archivo, v, p. 425. A long notarial document consisting of some 13 parts in all, and written in both Spanish and Portuguese, of the negotiations between Legazpi and Pereira, a Portuguese captain, in regard to Spanish occupation of the Philippines, against which the Portuguese protest, claiming them as lying within their jurisdiction. The earliest document is dated Cebu, Oct. 14, 1568, and the latest in the negotiations, June 2, 1569; and each part is duly attested by notary. Published in translation and synopsis in VOL. II, pp. 244-329 (see also pp. 334, 335).

Poseiones tomadas en nombre de S. M. de las yslas de Luban, Similara, Caluyan, Helin, Luzon, y Vindoro ó Luzon la menor. 1570. A. de I.; est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 2|24. Begins "En la isla q̄ . . ." Ends "asi por auto", with signatures.

In all there are nine different possessions taken, namely: Luzon, dated June 6, 1570, signed by Goiti and Riquel (the only one published in our series, VOL. III, pp. 105-107); Vindoro, dated March, and signed by Juan de Salzedo and Juan de Gamboa, the notary; Vindoro (sic), dated May 16, 1570, and signed by Goiti and Riquel; Cubuyan, dated Dec. 8, 1569, and signed by Antonio Carvajal, and Juan de Gamboa; Helin, dated March 24, 1570, and signed by Salzedo and Gamboa; Caluyan (dated Jan. 28, 1570); Poro (dated March 2, 1570); Similara (dated Feb. 8, 1570); and Luban (dated March 14, 1570); all signed as above. Cited in part by Retana, Archivo, v, pp. 426-428.

Las nuevas que scriven de las yslas del poniente Hernando Riquel y otros. January 11, 1574. A. de S.; secretaría de estado; leg. 155. Begins "Sienpre e ydo dando aviffo." Ends "por dos duplicados en diferentes naujios q^e nra fenor lleue enfaluo, de mex^o xj de henero 1574. a^os." Published (both Spanish and English) in VOL. III, pp. 230-249.

This document consists of two parts: 1. A letter written by Riquel and others, which was carried to Mexico in one of the ships leaving Manila, July 1, 1573, and arriving at Acapulco, November 15, 1573. 2. A postscript, added by the Mexican officials before they forwarded the letter to Spain in 1574, enumerates the cargo brought in the ships from the Philippines. An endorsement on the back of this document, dated May 7, 1854, attests that it was copied on that date by royal authorization for Adrian Garcia Hernandez, then general secretary of the superior government of the Philippines. The original covers about 5 1/3 pp. folio size, and the paper shows discoloration and ink-blots. In M. B. de U.; 711, 20—3^a, caja n^o. 22, is a document which is similar to the above, but which shows some slight differences. It is evidently the same letter that was written by Riquel, or a contemporary copy of the letter written to Mexico. It is entitled as follows: "Relacion de las nuevas q̄ escriue de las yslas de poniente Hernando de Riquel escriuano de la gobernacion dellos que partieron del puerto de manila en vno de dos nauios a pri^o de julio 1573." 1573. Begins "siempre he ydo . . ." Ends "artifices de españa". See VOL.

III, p. 231, notes 78, 79; p. 233, note 80; p. 243, note 83; and p. 316. This is bound with the Artieda MS. (q.v.), but the handwriting is different from that of that MS. In the Muñoz Collection, in R. A. de la H., no. 33-34, is another Riquel MS., which is evidently a partial transcript of the printed version of Riquel's relation (see Medina, Bibl. esp., p. 34, no. 7; and Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fil., p. 361, no. 2397). This is entitled: "Nuevas de las islas del Poniente que escribe . . . escr^{no}. de la gov^{or}. dellas a un su am^o. a Mex^o." Begins "Residimos en esta isla de Luzon, . . ." Ends "Dios los lleve en salvamente." In the catalogue of the Muñoz Collection is the following concerning this MS.: "One single sheet in the handwriting of Senor Muñoz, transcribed from a copy belonging to Conde del Aguila. It contains 'las nuevas de las Islas de Poniente que scribe Hernando Requel, escribano de la gobernacion de Manila á un amigo de Mejico.' To it are added some news from Italy and Africa, and the epitaph of King Don Fernando, which was printed in Sevilla in the year 1574." At the end of the letter, Muñoz has written, "Transcript made from another modern transcript of the Conde del Aguila contained in a folio legajo entitled 'Felipe 2^o.' This must have been taken from the printed copy, defective in part as the 'outs' marked by the periods indicate. Sevilla, March 23, 1785. Muñoz." The printed relation is also described by Gallardo, Ensayo, no. 3630.

by Riquel. A notary, Sancho Lopez de Agurto, attests the preceding, which was drawn up by Riquel, under date of Mexico, January 18, 1570. On the same day a similar attestation is made by the notary Joan Augustin.

ARTIEDA, DIEGO DE:—Relacion De las Islas del poniente a q̄ llaman filipinas. [1573 ?] M. B. de U.; 711, 20—3^a; caja n^o. 22. Begins "Hay en la nueva espana . . ." Ends "Informare de palabra mand[and]omelo". VOL. III, pp. 190-208.

This MS. is written on small size folio paper, and occupies 4 2/3 pp. of very closely written matter. The MS. is in a good state of preservation, being only slightly worn at the edges. Fastened to it is another leaf containing the relation of Hernando Riquel, q.v., ante, although the paper on which it is written is of a different texture. The Artieda MS. contains a number of sidenotes opposite the various paragraphs. It is listed on p. 14 of the Catálogo (Madrid, 1900) of the library. In the Archivo General de las Indias is a MS., purporting to be, merely through the endorsement by some archivist, by Juan de la Isla; but which is the MS. of Artieda (with some minor changes, q.v., ut supra, pp. 190-208, 316). The pressmark of this MS. is est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 123. It bears as title: "Relacion de las islas del Poniente y del camino que a ellas se hizo desde la nueva spña." Begins "Ay en la nueva spña . . ." Ends "de palabra mandandomelo V. mag." It bears neither date nor signature. See ut supra, p. 190, note 54. Another copy is cited by Ochoa, Catálogo razonado, as existing in the old Bibliothèque royale; 1588 (Saint-Germain); 240; papeles varios. This has 2 leaves missing at the end. In the catalogue of the present Bibliothèque Nationale, Paris, the pressmark is given as "Manuscrits espagnols et portugais; esp. 325; no. 3, fol. 10-13;" but the date is wrongly given as 1582, which date does in fact appear on the document. This MS. is mistakenly ascribed to Juan de la Isla by Fernandez de Navarrete, Bibl. mar. esp., ii, p. 239, under the following title: "Descripcion de los puertos de Acapulco y Navidad, y de las islas que descubrió la armada del general Legazpi; sus alturas y distancias; costumbres de los indigenas; la navegacion que hizo; islas del Maluco, Japon y Lequios, con noticia de la China y Nueva-Guinea."

—:— [Augustinian memoranda.] [Manila, 1573 ?] A. de I.; est. 68, caj. 1, leg. 42. Begins "Lo qual padre Fray Diego . . ." Ends "que contratan con ellos." VOL. xxxiv, pp. 273-285.

In three parts. I. Memoria de los religiosos de las Yslas del Poniente de cosas quel padre Fray Diego de Herrera [i.e., Herrera] a de tratar con Su mag^d. o de su Real Consejo de yndias. II. Lo que se a de demandar A su Mag^d. III. Memoria de las Cosas ó aprovechamientos q^e ay en la Tierra. Evidently a joint compilation by all the Augustinians in Manila.

YSLA, JOAN DE LA:— Carta del Capitan . . . esponiendo sus servicios en el descubrimiento de Filipinas. [Manila, ca., 1574 ?] A. de I.; est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 2|24, ramo 4. Begins "C. R. M^d. El capⁿ Juan de la ysla . . ." Ends "de servir a V. mag^d," with signature.

On the MS. is written the comment of the Council.

PACHECO MALDONADO, JUAN:— Carta a S. M. sobre la poblacion de la Ysla de Luzon. [Manila, 1575 ?] A. de I.; est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 2|24. Begins "C. R. M^d. En el año de setenta . . ." Ends "que v. mág les haga." with signature. VOL. III, pp. 295-303.

Retana cites this MS., which he gives almost in full, in his Archivo, v, pp. 448-456; but he suggests its date as 1572. This MS. (or the MS. noted, post, p. 251), seems to be the one cited by Fernandez de Navarrete, Bibl. mar. esp., ii, p. 284, the pressmark of which is the same as the above, and a transcript of which is in Madrid; Deposito hidrográfico.

SANDE, FRANCISCO DE; and others:— Mandamiento para que los oficiales reales no puedan tener encomiendas. Manila, May 26, 1576. A. de I.; est. 67, caj. 6, leg. 29.

This MS. consists of various parts, as follows: I. [Sande's first statement.] Begins "En la ciudad de manila . . ." Ends "para enbiar a su mág.," with signatures of Sande and the notary "fernando Riquel." It is accompanied by three notarial minutes of its notification to the royal officials, all of the above date. VOL. III, pp. 304-306. II. [Sande's second statement.] Begins "En la ciudad de manila . . ." Ends "ynviar a su mág y firmolo," with signatures of Sande and Riquel. It is followed by minute of its notification to the royal officials, and their depositions taken in consequence thereof; and lastly by Riquel's attestation of the validity and accuracy of his copy. Ut supra, pp. 307-311.

Testimonio de las jornadas de Borney Jolo y Mindanao hechas por mandado del doctor . . . Gobernador de Filipinas en 1578 y 79. April 9, 1578 - June 10, 1579. A. de I.; est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 2|24, R^o. 48. Begins "En la galera . . ." Ends "en testimonio de verdad (rubric) Al^o beltran escribano de su mag. (rubric)". VOL. IV, pp. 148-303.

This is a long notarial document containing an account of the progress of Sande's Bornean expedition, told by means of depositions, letters, instructions, etc., all of which are attested properly by notaries. The above title was evidently made by a clerk or archivist. The MS. seems to have been compiled as a report to the home government. Cited by Retana, Bibl. Mind., p. 17; and Fernandez de Navarrete, Bibl. mar. esp., i, p. 500.

SANDE, FRANCISCO DE:—[Letter to Felipe II.] Manila, June 2, 1576. A. de I.; est. 67, caj. 6, leg. 6. Begins "C. R. M^d. Aunque en la nueva españa . . ." Ends "soy aqui breve", with closing, date, and signature. VOL. III, pp. 312-314.

Ends "todos los que aca le estamos sirviendo.", with closing, date, and signature. VOL. IV, pp. 21-97 (see especially pp. 94-97).

This MS. was published by W. E. Retana, in his Archivo (Madrid, 1895-1905), ii, pp. 1-75, under the title Carta-relación de Filipinas. He has not followed throughout the peculiarities of the MS.

IV, pp. 98-118 (note matter in brackets on p. 98).

Unsigned, but internal evidence proves Sande to be the author.

LOARCA, MIGUEL DE:—[Letter to Viceroy Martin Enriquez.] Manila,

LOARCA; continued—

June 15, 1580. A. de I.; est. 67, caj. 6, leg. 34. Begins “Muy excelente señor = Siempre que me he fallado . . .” Ends “no me hace de alla merçed mandandolo”, with closing, date, and signature. VOL. xxxiv, pp. 313-315.

Relacion de las Yslas Filipinas. [Arevalo, June, 1582.] A. de I.; est. 1, caj. 1, leg. 1|23. Begins “Tratado de las yslas Philipinas en q̄ . . .” Ends “entre las parentelas donde suçedia, lo proprio era entre los timaguas”; followed by an endorsement, probably by Governor Gonzalo Ronquillo de Peñalosa, certifying that the relation was written by Loarca, and may be considered as true. Published (both Spanish and English) in VOL. v, pp. 34-187.

This document was formerly housed in the archives at Simancas, where it bore, according to Juan Bautista Muñoz, pressmark “Indias, leg. 3 de los int. Descripciones i Poblaciones.” Copied by the latter, his final revision being completed August 10, 1782; and now among the Muñoz papers at R. A. de la H., Madrid, where it bears the following title in the catalogue: “Tratado de las Islas Filipinas con todas las poblaciones reducidas á la obediencia del Rey en 1580, los pueblos españoles, manera de gobierno de estos y de Indios por Miguel de Loarca; copiose en Simancas en cinco cuadernos.” Of it Muñoz says: “It is a very fine relation, for one can with difficulty find another of that time so complete. [It merits] peculiar credit in whatever touches upon religion, opinions, ceremonies, manners, and customs of the natives, which it appears that the author investigated with great care from the beginning of our settlements in those islands. On simple paper, but in the letter of the time in which it was written. . . . Written on 14 sheets. . . . It was written in the year 1580, that is, 16 years after the settlement of the Spaniards in Filipinas, during the governorship of Don Gonzalo Ronquillo, as appears from the introduction and from the third chapter sub. med.” A transcript from Muñoz’s copy, or a duplicate of it, exists in the Lenox branch of the New York Public Library, but like the Muñoz MS. it differs in some essentials from the real original, namely in spelling, capitalization, and punctuation. Beginning with chapter vi, Muñoz’s transcript was published in Delgado’s Historia (Manila, 1892) as an appendix to part i, book iii, pp. 371-392, by the editor of that book. Ternaux-Compans, Archives des voyages (Paris, 1840), i, pp. 1-50, gives a loose and inadequate translation of the manuscript. The “De las Costumbres de los Indios Bisayas, i otros de Filipinas”, cited by Barcia, ii, col. 638, appears to be Loarca’s Relation. Blumentritt, Vocab. einz. Ausd., p. 49, cites this relation from Folletines del Diario de Manila, 1877; but whether it was reproduced by that paper or merely cited therein, we are unable to state.

JESUS, PABLO DE, O. S. F.:—Relatio peregrinationis Fr. Pauli Iesus Congr. discalcear ad Insulas Philippinas. Manila, 14 Kalends of July [June 18], 1580. A. del V.; Principi 32; p. 174. [Memorial to the Council.] Manila, [July 26], 1586. VOL. VI, pp. 157-233.

There are three MSS. known to be in existence, all of which differ somewhat from one another. We have used mainly what appears to be the real original, existing in the Archives of the Indies. Of the other two, one is in the R. A. de la H., and the other is evidently a copy therefrom by Ventura del Arco (see post). Below are the necessary details regarding these three MSS., which we designate as A, B, and C, respectively. A. [Memorial to the Council.] A. de I.; est. 68, caj. 7, leg. 35. B. Memorial general de todos los estados de las ysas filipinas sobre las cosas de ellas para su mag^d. Manila, [July 26], 1586. R. A. de la H.; papeles de los Jesuitas; tomo 8, fol. 330-339. C. FELIPE III; and FELIPE IV:—[Decrees treating of the Indies.] 1607-1647. A. de I.; est. 69, caj. 1, leg. 30.

These decrees all treat of mission affairs and ecclesiastical supervision of the regulars by the bishops, which was a bone of contention in all the Spanish Indies. The first four concern Nueva España, and are dated June 5, 1607, Dec. 13, 1620, Apr. 30, 1622, and June 22, 1624, the first two being sent to the viceroy, the third to the bishop of the province of Guajaca, and the fourth to the viceroy, archbishop, and bishops. These were probably used in the consideration of the question in the Philippines. The last three decrees have to do with the Philippines directly. The first two, dated Sept. 2, and Oct. 2, 1638, were published from MSS. from A. H. N. (q. v., vol. xxix, pp. 104-107; see also post, p. 207). Begins "Muy Señor mio: aunque estan poderoso . . ." Ends "muchos años de mi deseo.", with date and signature. VOL. XL, pp. 183-279.

The letter itself is followed by certain facetious questions and answers concerning the Filipino, which are ascribed to Pedro Murillo Velarde, S. J. W. E. Retana says (Estadismo, ii, p. 281*) that Murillo Velarde was a genial author, but very keen and observant withal. "He was very anti-Indian, a name applied to those who do not flatter them; and it is known that in a quarter of an hour of good humor, he wrote the pages which I transcribe" (here follow the questions and answers). Retana notes that Murillo Velarde and Delgado did not have the same opinion in the matter. This is a famous letter, and many copies of it exist. See ut supra, pp. 183, 184, and the footnotes for the entire letter. The MS. described above is written on good rag paper of about octavo size, and occupies fol. 1-31 recto. The questions and answers of Murillo Velarde occupy fol. 31 recto-32 verso. There is one blank leaf in front, and three at the end. The MS. has been carefully made, and all quotations are in red ink. On the cover, it bears the number 16. It is not the original MS., but a copy (probably made almost contemporaneously with the original). We give the variants in the MS. in M. B. de U., and that presented by Delgado, together with comments of the latter and of Mas. In ethnological appendix. Cited by Blumentritt, Vocab. einz. Ausd., p. 130.

Purchased by Mr. Ayer from Vindel in 1903 for 150 pesetas (although priced by Vindel at 200 pesetas). It is listed in Vindel's Catálogo (Madrid, 1903), iii, p. 211, no. 2699. He says of it: "Original and unpublished MS. composed of 32 pages; written in a very vigorous hand; also written on the margins of [several of] the last pages. An interesting document in which one may study the corrupt administration to be observed during that epoch."

Fol. 207 (this is the table of contents to the MS.)”. VOL. XLVII, pp. 86-160.

This MS. consists of two parts: the first is the relation proper by Valdes Tamon; the second part is the ecclesiastical survey and was written by Pablo Francisco Rodriguez de Berdozido, royal accountant at Manila, in 1742. In “Motivo de Esta obra,” which precedes the work, a letter from Don Joseph Patiño, royal secretary, dated Sept. 20, 1735, states that the king desired news of the islands, and of their fortifications, as the recent fire at the palace in Madrid had destroyed many papers. He asked for plans, and reports on fortifications, troops, munitions, and artillery. The ecclesiastical portion of the work was written in obedience to a letter, dated Madrid, Aug. 30, 1739, from the royal secretary. The book is a beautiful specimen of workmanship. It is folio size and bound in boards. For better protection, the entire book, with its binding, has been enclosed in two thick wooden covers. The paper is thick and heavy, and somewhat worm-eaten. Some of the maps are in colors. Another copy of this MS. exists in the Sevilla archives. A short extract from a copy of this MS., probably existing in Manila, is published in vol. iii, of the annual Report of the War Department (Washington, 1903), pp. 437, 438, note a.

Small folio in 22 leaves (unnumbered, first title-page, with green border, last blank). Undated, but on the title-page has been written in a hand different from the MS. “about 1760;" however, on fol. 15 verso, lines 4, 5, is seen "Julio De este presente año De mil settes^{tos}, cinqu^{ta}, y nuebe", which sufficiently dates the MS. as 1759. Described by Vin- del (Catálogo, i, no. 1, 404), who says of it "Unpublished MS., a work absolutely unknown", and prices it at 80 pesetas. It was purchased by Mr. Ayer from the C. G. de T. de F., by whom it was priced at 65 francs. Its author was an Englishman who had become a naturalized Spaniard, and whose naturalization papers exist in A. de I.

This MS., which was purchased from the Madrid bookseller, P. Vindel, by Mr. Ayer in 1904 is bound in a modern binding embossed on the back, “Ingleses en Filipinas”. It has a modern title-page (q.v., above), and, in addition, a modern index at the end, which contains, however, numerous errors. The MS. itself consists of 57 folios, numbered in ink by the person who transcribed the various documents from the originals in 1765. In addition each page is also numbered in pencil (114 in all). The MS. is in excellent condition, and is worn through in but few places, due to the old-fashioned method of blotting, which has disintegrated the paper in several instances. The titles of the various documents as given above have been taken partly from the index, partly from the documents themselves, and in part made up.

Begins "My Lord It affords me the most sensible pleasure . . ." Ends "Your Lordship's most obliged & most humble Serv^t", with signature and date. VOL. XLIX, pp. 60-64.

DRAPER, GENERAL WILLIAM:—Letter to the Earl of Egremont. Manila, November 1, 1762. B. M.; East India military letters; add. 5939; fol. 80 verso-82 verso. Begins "Manila Nov^r. 1st. 1762 My Lord I do myself the Honour . . ." Ends "as objects of Compassion", with closing and signature. VOL. XLIX, pp. 65-70. (See also ante, p. 128.)

[DALRYMPLE, ALEXANDER]:—Plan for the conquest of the Philippine Islands. 1762. B. M.; jure emptionis; add. 19,298; Plut. CLII. E. Begins "Before we consider this Subject . . ." Ends "to require the Zebu Rout." VOL. XLIX, pp. 27-43.

Although the authorship of this document is not indicated on the document itself, an entry in the catalogue of the museum ascribes it to Dalrymple; if the date "Nov. 23, 1762," is the date when it was written, it was thus written after the conquest of Manila by Draper and Cornish; and must have been written in England, or where the writer had not learned of the success of the British arms. In the absence of this direct catalogue entry, we had suggested Draper as its author (see ut supra, p. 43, note). There was a Spanish translation of this document in Ministerio de Ultramar, Madrid (cited by Moya y Jimenez, p. 240). Blumentritt, Vocabular einzelner Ausdrücke, p. 129, confuses the author of this MS. with Admiral Sir Hyde Parker.

CROMMELIN, CHARLES; and others:—[Official communications regarding capture of Manila.] January 21-February 2, 1763. B. M.; East India military letters; add. 5939; Plut. CXXIV. A.; fol. 15-16 verso, 23, 33 verso-34, 45. VOL. XLIX, pp. 65-68, note 27.

ROXO del Río y VEYRA, MANUEL ANTONIO (archbishop):—Relacion de las operaciones del Arzobispo de Manila Governador y Capitan Grãl de las Philipinas del tiempo del sitio, ò asedio de los Ingleses à la Capital de Manila, de su toma por afsalto; y de las q^e. subsiguieron à este desgraciado sucesso: para defenza de su fama, y Nombre, ajados, y atropellados de la emulacion por sus calumnias, injurias, y contumelias de palabra, y por escrito en Cartas, y Libelos famosos. [Manila, 1763.] Ayer Collection. Begins "1. No pienso otra defenza contra la calum-nia, . . .” Ends “docum^{tos}. precisos y de mui poco bulto.” VOL. XLIX, pp. 104-131 (in synopsis and translation).

This MS. was purchased by Mr. Ayer from the Madrid bookseller, P. Vindel, in 1903, for the sum of 225 pesetas (although Vindel asked 300 pesetas for it; see no. 2693 in his Catálogo, iii, Madrid, 1903, p. 208). Of it Vindel says: “A document of high historical interest. In it are related with the greatest veracity all the events of the capture of Manila by the British forces. In part, the conduct of its author, the most illustrious Señor Don Manuel Antonio Roxo del Río y Veyra, is vindicated.” The MS. is bound in modern leather covers, embossed on the back “Razo [sic] Operaciones en Manila. MS. 1763”. The MS. itself is badly stained and is worn in many places; and has been mended at some time. It consists of 52 folios, which are numbered in pencil. It is either the real original of the relation or a copy made shortly after it was written. Cited by Fernández Duro, Armada esp., vii, p. 94, from the MS. belonging to Justo Zaragoza, which was examined by Manuel Danvila, ii, p. 206.

VELA, BALTASAR, S. J.:—[Letter to Antonio Gonzalez, S. J.] Manila, July 24, 1764. A. de S.; secretaría de gracia y justicia; leg. 691, fol. 237. Begins “Mi Hermano Antonio Gonzalez. Llegó la carta . . .” Ends “no es como antes.”, with date and signature. VOL. XLIX, pp. 288-295.

 translation and synopsis).

The relation proper is preceded by a letter signed by Francisco Xavier de la Torre, governor and president of the Audiencia (see ut supra, pp. 197, 198, note 115—in part), dated March 20, 1765. Begins “Representacion fecha àl superior Gobierno de Manila: y sirva de Proemio. El Fiscal de S. M. . . M. Y. S. The MS. is described in Vindel’s Catálogo for 1896, no. 1446 (not 9 as numbered in Vindel’s sales label in the back of the MS.). That catalogue says of it: “A valuable unpublished MS., finely written, . . . and signed by the author.” It is a small folio consisting of 87 unnumbered leaves (of which the first two are blank, the third, title-page, 4-9, the letter by Torre, 10-86, text proper, and 87, blank); and is bound in vari-colored silk (not green velvet, as stated by the catalogue); ornamented gilt edges. It cannot be stated with certainty whether this is an autograph copy by Viana, or whether it was made in Manila, or in Madrid. It formerly belonged to the collection of W. E. Retana, and was purchased by Mr. Ayer from Vindel, who priced it at 350 pesetas. Several other copies of this MS. are in existence, two being found in the A. de I. at Sevilla, and one (pp. unnumbered) belonging to Antonio Graño, Madrid. It is mentioned by Montero y Vidal (Historia general de Filipinas, ii, pp. 118, 119), who gives a table of its contents; and Retana, Estadismo, ii, pp. 343*-344. This is a most important MS. [notwithstanding that Retana (La Política de España, i, p. 273) says that it contains nothing extraordinary], for it describes economic conditions in the Orient exactly as they existed at the time of its writing; and its author was an educated and fearless man.

Small folio in 29 leaves (the first and the last three blank). Described in Vindel's Catálogo (Madrid, 1896), i, no. 1447, who says of it, "Original unpublished MS., in magnificent letter," and prices it at 150 pesetas; and cited by Retana (who formerly owned it), Estadismo, ii, p. *344; and La Política de España, i, p. 273. It was acquired by Mr. Ayer from the C. G. de T. de F., who priced it at 120 francs. A most valuable economic document by a far-seeing man with a grasp on public affairs.

Retana, from whom it was probably purchased by P. Vindel, from whom it was purchased in 1904 by Mr. Ayer. The MS. is bound in green velvet, and is a small folio of 1 unnumbered leaf, which serves as title-page; 50 numbered leaves, of which the first 46 are text, and the remainder blank; and 1 unnumbered leaf which contains the index made in the same hand as the rest of the book. It is impossible to state whether this letter-book was written by Viana himself in order that he might preserve a copy of the letters that he wrote. Most of the documents are accompanied by a short synopsis that may have been made by a government clerk; although it is also possible that it may have been made by Viana.

A note on the flyleaf of this MS. written by Vicente Barrantes, in whose library this MS. formerly rested, is as follows: “The author of this remarkable memorial was Don Manuel Bernaldez Pizarro, government assessor and auditor of war and navy. He went to the islands in 1809, since he declares that he had resided there for 17 years, when he wrote this in the first months of 1827.” It is a valuable MS., and treats of all the manifold elements entering into the administration of the Philippines—military; Moros; native population; lands; ecclesiastical matters; foreigners, exiles, and politicians in the islands; Spaniards from Europe in the islands; residencias; employes; aid sent to the islands; revenue matters; industrial affairs; judicial; etc. Small folio of 87 leaves in all (1 flyleaf, with note by Barrantes on verso; 1 leaf, title-page; 1 unnumbered leaf, with contents; 80 numbered leaves, text; 3 blank flyleaves); bound in half leather, worn. Begins “Excñio Señor Dedicada incesantemente . . .” Ends “no caben en calculo?”; with closing, date, and address. II. MANUSCRIPTS IN ADDITION TO THOSE OF "THE PHILIPPINE ISLANDS, 1493-1898"

CÁRLOS I.; and others:— [Documents and notes on Magallanes and Fa-leiro, and the expedition.] Lenox; Spanish-American collection; in Documentos del Torre do Tombo, Simancas, etc., MS. 1518-1525.

This contains a synopsis of the instructions for the expedition, the crews of the vessels, etc.; and some matter on Loaisa's expedition. Some of this matter is found in Fernandez de Navarrete's Coleccion de viajes.

—:— Viagem de Fernã de Magalhaens pera Maluco a anno de 1519, trasladada de hum Caderno de hum piloto genoes. Paris; B. N. Begins "Partio de Sebylha a . . ."

Formerly in the Bibliothèque du Roi, where its pressmark was 7168^{3.3}; fol. 57-64. Paris says of this MS.: "This relation by a Genoese pilot who accompanied the famous Magellan has no need of being recommended to the interest of geographers. Unfortunately it is too short, and the writing is very poor." This MS. is written in excellent Portuguese, and general consensus of opinion is inclined to impute its authorship to a Portuguese, inasmuch as Magalhães had no Genoese pilot with him. This account is reproduced in English by Stanley (First voyage round the world by Magellan, pp. 1-29). It is cited often in Mosto's Pigafetta, and in Robertson's Magellan's voyage around the world, and the notes to vols. xxxiii and xxxiv of this series. This is perhaps the document cited by Barcia (1737, 1738), ii, col. 669, namely, "Viage de Fernando Magallanes," a Portuguese MS. then conserved in the library of Leida.

—:— Viages al Estrecho de Magallanes. 1519-1699. B. M.; add. 17,621.

A collection of copies made by Navarrete, some of which are published in his Coleccion. Folio volume of 178 fol.

—:— Relaciones de Viages. [16th Century.] B. M.; add. 9944.

A folio volume of 306 fol. It contains matter concerning the voyages of Magalhães and Lopez de Villalobos, the relation of Estevan Rodriguez, the log of Rodrigo de Espinosa and his relation, the relation of Alonso de Arellano, and others. This is a late copy merely.

—:— [Cost of Magallanes's fleet.] Ca., 1519. A. de I.; papeles del Maluco; leg. 1; de 1519 á 1547.

TRANSILVANUS, MAXIMILIANUS:— A Spanish translation of the printed Latin text, which has the following title: "Relacion de como, y por quien, y en que tiempo fueron descub^{tas}. y halladas las islas Molucas, donde es el propio nacimiento de la especeria, las cuales cabren en la conquista y marcacion de la corona Real de España. Dividese esta relacion en veinte parrafos principales." Lenox; Spanish-American collection, no. 3.

Probably transcript from or duplicate of translation in Muñoz collection at R. A. de la H. Printed in Navarrete's Collection, iv, pp. 249-284. 10 leaves. F^o.

—:—Relacion de lo q^e. ha subcedido en el negocio del Especeria, desp^s. de la otra relacion que se embio à V. M. Badajoz, April 25, 1524. A. de S.; patronato real; Indias; leg. 8.

Transcript in Lenox, doc. 8, of Spanish-American collection. 10 leaves. F^o. Concern discussion of ownership of Maluco and junta of Badajoz. Begins "Lo 1^o. q^e. se concerto, . . ." Ends "A la verdad no tuvieron culpa . . ."; with date and closing, but signatures of judges of possession not given. Report of Spanish deputies. Full of technical legal expressions.

PIGAPHETE, ANTHOYNE:— Navigation et descouvrement de la Inde superieure et isles de Malucque ou naissent les cloux de girofle faicte par Anthoine Pigaphete Vincentin Chevallier de Rhodes commenceant en lan mil v^{cc} et xix. [15—] Library of Sir Thomas Phillipps of Cheltenham, England; pressmark, "MS. Phillipps, 16405;" owned at present by heirs of above. Begins "Anthoyne Pigaphete Patricie Vincentin . . ." Ends "tres digne grand maistre de Rhodes. Fin." See Robertson, Magellan's voyage around the world (Cleveland, 1906), ii, pp. 260-264.

First mentioned in 1841 by Thomassy, who found it in the library of Mons. Beaupré judge of the court of first instance at Nancy, France (on account of which it is known as the Nancy MS.); and who described it and gave various passages from it (Bulletin de la Soc. géog., Paris, Sept. 1843). The catalogue of the Libri sale (July, 1862, p. 92, no. 456) says: "This MS. belonged to the secretary of the Cardinal of Lorraine, and . . . was in the convent of St. Léopold at Nancy. There is every reason to suppose that this is the manuscript copy of the relation of his voyage which Pigafetta had addressed to the Duke of Lorraine, as Vespucci (at the beginning of the same century) addressed his letters on America to another Duke of Lorraine" (see also HARRISSE, Bibl. Amer. vetus., Add., Paris, 1872, p. xxxii). From the library of Mons. Beaupré, the manuscript passed into the possession of the Paris bookseller Potier, by whom it was sold in 1855 into the Solar collection (according to Mosto, p. 41; HARRISSE says, ut supra, p. xxxiii, that it was sold at Potier's sale in March, 1851, where it was no. 506). At the demise of Mons. Felix Solar in 1861, it came into the possession of a London bookseller, who paid 1,650 francs for it (Stanley's First voyage round the world, p. li). The Venetian canon Pietro Marasca tried to acquire the manuscript for the library of his city, first at Nancy, and then at Paris, but in vain, and after it was taken to London lost all trace of it (see Morsolin's Elogio di Antonio Pigafetta—cited by Mosto). It appears next at London in the Libri sale (July, 1862), where it was bid in by Sir Thomas Phillipps of Cheltenham, England, for £135. It has been partially described by Thomassy (Bulletin de la Société de Géographie, vol. xx, 1843, pp. 165-183), and by the Solar and Libri catalogues, which sources HARRISSE and Mosto follow; but we are indebted for the most complete description of this document yet furnished to the courtesy of Mr. T. FitzRoy Fenwick, grandson of Sir Thomas Phillipps (who died in 1872). Small folio, finely bound in red morocco, tooled and gilt (Divin binding). Written on fine white vellum in a beautiful French hand of the sixteenth century, and the volume as a whole is in an excellent state of preservation. There are 99 leaves with writing, 11 x 7 1/2 in. In addition, at the beginning are one paper flyleaf and two blank vellum leaves, and at the end two blank vellum leaves and one paper flyleaf. The text occupies folios 3 recto-98 verso, and is divided into 57 numbered chapters, the titles of which are written in red or blue. The initial letters are handsomely illuminated in gold and colors, and there are twenty-three richly-executed charts (most of them full page). There are three vocabularies. It is nearer the Italian MS. in the few passages that we have been able to collate with the Ambrosian MS. than are the other two French MSS. Thomassy dates it later than both the latter, but in the same general epoch as MS. 24224, which it resembles in chirography; and regards it as a revision of Pigafetta's first MS. which he mistakenly supposes to be 5650. It is by far the best of the French MSS. (dating probably from the second quarter of the 16th century), and is apparently the oldest of them; and may, indeed, have been translated directly from the Italian MS., though no positive statement can be made until a thorough collation of the Ambrosian MS. and the Nancy is made.

Naugiation et descouurement de la jndie superieufe faite par moy anthoyne Pigaphete vincentin cheuallier de rhodes. [15—] Paris; B. N.; 5650. Begins "Anthoine Pigaphete . . . fon feigneur offeruatiffime: — Pource quil y a plufiers gentz . . ." Ends "tres digne grand maiftre de rhodes. Le cheuallier Anthoyne Pigaphete." See VOLS. xxxiii, notes, pp. 273-366, and xxxiv, notes, pp. 153-180; and Robertson's Magellan's voyage around the world, ii, pp. 248-253, and 257-260.

Its old pressmark in the royal library was 10270 B; it being sent to that library in 1694 by Abbe Bizot. It is an adaptation and translation of the Italian MS. (q.v., ante, p. 144). Bound in red morocco; embossed on back, "A. PIGAPHETE | — | NAVIGATION | DANS | L'INDE. | — | 5650 |." Height 303 mm.; width, 203 mm. Written on paper, consisting of 114 folios, in Gothic letters, in two hands, the second comprising fol. 72 recto-92 recto (but it must have been written by the same person as the rest of the MS., only appearing more hurried and less careful). Each full page has twenty-nine red-ruled lines, and twenty-eight lines of writing. Paragraphs are separated by a black line, and start with a hanging indentation. Initial letters are in both red and blue ink, as are also paragraph marks "¶" which occur scattered throughout the text. Titles to charts (of which there are 23) and other headings are in red ink. Unnumbered chapter headings distinguished by no other title than "Chapitre," occur at intervals. The relation of the voyage comprises fol. 1-96 recto. Following (fol. 96 verso-114) is the treatise on the globe (fol. 96 verso containing the figure of the sphere). This is the older of the two MSS. conserved at Paris; and dates probably from near the middle of the 16th century. It has never been published in full, although Stanley translates it in part in his First voyage round the world (London, 1874)—see Robertson, ut supra, ii, p. 301. See full treatment of bibliography of Pigafetta MSS. and printed books, in Robertson, ut supra, ii, pp. 241-313. This may be the Pigafetta MS. cited by Gonzalez Barcia.

Naugiation et discouement [sic in original, an "r" having been added above the "u" by a later hand in black ink] de la Indie superieure faite par moy Anthoine Pigaphete Vincentin cheualier de Rhodes. [15—] Paris; B. N.; 24224. Begins "Anthoine Pigaphete Patricie Vincentin . . ." Ends "Fin:— Le cheuallier Anthoyne Pigaphette." See VOLS. xxxiii, notes, pp. 273-366, and xxxiv, notes, pp. 153-180; and Robertson, ut supra, ii, pp. 254-260.

Its old pressmark in the Bibliothèque Nationale was Fonds La Vallière, no. 68. Bound in green morocco; embossed on back: "NAVIGAT | EN LINDE | DE PIGAPHE |"; edges gilt. Height, 275 mm.; width, 185 mm. Written on fine parchment, consisting of 103 folios (although it shows 104 due to misnumbering). Each page has twenty-nine lines of writing, which is most painstaking, and more easily legible than that of 5650. The initial letters are beautifully illuminated, and the charts (twenty-three in number) are beautifully executed (the inscriptions thereof being in red ink). Certain headings occur throughout the MS. An incomplete copy of 5650, certain somewhat broad passages having been smoothed down. The relation of the voyage occupies fol. 1-86 verso. The treatise on the globe comprises fol. 87-104 (figure of globe lacking). See Robertson, ut supra; and VOLS. xxxiii and xxxiv of this series. This MS. is described by Guillaume de Bure, Catalogue des livres de la bibliothèque de feu M. le duc de la Valliere (Paris, 1783); iii, pp. 35, 36; but the conclusions are entirely wrong. It has never been published.

An interesting letter, in which the affairs of the young colony are discussed. Like various other officials, Lavezaris complains bitterly of Sande, whose Bornean campaign he condemns as useless and costly, both in life and treasure. The death of Andres de Mirandaola is recorded, and the frightful mortality of the soldiers. The governor engages in trade, although it is against the law. Certain encomiendas have been restored to Lavezaris by the king, of which he had been deprived by Sande. On the MS. is written the comment of the Council. Following this letter is the petition presented by Lavezaris

July 17, 1578, asking for restitution of his encomiendas in accordance with the decree issued to that effect by Felipe II, April 29, 1577 (which is given). In accordance with the orders of the decree, Sande restores the encomiendas. This document is drawn up by Alonso Beltran, notary and government secretary. Records dated July 21, 24, and 28, all drawn up by Beltran, relate to the above encomiendas.

One of the chapters of this relation is: "De como se fue sobre limahon y de la uenida del cap^{an}. omonco." These letters are probably the ones cited by Ochoa, Catálogo razonado, p. 577, who gives their pressmark as Bibliothèque royale; 1588 (Saint-Germain); 240; papeles varios. Rada's writings are cited by Gonzalez de Mendoza in his Historia.

AGUIRRE, ANDRES DE, O. S. A.:—Carta del Provincial [de los Agustinos] á un Religioso de la compañía. [Manila, 1582 ?] A. de I.; est. 68, caj. 1, leg. 42. Begins “Muy Reverendo Padre. Dominus Tecum . . .” Ends “menor hijo de V. R.”, with signature.

This short letter was addressed to the Jesuit rector, who must have been Antonio Sedeño, who had come to the islands in 1581 with Salazar, the first bishop. It must have been written in 1582, as Aguirre mentions that the Augustinians have been eighteen years in the islands. The letter concerns the status of the Augustinians in their mission and religious work. It is a copy only of the original, and was made by Salvador de Argon, notary and apostolic secretary.

[Memorial addressed to Felipe II.] [Madrid, ca., 1583 ?] A. de I.; est. 68, caj. 1, leg. 42. Begins “S. C. R. M. fray andres de aguirre provincial . . .” Ends “en que rrecibirá mucha merced y limosna.”

Evidently only a copy of the original, as it bears no signature, or date. The date can be fixed at about 1583, as Aguirre says that he had first gone to the Philippines nineteen years earlier with Legazpi, and that he had now returned to Spain in the interests of his brethren. He makes various requests of Felipe for the bettering of the condition of the Augustinians and the people in general, and represents the poverty of the country.

J., Sarriá, Barcelona.

On the title-page is also the following: "He wrote this history in 1610, as appears in certain chapters, especially in book i, chapter 6, folio 26, where he treats of Archbishop Don Diego Vasquez de Mercado." The date of the transcript noted below is 1618. This MS. is mentioned by Colin in his Labor evangelica (pp. 2, 3), in his remarks in "Al religioso lector." He there mentions both Chirino's published Historia, and an unpublished MS.,

of both of which he makes use in his work. The MS. is written by several native amanuenses as is shown by the various hands. It is on rice paper, and has been holed and eaten by the destructive white ant. The MS. is bound in carabao hide. It contains five books as follows: the first, with 32 chapters; the second, with 27; the third, with 33; the fourth, with 36; the fifth, with 55. A paragraph, written by Juan de Bueras, S. J., and provincial of Filipinas, 1627-1636, translates as follows: "For the good memory of Father Pedro Chirino, who labored so effectively in this province, I order that this book which he left, be conserved in the library of this college of Manila, where those who desire of its good studies may aid themselves. Manila, January 25, 1636." This paragraph, together with the above title-page, indicates that this copy was made at the instance of Juan de Bueras. Considerable use of this MS. was made by its present owner, in his edition of Colin's Labor evangélica (Barcelona, 1904). There are partial transcripts in R. A. de la H. (Muñoz Collection); and in the Lenox branch of the New York Public Library. The second, which we describe, appears to be a duplicate or a transcript of the partial transcript made by Muñoz from Chirino's MS. about 1800, which transcript rests in the R. A. de la H. in Madrid. Of it, Muñoz says: "To this point, the index of this work, which must consist of two volumes, one of which is owned by Don Manuel de Ayora, which includes the first three books. It is written on quarto paper from China. The copy is corrected by the author himself, and signed at the end. Under this is a note in his handwriting 'Revised and corrected by the author himself in Manila, April, 1618. Pedro Chirino.' There are about 700 leaves in an excellent and clear cursive letter. It proceeded from one of the Jesuit houses in Sevilla, where Ayora bought it, as he himself told me, when under the title of duplicates, very many good books and various MSS. were bought and stolen. Collating with this MS. and its index, the Relacion de las Yslas Filipinas, y de lo que en ellas han trabajado los Padres de la Comp^a. de Jesus, an imprint of Rome, 1604, in 4^o, I have found that the Relacion is, as it were, a compendium of the Historia, or more properly, the latter which was written later is an extension of the former, and in many places, a literal copy. But the first part of the Historia (since we do not know whether he wrote the second part) must take up to the year 1611 or 1612, while the Relacion only takes up to July, 1602, when its author left Manila for Roma, where he signed it March 5, 1604. I shall state the result of the collation, advising that the parallel chapters will be noted, those of the Historia preceded by a Roman number denoting the book. I. 3=1. In the Historia, much longer, where are told succinctly the navigation of Magallanes, E. Gomez, Comendador Loaysa, the vessels of Cortes in 1527, and three other fleets through the strait; while the last mentions only the last of the archbishop of Palencia in 1540, that of Villalobos in 1543 from Nueva España, and that of Legaspi. III. 8, 9, 10=15, 16, 17. Literally the same, except a few additions and slight corrections in the chapters in the Historia. III. 14, 15=20, 21. 14=20 exactly. 15=21, in part identical, but in the Historia, the matter is treated more at length and divided into sections. III. 16=22. In part identical, but with additions in the Historia. III. 21=46. All of the matter of the Relacion is put into the Historia, and much is added in the latter. III. 20=30. Although agreeing in title, they are very different in substance, and the history is much better. III. 22=31. Very different, and with comparison much longer in the Historia. III. 25=33. Much in the Historia taken from the Relacion, but changed and greatly bettered. III. 28=34. Same as the preceding. This is also general. The prólogo is addressed 'To the Rev. Fathers of the Society of Jesus of the Filipinas.' Begins 'Quien lo hà provado sabe bien . . . lo q^e. bà del q^e. se nacio en la fee.' He says that obedience obliged him to write this history." Muñoz gives a copy of the list of chapters for the first five books; (book i, containing 32 chapters; ii, 26 chapters; iii, 33 chapters; iv, 40 chapters; v, 53 chapters); book ii, chapter ii (Descripcion de la Ysla de Manila, y otras, Comarcas) and iii (Las naciones q^e. havitan la ia. de Manila, y sus Costumbres); book iii, chapter xxiv (De la isla de Bohol), chapter xxv (El modo que los Filipinos tenian en amortajar y sepultar sus difuntos), chapter xxvi (Del Tavon), and chapter xxvii (De las herencias y subcesiones de los Filipinos); book i, chapter xiv (Apuntamientos breves de Algunas cosas de la China, hechos por el P. Alonso Sanchez en la Corte de España); book iii, chapter xv (De la falsa Religion Gentilica: idolatrias, y supersticiones de los Filipinos), chapter xvi (De las idolatrias que se descubrieron en S^a. Juan del Monte y su remedio). In all 32 folio leaves of small writing. Bound into a volume which was bought from O. Rich, and called Spanish-American Collection. Valuable as throwing light on Chirino's method of writing, and forever settling the authenticity of the date 1604 as the publication date of his Relacion.

Probably compiled by the provincial. Narrates events of Japan, China, East Indies, and the Philippines. It is short, and the small portion allotted to the Philippines very unsatisfactory, being merely an incidental mention of the defeat of the Dutch in their attempt to overcome the reënforcements that were being sent to Maluco.

Ends "En testimonio de verdad", with seal and signature "Don Juan de Salinas;" followed by notarial attestation of instruments drawn by the latter.

A long notarial document consisting of 27 leaves in our transcript. I. Statement by the above regarding the duties imposed on Philippine merchandise, and petition that the additional two per-cent duty be repealed as being too onerous. July 27. II. Royal decree concerning collection of duties in Manila. Madrid, August 26, 1633. This is followed by an act by the governor, Cerezo de Salamanca, dated July 21, 1634, ordering the observance of the decree. On July 23, accordingly, it was proclaimed. III. Statement by the royal officials regarding the gift of 4,000 pesos presented to the treasury by the city for the year 1632. IV. Statement by the fiscal Juan Fernandez de Ledo; and petition that above decree be obeyed. V. Order by the governor to register the goods in the ships about to sail in accordance with the decree. July 27. VI. A petition by the royal officials of the above date, asks that five per cent be collected on all the goods. That same day the governor orders the evaluation of the cargo to be made on the five per-cent basis, so that the ships may sail by August 1, even if only with the food necessary for the voyage. VII. Request made to governor, and allowed, for the citizens to meet in open cabildo to consider the matter on the following day, July 28. VIII. The sense of the meeting held on the twenty-eighth was that it would be loss and ruin to the merchants if they were compelled to pay the additional two per cent; and that with the high duties of Nueva España, the three per-cent duty was sufficient. At a meeting of the Audiencia July 28, all votes were in favor of remitting the two per-cent duty for that year in order that the vessels might not sail without cargo, as that would be more detrimental to the king than the non-collection of the two per cent. Accordingly on July 29, the governor decided to admit the petition not to collect the two per-cent duty that year.

The year of Iranzo's arrival in the Philippines is unknown, but in the chapter of Jan. 17, 1632, he is styled preacher. Later he went to Camarines where he learned Bicol, but in 1637, he returned to Manila where he became master of novitiates. In 1639 he went to the Moluccas as commissary provincial, and labored in the kingdoms of Manados, Calonga, and Tabuca, returning to Manila in 1645. After that period he served in various capacities in the Philippines until 1653, when he left for Spain to vote in the general chapter, but died at sea in the early part of 1654.

MERCADO, IGNACIO, O. S. A.:— Libro de medicina casera. Compuesto por un P. Agustino. [Ca., 1698.] Ayer Collection.

149 leaves; bound in pigskin. 8°. On the first folio is "Declaracion de las virtudes de los Arboles, y plantas que estan en este Libro." On the flyleaf is written by Retana, its former owner: "Father Fray Bernardino Nozaleda [the last Spanish archbishop of Manila] presented it to the military physician D. José de Lacalle in 1884; and Señor Lacalle gave it to me Sept. 6, 1893, in payment of a debt." A note by the librarian of the collection of the C. G. de T. de F. says that this is an eighteenth century copy of the celebrated book of medicinal plants written by Father Mercado, a Filipino mestizo; it is published in vol. iv of the Flora monumental Agustiniana, but there is some difference between the MS. and the published form; the native names of the plants are given. Quoted by the C. G. de T. de F. who acquired it from Retana, at 250 francs. The history of the MS. is told by Celestino Fernández (see Pérez, Catálogo, pp. 205, 206, note). Briefly it is as follows: "After the death of its author, the original MS. lay in the infirmary and apothecary shop of the Augustinian convent at Manila. In 1750, it was loaned to the Dominicans in order that they might make a copy of it. The original copy was examined by Agustin de Santa María at the Augustinian convent in Manila in 1760. During the English invasion it escaped the almost general fate of the Augustinian MSS. The Jesuits must have borrowed it to make a copy from it, and in 1769, at the expulsion of that order, it must have been confiscated. In 1876, Domingo Vidal y Soler found a copy in the possession of José Martínez Cañas, proprietor of Payabas, which had formerly belonged to the Society of Jesus. At Vidal y Soler's solicitation the owner presented the MS. to him, and after publishing in the Revista de Filipinas an article by the name of Un interesante manuscrito, the MS. was restored to the Augustinians. A second copy of the MS. was owned by José Martín, O. S. A., the parish priest of Tanauan, in the province of Batangas, and it is complete. This is probably the MS. cited by Blanco in his Flora. Still another MS. was owned by Celestino Fernández, which he declared to be the most complete. It was found in the village of Barotac Nuevo, in the province of Iloilo, in 1863. A copy of this last MS. was made in 1865 for Tirso Lopez, O. S. A." The Ayer copy may be one of these last two MSS., or a copy from one of them. Mercado, who labored in many villages, died in Bauan, in 1698. The MS. is cited by Ramon Jordana y Morera, Bosquejo, p. 356.

Declaracion de las virtudes de los árboles y plantas de Filipinas. [Ca., 1698.] Conserved in the Augustinian convent at Manila.

Cited by Ramon Jordana y Morera, Bosquejo, p. 356. This MS. was found by Domingo Vidal in 1877, who considered it excellent. It was published as a continuation of Blanco's Flora, by the Augustinians.

In front are sewed two leaves of rag paper, on the second of which is written in the hand of Retana, its former owner: “The manifesto of Archbishop Camacho is dated November 8, 1697. This defense, consequently, must be not later than 1698.” The MS. is sewed, but not bound. It was purchased by Mr. Ayer from the C. G. de T. de F., by whom it was priced at 250 francs. This MS. has 260 pen drawings. The text, minus the drawings, was published by John Ray in his Historia plantarum. This MS. comes from the library of Jussieu. Cited by Sommervogel, ii, col. 580. Camel, or Kamel, was born at Brunn, Moravia, April 21, 1661, and entered the Society of Jesus as a lay brother in 1682. In 1688, he went to the Marianas, where he devoted himself to the study of botany and pharmacy. He established a pharmacy at Manila, where the poor received remedies free. His death occurred May 2, 1706. Blumentritt (Vocab. einz. Ausd., p. 128) has evidently confused the name of this Jesuit, which he gives as Georg Carrol, and says that although his MS. ("Plants of the Philippines") has disappeared, it had been seen by Gemelli-Careri.

N. P. S. Augustin. 1760. Conserved in the Augustinian convent at Manila.

Quarto vol., on rice paper, of 206 numbered, and 4 unnumbered folios. Cited by Pérez and Güemes, pp. 470-472. This is an interesting bibliographical puzzle. There has been considerable discussion as to the authenticity of this MS., and the claims of the Augustinians that to them belongs the credit of the first Arte of the Bisayan tongue. This MS. is said to have been published in the decade 1760-1770, or even in the first half of the 18th century, and a copy is said to have been owned by Tomás Jimenez, O. S. A., who was killed by the insurgents in Cebú. The Arte published in 1803 or 1804 by the Jesuits, Pérez and Güemes believe to have been pirated from this MS. They believe from an endorsement on the MS. dated Sept. 16, 1792, that the Arte was a posthumous work of Encina, who died in 1760. The Jesuit edition of 1803 or 1804 collates with the MS., even to the omission of some erasures in the latter, proof that the MS. is not a copy of the former, but the book a copy of the MS., or of the edition published by the Augustinians in the 18th century. Cited also by Pérez, Catálogo, p. 275.

Causa de los temblores y truenos.

All cited by Pérez, Catálogo, p. 275. Encina also wrote several devotional works, some in the native languages. He was born in Ponferrada, in 1715. He professed in Mexico in 1737. Shortly after his arrival at Manila, he mastered the Pampango, Tagalog, and Cebuan tongues. He died at Opón, July 14, 1760, after many years of missionary work.

Begins "En el Pueblo de Bulacan, Cavezera . . ." Ends "y lo rubrico el señor Oydor Juez semanero.", with rubric and notarial signature.

This MS. was purchased from Vindel in 1904. Concerning it, a note fastened to the flyleaf says: "It contains in the 63 useful leaves of which it is composed, original testimonies of those appointments, acts, measures, and orders, written, dictated, and sent to all of the authorities of those islands by Anda y Salazar, in order that the country might be maintained in the obedience and dominion of his Majesty, the king of España, Don Carlos III, during the war sustained against the English in 1762 and the years following, in which the English made themselves masters of Manila and Cavite, until they were expelled and said places recovered by the Spaniards; with the original replies and testimonials of obedience and respect which were given to Anda, as such governor and captain general of Filipinas, by the prelates, alcaldes-mayor, provincial chiefs, the reverend fathers of the religious orders, and all the natives of the country; the constancy of the offers which they made him; the replies written to them by Anda himself; and other details interesting because of their text and form, and the originality which they manifest." This MS. throws many interesting sidelights on this momentous period of Philippine history; and from it one can in part reconstruct Anda's government during the war with the English. The MS. itself is bound in modern covers of red cloth. Many of the various papers bear the official government stamp, and most of the leaves bear the rubric, seemingly of Anda, in the left-hand recto margin, which proves these papers to have been the official copy. Many of the leaves are in poor condition, and the MS. is badly stained and slightly worm-eaten. There are other signatures in addition to that of Anda.

Osario Venerable. Bibliotheca Idiomática; Epitaphio; Honorífico; Catalogo Copiofo. Manila, December 20, 1780. Original in Manila, in the Augustinian convent. A copy (nearly contemporaneous) is owned by Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A., from which this description is made.

Below the title as above given, is the continuation: "Osario Venerable; Bibliotheca Idiomática Del Padre Fray Augustin Maria." And on the following page is the full title: "Osario Venerable: Biblioteca Idiomática: Epitaphio honorífico; Cathalogo Copiofo De Frayles Insignes en letras, ò en Virtud que han florecido en esta Provincia de Philipinas del Orden Calzado de San Agustín Nuestro Padre. Compendio Historico critico de los Principales fuecßos de ella Dispvesto Por Fray Agustín Maria de Castro Natural de la Villa de la Bañeza; Ministro de los Indios Bisayas, Tagalos, Pampangos, e Ylocos; y de Manila. A very full description of Eduardo Navarro's copy, which is the only authorized one, and contains notes in the hand of the author, is given by Diez Aguado, pp. 69-74; who also gives the prologue, pp. 75-84. The chief parts of this MS. are as follows (we omit fine details): I. Biographies of the most distinguished religious of our province, in alphabetical order, with supplement (pp. 27-309). II. Catalogue of the Augustinian provincials. III. The Benefactors of this province. IV. List of convents. V. Chart of souls administered by Augustinians in Filipinas in 1770. VI. Chart of souls administered by Augustinians in Chinese missions in 1771. VII. True relation of the condition of the villages of Leyte when the Augustinians received them from the Jesuits. VIII. Chart of all the provinces, tributes, and souls administered by the Augustinians in Filipinas. IX. Parishes and houses founded by Augustinians and transferred to other orders. X. First index of the names of the noteworthy friars mentioned in this Osario. XI. Second index of the authors, commentators, and translators contained in this Biblioteca idiomática; of the languages in which they wrote, with expression of printed books or MSS., their number and quality, and the place of their conservation. XII. Third Index, comprising the most notable, interesting, and rare things throughout the book (alphabetically arranged). XIII. Some criticisms by various fathers of this province of the first volume of Conquistas de Filipinas by Fray Gaspar de San Agustín, 1780. In his prologue, the author notes that he had finished his book in 1760, but made later additions. He has exercised his critical ability in regard to the biographical and bibliographical matter inserted therein. According to Diez Aguado, the book contains much historical data not in San Agustín. Gaspar Cano made considerable use of it in the compilation of his Catálogo. It is of distinct value bibliographically, and the most valuable of Castro's writings. As Castro became blind, and died in 1801, all entries in the Osario venerable, made sometime before and after that date, were made by Manuel Blanco, O. S. A., the author of Flora de Filipinas (see Pérez, Catálogo, and Retana, Estadismo, i, p. vii, note). Blumentritt, Vocab. einz. Ausd., p. 128, notes that Adalberts von Chamisso once owned a copy of this MS.

Octavo, of 51 pp. of text (numbered in pencil); preceded by flyleaf, one blank leaf, and title-page (in black and red), verso blank; at the end two blank pp. and flyleaf. Bound in black leather, embossed on back, "Castro Historia de Taal y Balayan." Cited in Vindel's Catálogo for 1903, no. 2619, which says "Original and unpublished MS." It was purchased from Vindel, who priced it at 400 pesetas, by Mr. Ayer. Treats of volcanoes, products, commerce, and industry of the provinces of Taal and Balayan. Cited also by Diez Aguado, p. 66; and Pérez, Catálogo, p. 317. Pérez thinks it the same as the following:

Historia de la Provincia de Batangas escrita por D. Pedro Andrés de Castro y Amadeo [Amoedo] [Castro's full secular name] en sus viajes y contra viajes en toda esta Provincia. Año 1790.

Pp. 174. 4°. This appears, however, to be a different MS. (see the corresponding sizes). Foreman (who cites it in his book, pp. 10, 14, and 384) is authority for the statement that it is conserved in the Augustinian convent at Bauan, Batangas. This is said to have been of great use to Martínez de Zúñiga in treating of the province of Batangas in his Estadismo.

Castro was born at La Bañeza, Aug. 16, 1740. At the age of sixteen, he was admitted into the Valladolid college, then just founded. On his way to the Philippines in 1757, he professed at the hospice in Mexico, where he remained for two years. He completed his studies in Manila, and in 1762 was appointed librarian of the Manila convent. During the English invasion, and some years after, he ministered in the Visayan islands, returning to Manila as librarian of that convent in 1773. His studies led him to travel through various Luzón provinces, where he gathered much literary material. In 1778 he was appointed preacher in the Manila convent, where he died Oct. 31, 1801. His numerous MSS. (some devotional) were conserved at the Manila convent. Retana, Imprenta, p. 10, note, calls him the greatest bibliographer of the Augustinian order in the Philippines.

VIANA, FRANCISCO LEANDRO DE; and others:— Expediente original de la guerra de los Ingleses. Manila, and other places, 1762-1767. Ayer Collection. Begins "Recivi la de V. S. con el mayor . . ." Ends "Ciudad de Manila en seis de Jullio de mill setecientos sesenta y siete años —".

This MS. consists mainly of matter relating directly to the war with the English, and the capture of Manila. It is chiefly composed of notarial documents, relating to the provisioning of the Spanish before the capture of the city, and to negotiations after the capture. It has some value, but adds little to the documents published in VOL. XLIX. The MS. was purchased by Mr. Ayer from C. G. de T. de F., who had previously purchased it from W. E. Retana. It consists of numerous papers (written on both rag and rice paper) bound together in a common paper cover. On this cover are the numbers 20 and 32, which were probably the numbers of the MS. in the above collections. Cited by Retana, Estadismo, ii, p. 345*. See also two preceding pp. for account of Viana's other MSS.

This MS. consists of the judgments pronounced by Viana in his capacity as fiscal in the various matters that were brought before him in the year 1765, and thus forms a most valuable record of the life of Manila and the islands in the eighteenth century. The MS. is bound in parchment, and lettered on the back "Asuntos de las Islas Philipinas año de 1765." It is a small folio of 289 numbered leaves and is written on rice paper. Preceding the text are one blank leaf and the title-page, both unnumbered; at the end is one blank unnumbered leaf. Between leaves 64 and 65 is a blank unnumbered leaf. It was formerly owned by W. E. Retana, who sold it to the C. G. de T. de F., from whom it was purchased by Mr. Ayer. The price quoted was 300 francs. This is cited many times in the notes to our VOL. I.

This is the fifth of six documents contained in a manuscript book, "Papeles varios," where it is fol. 211-255. This book is about octavo size, and contains 274 folios. It was added to the library about 1858, its accession number being 116,268, and is a part of the George Ticknor Collection. The above document treats of the commerce of the Philippines, and is mainly historical. A copy of the original. Cited by Retana, La Política de España, I, p. 273. Retana (idem.) also cites two other MSS. by Viana, as follows: 1. Reglamento de sus Reales Almacenes [de Filipinas?]. 2. Ceremonial de la Aud^a. de Manila.

He was born at Mexico in 1719, where he professed in 1735; and went to the Philippines two years before finishing his studies. On completing his course he was assigned to various villages in succession. To him is due the transfer of the site of Taal (1754) to its present location. He held many offices in his order, being prior provincial in 1778; and took considerable part in the opposition offered by the regulares to Anda and Santa Justa y Rufina. He died at Guadalupe, March 6, 1798.

Account of the Philippine Islands. [Ca., 1789?] B. M.; jure emptionis; 19,295; Plut. CLII. E.

In his preface the author says that he has translated from Colin, Combés, Murillo Velarde, and San Antonio (this last the main authority). For the nautical part, he has used MSS. of Antonio Perez Gil, Admiral Cabrero Bueno, Don Manuel Correa, and the printed Spanish instructions to the generals of their galleons. His object in the work was to furnish matter for the exact navigation of the islands, but he says it is defective. It contains good descriptions, and much of it seems firsthand. Written on 99 leaves, with wide margins. Purchased Jan. 7, 1853 from Messrs. Boone, at the Carley Castle sale. Lot 19,62.

TRAGGIA, JOAQUIN, O. P.; and ABELLA, MANUEL:— Yndice De la colección de manuscritos pertenecientes á la Historia de Yndias q^e. escribia Dⁿ. Juan Bautista Muñoz, y por su muerte se han hallado en su libreria.

Formado de R^l. oñ. Con intervencion de los S^{tes}. D^ñ. Josef Navarro, del consejo de S. M. Alcalde de su casa y corte, y D^ñ. Cenon Alonso, oficial mayor de la secretaria de Gracia y Justicia de Yndias. Por D^ñ. Joaquin Traggia, y D^ñ. Manuel Abella, individuos de la R^l. Academia de la Historia. Madrid, August 12, 1799, and signed with names: Josef Navarro; Zenon Alonso; Joaquin Traggia; Manuel Abella. Lenox; Spanish-American Collection.

This is bound up with a manuscript copy of Muñoz's first vol. of Historia del Nuevo Mundo (Madrid, 1793; regarding which, see Sabin), the only vol. of this that was published, although vol. ii exists in manuscript in both Lenox and R. A. de la H. Many of the titles listed relate entirely or in part to the Philippines. Few printed books are listed and then only when a transcript has been made from them. There are many titles relating to the early discoveries of the Moluccas and Philippines. The titles of this document should be checked up carefully with the documents in Lenox purporting to form part of the original Muñoz Collection. This MS. formed part of the Uguina Collection, and successively of the Ternaux-Compans and Rich Collections. 108 leaves in all. This is probably the same index that is found at R. A. de la H.

ZARZA, FRANCISCO DE LA, O. S. F.:—Arte del idioma Egongot. [Ca., 1800.]

Zarza, who was a native of Surita, went to the Philippine missions in 1788, and after learning the Tagalog language was sent to the missions of Casignan, Baler, Dipaculao, and Pungcan. He also mastered the Egongot language. His death occurred at Baler, December 31, 1810.

———:—Arte de la Lengua Zebuana, de los naturales bisayas en Filipinas. [1800?] Ayer Collection.

Pp. 78. Index. F^o. On the first page are a few lines in Cebuan, under which is the signature "Jacinto Pacaña," the latter almost obliterated. Possibly this is the author or a former owner of the MS. The MS. also bears the stamp of one Hipolito Fernandez, a former owner. It was acquired from Vindel in 1904.

———:—[Papers relating to the Compañía Real de Filipinas.] [Ca., 1800.] London; B. M.; Eg. 518, 519.

These are both printed and manuscript. Among others is the famous decree of March 10, 1785, creating above company.

MARTINEZ DE ZUÑIGA, JOAQUIN, O. S. A.:—VIAGE | DE M. LE-GENTIL | A LAS ISLAS PHILIPINAS | TRADUCIDO | Del Frances al Español | POR EL R. P. L^{or}. Fr. IOA- | quin Martinez de Zuñiga del Orden | de S. Agustin Ex-Diffinidor Califica | dor del Santo Officio, y Cura Re | gular del Pueblo de Parañaque | EL TRADUCTOR | añade algunas notas en | que descubre y refuta | muchos errores del | Autor. | 1803. In the possession of Dr. T. H. Pardo de Tavera, of Manila.

Written on rice paper and exceedingly well preserved, contains 352 pp. The first few pages are holed somewhat by termites. Measures 295 mm. x 195 mm., and has narrow margins. A partial collation is as follows: dedication "Al Illmo. y Rmo. Sor. D. Fr. Agustin Pedro Blaquier" (with translator's signature on p. 3); "Prólogo del Traductor," pp. 7-10. The work contains many annotations written in a fine hand as footnotes and in double column. This MS. was made in 1803 while Martinez de Zuñiga was seeing his Historia through the press, and not in 1804 as Retana supposes (Estadismo, i, p. xviii). Retana thinks that it was begun to be printed, but that it was discontinued by order of the colonial authorities, but he is probably in error. It has never been published, and the very place of conservation of the MS. was unknown to the Augustinians in Manila. Apropos of this document, Pérez and Güemes (Adiciones, pp. 500, 501), say: "We can only say that we know positively that there exists in Manila the MS. corrected by Zúñiga himself, and ready for press, although we do not know the happy possessor." See vol. XLIII, pp. 113, 114.

Estadismo | de las Islas Philipinas | ò | Viages del Excellentissimo Se
ñor Don Ignacio Maria de Alava the- | niente General de la Real Armada
al | interior de Estas Yslas en que se trata de | lo Phisico, Geografico,
Historico, y Politico | de ellos. | Compuesto Por el R. P. L. Fr. Joaquin
| Martinez del Orden de San Agustin Ex-Difinidor de su Provincia
Calificador del Santo Oficio, y Cura del Pueblo de Parañaque. | 1803-
1805. In collection of Eduardo Navarro, O. S. A., Valladolid.

In two vols. Bound in parchment. 4°. The Estadismo was edited by W. E. Retana in 2 vols., 8° (Madrid, 1893), but from another MS. Retana's copy lacks the Prólogo, which he later published (Archivo, ii, no. viii, pp. 227-242) from a copy of the first vol., owned by Sancho Rayon. Navarro's copy also contains the Prólogo. Retana's copy formerly belonged to José Cabezas de Herrera (whose entire Philippine collection Retana bought). This is a late copy made at Manila in 1879, and is in two vols. It bears title as follows: "Estadismo de las Yslas Filipinas ó mis viages por este pais por el R. P. Ltor. Fr. Joaquin M. de Zuñiga del órden de S. Agustin, ex-difinidor de su provincia, calificador del Santo oficio y cura regular del pueblo de Parañaque." This is accompanied by an index of chapters. Bonifacio Moral, O. S. A., cites the MS. with approximately the same title-page as Navarro's copy, but cites only vol. ii (see Retana's Estadismo, i, pp. xxii, xxiii), which he says is in the Valladolid college. This copy he says has a second title-page, as follows: "Viages del General de Marina D. Ignacio M^a. Alava por las Islas Filipinas ó Descripcion físico-geográfica é histórico-política del célebre historiador de Filipinas Padre Joaquin Martinez Zúñiga que le acompañó en sus expediciones. Publicada con notas y cartas geográficas por su amigo D. Fr. González Azaola, Paris." However, no such publication is known, and it was evidently never published. Moral notes that the vol. described by him had a third title-page on fol. 117, as follows: "Suplemento á los viages del Excelmo Señor D. Ignacio Maria Alava Then^e. Gral. de la Real Armada, en que se trata de lo restante de las Islas Filipinas." Father Navarro has some intention of publishing his MS., although a letter from him dated March 22, 1907, says that the publication is held up for the present. Retana conjectures that Mas had the use of Martinez de Zuñiga's MS. in the compilation of his work, and shows by parallel passages that Buzeta and Bravo used it. Excerpts were published in 1877 in the Revista de Filipinas. See Retana's Estadismo, i, prólogo. Martinez de Zuñiga's MS. is cited by Cano, p. 209; and his prólogo by Montero y Vidal, Hist. gen., ii, pp. 345, 346, note.

The first and third are cited by Pérez, Catálogo, p. 368. The second is cited by Fernández Duro, Armada esp., ix, p. 341, note; and published in part by Retana, Archivo, iv, no. vi. Nieto was a native of Toro, in the province of Zamora, where he was born in 1772. He professed at Valladolid in 1786. After completing his studies at Manila, he was sent to Ilocos, where he remained until his death, Aug. 4, 1836.

PALACIO, ANTONIO DE; and others:— Ynstrucciones sobre el cultivo del Tabaco. January 10, 1814. Ayer Collection. Begins "Direccion general de Renta Nacional de Tabaco . . ." Ends "para que nadie falte a ella. Vuelva al Director para su cumplimiento y dé cuenta.= Gardoqui= Ante mi: Fermin Jose Reyes."

Small folio in 7 leaves (first with title, second, blank, next 2½, text, and rest blank). The pp. with text are numbered 27, 28, and 29, and appear to have formed part of a larger MS.

NAVARRETE, JOSÉ:— Derrotero De las Costas del Estrecho de San Bernardino. Ynstruccion sobre las corrientes Mareas y Vientos reinantes que se experimentan en él. Navegacion que se deve hacer para atravezarlo en todas Monzones de E. à O. y de O à E. señalando los parages en que conviene fondear en estos casos. Manila, July 1, 1814. Ayer Collection. Begins (after dedicatory note) "Yntroduccion. Para la navegacion del estrecho de San Bernardino . . .” Ends “que se dirige algunas veces al Oeste,” with errata.

Rice paper. F^o. Pp. (10), 85 (text), 3 (blank), (1, errata). Written in the interests of commerce and humanity. Information concerning the winds and currents was given the author by those who knew them. Contains much good descriptive matter. Priced at 50 francs by its former owner, the C. G. de T. de F.

DON MERLIN:—Apologia | Contra Maleficarum Defensores. | Compuesta | para preservativo de incautos, defengaño de incredulos, e instru-
cion de los que defean tener alguna noticia de esta materia-| Por uno que
le llaman | El Rancio de Nuevo-cuño. | alias | Don Merlin. [1814.] Ayer Collection. Begins “Prologo. Amigo Lector: Habiendome fuplicado
. . .” Ends “non que Jefu-Chrifti querentes.” This is followed by a list of errata, and by the index of the chapters of the treatise. Following this is a short afterword: “Respuesta Apologetica quae contra una censura usurpada presentata à el Lector quiẽ le llaman El Rancio de Nuevo-Cuño alias Don Merlin.” This begins “Veritas vindicata. Contra censuram usurpatam. Por quanto . . .” Ends “de mi Prelado a quien la fujeto.”, with list of errata.

This MS. is undated, but on p. 22 the date 1651 is mentioned, and the interval between that date and the time of writing as 163 years, so that it must have been written in 1814. It is quarto size and contains 118 pp.; is sewed, but without covers, though it may have been bound at one time. It is made to imitate a book, and the letters are made singly to represent printing, in about 12 point. size. It was purchased by Mr. Ayer from the C. G. de T. de F., who priced it at 40 francs, and who perhaps acquired it with Retana's library. It is a most curious and interesting document regarding the superstitions of the Filipinos, the author (a Dominican) writing as though he himself believed in them; or else indulging in sarcasm. It contains much on witches, belief in which the author shows to have been of long standing. He cites several times from the old writers. It was written partly in Spanish and partly in Latin; and seems to have been prepared for the press.

lished as in above title. Retana and Vindel give the name as Aragoneses. The original edition was published in the Philippines in 1814; and the second edition was also published that same year in the islands. See Pardo de Tavera, Bibl. fl., p. 410; and Retana, Aparato

———:— Historia general sacro-profana, politica y religiosa, de las Yslas de Poniente, llamadas Filipinas. [Undated.] Ayer Collection. In two volumes. Vol. I begins "Parte primera. Libro primero. Capitulo 1º Noticia del descubrimiento . . . Habian corrido los tiempos . . ." Ends "en el siguiente año."; followed by an index of chapters. Vol. II begins with title at head of page as above, followed by "Parte segunda. Prosiguen los Españoles en las conquistas . . . Capitulo 1º. Trata el gobernador . . . el Patache S. Lucas. En grande expectacion . . ." Ends "se ejecutó con legalidad. Capitulo XIII."; followed by an index of chapters.

There is no author or date to this copy. The title is strikingly like that of Delgado's book, but it is not the same MS. On the title-page of each volume is written, in the same hand as the title-page, "Copia hecha hacia 1830" [i.e., Copy made about 1830]. On many of the pages is stamped the following: "Admon de las Obras de Vicente Barrantes Serrano 16 2ª Madrid." Both volumes are bound in cloth with leather backs. The embossing reads "Historia sacro-profana de Filipinas MS. Tomo I [on vol. II, 'II']". Vol. I contains 363 pp. of text (numbered), and five pp. of index of chapters (unnumbered). Part 1 contains one book of twenty chapters; part 2 has one book of nineteen chapters. Vol. II has pp. 167 (numbered), 86 (numbered), 10 (blank and unnumbered), 133 (numbered), 5 (index of chapters, unnumbered). This volume continues the second part, and consists of the following books: [iii], with chaps. 1-16 (but there are two chapters iii, two chapters x, and after chapter xvi, another chapter x and another chapter xvi); iv, with 12 chapters, and with blank pages, as though more matter were to be added here; v, with 12 chapters, and the words "Capitulo XIII." The period covered by both volumes is from the discovery of America to the insurrection of the Chinese in Manila in 1603. It is evident that there was more matter that was not copied, unless perhaps there was a third volume. There is no clue to the author, but he was undoubtedly a member of one of the religious orders.

He served in various villages, and died Oct. 17, 1852, after having filled several offices of note in the order.

[1835?] Ayer Collection. Begins “Yntro- duccion. Descubiertas é incorporadas estas Yslas . . .” Ends “en el estado que hemos descrito.”

Folio of 291 leaves; bound in leather back and boards; embossed on back, “Depredaciones de los Moros en las Islas Felipinas. P – C.” Its author was a member of the Sociedad Económica. Of this MS. Barrantes says (Guerras piráticas, pp. v-vii): “There is circulating to quite an extent in Filipinas a bulky MS. in folio, which is exploited mar- velously by the newspapers and local writers. From it, I have drawn, by way of extract at times, and more often by copy, this volume of the Guerras piráticas contra mindanaos y joloanos [the title follows, q.v., above]; a title which, taken alone, indicates the lack of learning of its author and the awkwardness of the work, circumstances which induced me to recast it, the only manner in which it deserved to see the light. For that I had the ex- press authorization of the person who gave me the MS. in Manila, in June, 1868. That person claimed rights of literary proprietorship, which I believe rather to be a possession of inheritance founded on certain antecedents. Without such authorization, which I have in my possession, I would never undertake a work, more difficult than brilliant, and more important for our policy in the colonies than for learning, today when especially these questions of Joló and Mindanao may be for the Spanish government the origin of very transcendent complications – and perhaps are so already.” Also (p. xiii) he says that he has often compressed three or four chapters into one, thus presenting scarcely one- third of the MS. (p. xii). This is an important MS., and Barrantes would have done much better had he reproduced it entire. Cited by Montero y Vidal, Hist. gen., p. 11, note, and p. 352, note. See also vol. xxix, p. 174, note 40.

RIZAL, DR. JOSÉ:— [Diary and clinical notes.] 1881-1887. Ayer Collection.

252 pp. — 1 leaf missing. Bound in red and black cloth. 8°. On the flyleaf is the endorsement signed by Retana, its former owner. "I certify that this book is entirely written in the hand and letter of Dr. Rizal, except page 134 [titles of books evidently sold to Rizal by Antonio Rosés whose receipt occurs on p. 137]. After Dr. Rizal was shot, this book became the property of the Filipino, Don Clemente J. Zulueta, from whom I acquired it. Madrid, August, 1903." On the front cover is printed "Clinica medica." This is a most important MS. for the study of Rizal's life. I. The first 9 pages are the minutes of the "Academia de Ciencias filosófico-naturales," to which Rizal belonged in Manila (a student society); in this occur the dates Thursday, Feb. 10, and Feb. 12, 1881, and further minutes dated simply 1881-1882; one page written in English. II. After one blank page begin the clinical notes which were taken in Madrid in 1886-1887, the first date being Oct. 4, [1883?], and the last, May 29, [1884?]; in all 137 pp.; with drawings of various cases. III. Four pages of book titles, evidently bought by Rizal. V. After one blank page, 23 pp., written in German; merely exercises in the language. VI. 6 pp., containing drawings of fortifications, and notes on fortifications (Spanish and English). VII. 40 pp., written in French and dated Berlin 1887, in part evidently exercises in French. These pages contain the following: letter on the subject "Madrid" (probably the copy of a letter actually sent); a letter called "Unter den Linden," and like the preceding probably the copy of a letter written to a friend; an essay on "Tartarin sur les Alpes;" an essay on "Le pistolet de la petite Baronne;" "Essai sur Pierre

By Patrick Murdoch, D. D. F. R. S.” This is written in English, and Rizal has reversed the book beginning this near the end, leaving a blank space between this and no. VII. IX. 6 pp. “Lecciones de Clínica quirúrgica,” and “Yndice de las historias [de las lecciones].” See Retana’s Vida y escritos del Dr. José Rizal in Nuestro Tiempo, 1904-1906. Priced by the C. G. de T. de F., who acquired it from Retana, at 1,000 francs. Rizal sailed for Spain in 1882, at the age of 21, and remained there until 1885.

Libro de memoria diario para 1884. Ayer Collection. Begins on January 1. “Tengo en valor nominal . . .” Ends November 2, “Hoy salió Luna para Paris e acompañamos en la estación Antonio Maximio y yo le acompaña . . . Pozuelo”.

This is one of the diaries published by Cárlos Bailly-Bailliere at Madrid, and is a long narrow book, with places for entries for each day of the year, being also combined with an expense account. On many days no entry was made. Some entries have been made in later years. Although comparatively little has been written in the book, one may construct in large part Rizal’s life at Madrid in 1884; and it is very valuable. On the title-page, Retana, its former owner has written: “Memoranda book of Dr. José Rizal. After he was shot, it came into possession of Sr. Clemente J. Zulueta, a Filipino, from whom I acquired it. Madrid, August, 1903.” Quoted by the C. G. de T. de F., who bought it from Retana, at 500 francs. Published in great part by Retana in Vida y escritos de Dr. José Rizal, in Nuestro Tiempo, 1904-1906.

The Editors also possess a typewritten copy of various letters of Rizal, which came from Epifanio de los Santos, of Malolos, Bulacan, Luzón.

Pp. 115, about 12° size; bound in blue leather. Presented to the library by F. D. Miller, of New York City. The author declares that the Philippines are in danger from the conspiracies and revolts of the natives, and the attempts of filibusters. He recounts at length the deeds of the Recollects (both temporally and spiritually) in preserving the sovereignty of Spain in the islands; and counsels fortification of the coasts in order to prevent the entrance of filibusters. These evils have come through the mistaken policy of the government.
